We have positions for four young men or women in this county (at least one in your town) who are well known, ambitious and able to creditably represent THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL, THE SATURDAY EVENING POST and THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. The work can be made permanent, or carried on as a "side line." Arrangements provide both commission and salary on all renewals as well as new subscriptions. We coach and train you in the work.

If you are interested and will write at once we will tell you all about the work. It is a splendid opportunity. Even though your time may be taken up in part with other matters, we will still consider your appointment. Address

Strong in Memory.

Rural winter joys increase in an inverse ratio to the square of the distance, or word to that effect. "It will be noticed that Whittier did not write "Snow bound" until after he had become a city-dweller and the memory of frosted nose and ears and itching hands and feet had become dimmed and vague. A too accurate memory, like acute truthfulness, is a terrible handicap for a real poet, just as it is to an orator.
