D. K. Smith's Big Royal Oak Store News.

Last week's sales were about one-half larger than the corresponding week last year. I am constantly surprised at the way business is increasing. There is a reason for it. If more people knew of how much they could save by buying here, we could not attend to the business we would have.

Did you see our advertisement in Thursday's Detroit News? Our business in the city has grown so that it attracted attention of the News. Good! My advertisements will appear from now on in that paper.

LADIES' HIGH GRADE COATS.

Just received some more new Coats. If you want a new, snappy, stylish, high-grade Winter Coat at a saving of one-quarter to one-third, come here. Some of the best dressers are wearing our garments. Your paying $5.00 to $25.00 more than my prices for a Coat of the same kind and quality elsewhere makes it a no better Coat.

If you have not examined my line you will be surprised at what a high grade lot of Coats I am showing.

MEN'S SUITS AND OVERCOATS.

A splendid selection of the new Fall Styles and Weaves at the low prices my small selling-expense will stand for. See the splendid $35.00 Full-lined Overcoat I am selling at $25.00.

A splendid $20.00 Warm, quilted-lining Astrachan Overcoat with roll collar, at $16.20.

FOOTWEAR.

A good thing to compare prices on is Rubbers.

One lot Men's Rubber Boots, $2.50.

One lot of Men's Rubbers for Socks, $1.25.

One lot of Men's Arctic Overshoes, 90c.

One lot of Men's Felts, and Rubbers, $2.50.

I also carry the famous Ball Band Heavy Rubbers and Straight Line, light, at prices that will save you money. You are foolish to take other makes of Rubbers at any price when you can get these superior makes.

You will save 20 per cent to 25 per cent on every pair of Shoes you buy here.

DRY GOODS.

We have a very large assortment of Underwear for Men, Women and Children. Our prices are right, and we give a nice Glass Dish with every $1.50 worth.

Bed Blankets galore at 49c, 59c, 75c and 98c, up to $5.00 for a great big soft-wool Blanket.

Men's fur-lined, fur-collar Corduroy Coats, $5.00.

A very big line of Sweater Coats.

HORSE BLANKETS.

A special quantity purchase.

A splendid thick Street Blanket for $1.50.

Full-lined Duck Stable Blankets, $1.50.

Very special prices on all fine all-wool Horse Blankets.

Don't forget our Big Home Furnishing Department. This is a splendid place to come to do your heavy Fall buying.

I almost forgot to mention what low prices I am making on Detroit, Jewel, Art Laurel Round Oak, and Cole's Hot Blast Stoves. Buying by the thousands of dollars worth, I get such low prices on Stoves that, with my small selling-expense, you will find my prices by far the lowest. Don't fail to see us about that Base Burner.

EVER POPULAR CHOW-CHOW

How to Prepare Delicacy All Like With the Cold Meat of Luncheon or Supper.

Materials: English mustard, one-half pound; tumeric, one-half ounce; mustard, two tablespoonfuls; cider vinegar, one-half gallon; brown sugar, one cup; olive oil, one-half cup; cauliflower, one head; tiny cucumbers, one quart; button onions, one quart.

Directions: Cover the cucumbers with strong salt water and let stand over night, drain and wash. Boil the cauliflower and onions separately. Put the vinegar into the kettle, mix the mustard and tumeric, then stir them into the hot vinegar and stir continuously until it begins to thicken, then add the remaining ingredients and pour this while hot over the well-drained vegetables and cucumbers. Seal tight. Medium sized cucumbers may be used and cut in pieces, not sliced.

HINTS FOR HOUSEWIVES

Among the chair seats which come ready to adjust are those of leather, rattan, wood or cane. Each has some point decidedly in its favor and none is difficult to fasten into place.

Custard bowls is the name given to be pretty low blue and white bowls which are quite as nice for bread and milk or berries and cereal, as for custard.

To remove iron rust from white material, wet the goods with lemon juice, rub on salt and put out in the sun. If the first application fails, try it again.

If salt dish is required for immediate use it will freshen much more quickly if soaked in milk instead of in water. Sour milk will answer as well as sweet.

Mix stove polish with equal parts of household ammonia and turpentine and apply to the cool stove; rub it with a soft woolen cloth.

A porcelain sink can be quickly cleaned with paraffin. Dip a flannel dishcloth into the paraffin and rub the sink till all stains are removed, then thoroughly wash it with soda water.

About Paprika.

Now that paprika is being so much used it is apropos to pass on a hint given by a man who is a connoisseur. He says paprika should be spread out on a paper and left in the sun for three days, which brings out its true flavor, making it far more appetizing. Nearly all cooks are now using it in French dressing. A bit sprinkled on cream cheese is delicious in brown bread sandwiches, and what could be nicer than a creamy baked potato, that has been broken open enough to put inside a big lump of butter and a generous sprinkling of paprika, all so quickly done that it is—must be—served piping hot.

Brown Mushroom Sauce.

Open a can of French mushrooms, turn into a bowl and let air one hour. Just before cooking the steak, melt four tablespoons of butter, add two tablespoons of flour, stir and cook till a dark brown, then add one cup of stock if you have it; if not, one of water and the liquor of the mushrooms, season with salt, pepper, pinch of sugar, one tablespoonful of table sauce, one tablespoonful of tomato catsup, one tablespoonful of sherry, and if you use water take a good piece of butter the size of an egg. Add mushrooms, put back on stove to heat, but do not cook them, as that makes them tough.

Rice Waffles With Maple Syrup.

Soak one and one-half cupfuls of cooked rice in enough warm water to cover. Add two and two-thirds cupfuls of sour milk, two and one-half cupfuls of sifted flour, one level teaspoon of salt and one beaten egg. Beat all together thoroughly and just before frying beat in one-half teaspoonful of soda. Have the waffle iron very hot and use plenty of fat. Put a spoonful of the mixture into each compartment, cover and brown, then turn and brown on the other side. Serve the waffles with maple syrup as a luncheon or supper dish.

Cucumber Sauce.

A new use for cucumbers is in a sauce which may be made in quantity and kept to serve from time to time with cold meats and fish. With cucumbers at their best, now is a good time to try this. Use 12 large green cucumbers, one onion, half a teaspoonful of red pepper and one teaspoonful of salt. Chop the onion and cucumbers and squeeze the water out of them. Stir in a piece of cheesecloth. Add salt and pepper and also one cup of hot vinegar. Mix all thoroughly and bottle in glasses with paraffin over the top.

Cream Salmon.

One quart of milk or half milk and half water, come to a boil, then thicken this with three tablespoonfuls flour or cornstarch which you have mixed thin with a little water before adding to boiled milk, let come to a boil, then remove from fire and add one tablespoon butter, salt to taste and one shake of pepper, then add one can of salmon and serve. Never boil after salmon has been added. Shredded codfish is very good if used in place of salmon.

Chocolate Bars.

One cup granulated sugar, one-half cup butter, two eggs beaten light, one-half cup flour (full measure), one and one-half teaspoons of milk, two squares chocolate melted, and one cup walnuts chopped fine. Flavor with vanilla. Bake in dripping pan. Cut into bars when done.

Spiced Crab Apples.

Six pounds apples, chopped fine, two pounds raising chopped fine, six pounds sugar, two oranges, with peel, two teaspoons cassia, one-half teaspoon cloves, one pint vinegar. Heat vinegar, sugar and spices, add other ingredients. Boil slowly 25 minutes.

White Soup.

Boil veal bones for three hours with an onion, one turnip and two carrots; strain and boil up again. Just before serving add one pint of cream or milk, well beaten with three eggs, stirring rapidly.

WEDDING BELLS.

On Saturday, the 18th inst., a pleasing event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Porter, of this town it being the marriage of their neice, Miss Helen Meyer to Earl R. Smith, of St. Louis, Mo. Dr. Jamieson officiating and Miss Mary Louise Porter acting as ring bearer. The morning had opened dull and cheerless, but, as the ceremony drew to a close, through a rift in the cloud, the sun entered an eastern window and kissed the bride. Among those present were three of her brothers, college students, and, the groom being a graduate of Brown University, and the bride herself also a college graduate, a gleeful half-hour was spent in singing college songs; then, conveyed by auto to the station, on a west-bound train for Chicago, for hours, as the happy couple glided on, the glorious benediction of a cloudless sun fell upon them. Two or three lovers of the bride at Yale University, unable to be present, had arranged for their own celebration at the appointed hour. Again all is over and the world moves on.

Is a story of the strongest interest and importance to all concerned with the welfare of the country as well as to all who like a story for the story's sake. It has been endorsed by hundreds of leading men and women.

We have arranged to publish this great story as our next serial, a liberal instalment in each issue.

The principal thing about this story is the way Mr. Hough handles his hero. It reminds one of Fielding's matchless analysis of that rascally thief-taker, Jonathan Wild. John Rawn is a story that you cannot sidestep if it once gets in your way. It is packed with vivid pictures and wise commentaries. Between its covers the conflicting currents of temporary life are seen winding to their inevitable destination. —Boston Globe
