A dance and a banquet were held at Will Larkies in Troy last Friday night under the auspices of the Eastern Stars. There was a wide awake crowd and a grand time was enjoyed by all.

Just before stepping off the car at Royal Oak last Saturday, W. H. Codnor was holding upon the jam of the door when the door shut bruising his middle finger upon the left hand badly.

W. H. Codnor was accidentally left recently by conductor Taylor on the 7:46 car at Clawson, southbound. Mr. Codnor says he is excitable for the chance happening as it was unintentional.

When man is tired, wearied out by work, or when racked with pain and sickness, the most soothing thing he can have administered, with the rub, cast or medicines is the soothing friction of a loving wife caring for him.

W. H. Codnor while in Pontiac was in Waite Bros. store by complimentary permit from Mr. Waite. He casually examined the store finding a large stock of fine goods in all the departments and pleasant and agreeable clerks among them was many girls from Birmingham to my surprise.

W. H. Codnor was in Pontiac last Wednesday upon the Flavia Wilson case against G. W. Wilson for a divorce for non-support and cruelty. Mr. Codnor dined with his friends the Geo. Campbell family at 133 Perry Street and he found George Brown the Postmaster, not at the Post Office but at his home on the sick list.

To Be Happy
You must have good health. You cannot have good health if your liver is not doing its duty. Slow but sure poisoning is going on all the time under such conditions because billions of germs are getting into the blood. Dr. Herriek's Sugar-Coated Pills put the liver in order, purify the stomach, bowels, and act as a tonic on the entire system. Price 25c. Sold by Cobb & Jennelle.—Adv.

Miss R. Sagendorf and sister Mrs. R. C. Stephenson off during a storm a few days with their Aunt Miss R. Niles recently.
The Oyster Supper at Miss Julia Larkie's home the 14th given by the Eastern Star Lodge of Royal Oak was a fine success.

For Children There is Nothing Better.
A cough medicine for children must help their coughs and soothe without bad effects on their little stomachs and bowels. Foley's Honey and Tar exactly fills the need. No opiates, no sour stomach, no constipation follows its use. Stuffy cold, wheezy breathing, cough and croup are quickly helped. All druggists.—Adv.

Southfield Burg.
Leon Miller still continues very ill.
Mrs. Martha Brooks still continues ill this morning.
Bertha Raden is helping Mrs. Martha Brooks for a few days.

The Franklin Auxiliary society will give a Thanksgiving dinner at the hall, Saturday November 22.
Mrs. Richard Chisum and children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, of Windsor, Ontario.
The shadow social at Stuart Reid's last Friday night was well attended. The shadows went unusually high. A bout $38 was cleared.
A number of the friends and neighbors of Gladys Brooks pleasantly surprised her last Friday evening on her 17th birthday. A fine time was had by all. She was the recipient of many beautiful presents.
Don't forget the annual bazaar of the Willing Workers given at the Presbyterian church on Friday evening, November 21. There will be handkerchief and candy booths, and a good time is promised for all. Every one come.

The Hen Lifts the Mortgage.
Statistics show that the hen is the best paying investment on the farm when given proper care and attention. If you want to get the best results feed your chickens a little of Harwell's Condition Powder occasionally. It makes the hens lay. No feed stuff mixed with it to make a large package nothing but pure medicine. Price 25c per package. Sold by Cobb & Jennelle.—Adv.

R. D. NO. 1
The Fairview farm just had the wires strung for the telephone to their house.
Wm. Maxwell last week butchered a bunch of hogs. They look like good money.
Wm. Stickney will work for Dr. E. A. Smith this winter as his labor commenced last Monday morning.
Geo. B. Dort took his shovel last Tuesday morning and fixed up the bad spots on the road east of his farm, free gratis.
John Zimmerman will put an addition on his home for more rooms. It looks a little suspicious but John says it all right, I guess it is.
The Willing Workers will hold their annual bazaar on Friday November 21, at the Presbyterian church. Now let me say, everybody is invited, don't forget it for a good cause.
Dr. F. W. Young has platted his farm into lots last week and he will make a boulevard from east to west and south at the east and west road work for grading commences Monday. There will be shade trees and shrubs.
Now good people lets look over the good road question. Keep the snow banks from your mail box also keep road open so the poor mail man can get to your place. If you don't you may wonder why the mail man don't leave your mail. The law reads like this; Road must be passable and opened, not just one track. Now don't forget these notices, also keep the snow so a horse can get up to your mail box. Now let us help one another, don't say let the other fellow do it but say let us all do it.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE GIRL WITH UGLY HAIR
Don't mourn over it! Don't envy others because they have beautiful hair. Begin right now to give proper, intelligent care and attention to your hair, and then let others envy you. Use Harmony Hair Beautifier, a delightful liquid hair dressing that is just what it is named a hair beautifier.
To make the hair glossy, soft and silky—no make it easier to put up in smooth, wavy folds, and stay put—to restore to your hair the well-groomed appearance you want it to have—to overcome the unpleasant, oily odor of the hair and leave instead a delightfully dainty, fresh rose fragrance. Harmony Hair Beautifier will please you or your money back. Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before applying. Contains no oil; will not change the color of the hair, nor darken grey hair.
To keep hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives a rich lather, combing, penetrating into every part of hair and scalp, insuring quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Can't harm the hair, leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet cleanliness.
Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tips. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in Birmingham only at our store—the Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony Laboratories in Boston, where the many patented Harmony Formulas are made. Preparations are made. Charles J. Shain.—Adv.
