BIG BEAVER

Mrs. Jesse King is suffering from a severe sore throat. The Melber family of Warren were also recent guests at the Bowers home. George Stevens is quite ill. Dr. Anderson of Royal Oak is attending him.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bowers and little daughter of Detroit spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bowers.

Ray Fisher has taken a position in the National Twist Drill Co's plant corner Brush Street and Boulevard east, Detroit.

Ed. Lamb who was recovering nicely from the effects of three broken ribs, the result of an accident, was taken last Saturday with pleurisy in his side and is again confined to his bed under the care of Dr. Gass.

Harry Ford who died suddenly at his home 438 Ferry Street, Detroit on Wednesday of last week had many friends here besides a number of relatives. The burial took place last Saturday afternoon in Royal Oak Cemetery.

Theo. Dongrow, Warren James, Louis Anderson and Andrew Martin secured deer license and left last Wednesday for Salt Lake near the straits in Northern Michigan, to hunt. They expect to remain until the end of the hunting season.

Mr. Sam Donaldson is building a barn 36x70 feet with full basement. The handsome round roof is unique to the hip roof barn more usually seen. The barn is built on the side of a hill, an ideal place for a basement and when finished Mr. Donaldson will have one of the best and most modern barns in these parts. The work is being done by Mr. Burlock of Pontiac.

The Ladies Aid society will hold their annual bazaar at the Macabee hall on the afternoon and evening of Thursday, Nov. 13. The sale will consist of fancy and useful articles and a booth of home made baked goods will be added this year. Another happy feature of the occasion will be the chicken pie supper to be served at 25c and should appeal to many. Conveyances will meet the south-bound 6:10 and the north-bound 6:42 cars, standard time. All are welcome and urged to attend.

Quite a number of the members of the Ladies Aid society met for their regular monthly meeting last Wednesday afternoon Oct. 29, with Mrs. Ren Shanahan where dinner was served after which business matters were arranged and the following officers for the ensuing year were elected. President, Mrs. Ross Lamb; vice-president, Mrs. Ed. Fisher; treasurer, Mrs. A. A. Gibbs; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Halsey. Mrs. Shanahan was assisted in serving her guests by her daughter Mrs. Powell of Detroit.

This Beautiful Hair

Is like what you want your hair to be—Lustrous, bright and glossy; soft, silky and wavy.

To have beautiful hair like this, use

HARMONY HAIR BEAUTIFIER

It's just what its name implies—just to make the hair glossy, and lustrous, and more beautiful—just to make it easier to dress, and more natural to fall easily and gracefully into the wavy lines and folds of the coiffure, just to give that delightful fresh and cool effect, and leave a lingering, delicate, elusive perfume.

Will not change or darken the color of the hair. Contains no oil; therefore, cannot leave the hair sticky or stringy.

Very pleasant to use, very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it.

To thoroughly clean your hair and scalp, use

Harmony Shampoo

A liquid shampoo to keep the hair clean, soft, smooth and beautiful. It gives an instantaneous rich, foaming lather, penetrating to every part of the hair and scalp. It is washed off just as quickly, the entire operation taking only a few moments.

It leaves no lumps or stickiness.—Just a refreshing sense of cool, sweet cleanliness.—Just a dainty, pleasant and clean fragrance.

Both in add-shaped ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00; Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to please you, or your money back.

Sold only by the more than 7000 Retail Stores—The World's Greatest Drug Stores—and in our own fine Boston Laboratory where the delightful HARMONY, VIOLET DULCE and SOUQUET JEANNE Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made.
