

ACTION SUCCESS

What Small Town in Oakland County Takes the Cake for "Kickers" That's Easy, "Big Beaver."

Hurray! for Hulizer who puts a quietus on the quixotic ideas of "kickers" and proves to frightened farmers that "all is well that ends well" and to never borrow trouble.

Everybody in Oakland county has heard of W. H. Hulizer and his ability as auctioneer, but Mr. Hulizer's ability does not end there, and it only took him a few minutes to prove himself possessed of unusual tact the other day when at Wm. T. Strong's sale some suspicious, curious and ignorant farmers, became frightened at the amount of E. B. Davis' purchases.

Mr. Davis having just awoke to the facts of the situation laughed heartily and thanked Mr. Hulizer for his kindly making him acquainted with the alarmed element in such an unusual way of introduction, and Mr. Hulizer in his very pleasing manner, announced, "We will go on with the sale, who bids?"

Not Beyond Help at 87. Sleep-disturbing bladder weakness, stiffness in joints, weak, inactive kidney action and rheumatic pain, are all evidence of kidney trouble.

The Avenue.

That recently "discovered" land of romance which is known as the old Hudson Bay country in northern Canada with its picturesque trading posts, its rugged Scotch and French-Canadian folk and its old frontier traditions will form the theme of the drama which the Holden Players, at the Avenue theater, have selected for Christmas week.

Family Theatre

The patrons of the Family Theatre will have a rare on Christmas night. John Shann the manager has secured at a great expense "Protes," a five-act drama, which is pronounced by press and public to be one of the most unique, daring, sensational and thrilling dramas of the moving picture world.

OBITUARY.

MRS. MARY ANN JARVIS. Mrs. Mary Ann Jarvis, wife of Samuel Jarvis, was born in Oakland county, this state, March 2, 1913, and died at the home of her oldest son, Cyrus, at Pontiac, Dec. 15, 1913, at the age of 82 years, 9 months and 13 days.

What a young woman of 18 years of age she was married to Samuel Jarvis who proceeded her across the river of death some 14 years ago.

Living lived for so many years in this vicinity that the deceased was better known in the community, better known, indeed, by a generation who have for the most part gone the way of all the earth, but who with her experience of all the trials and hardships of the early pioneer days.

Many years ago she became interested in religion and was baptized in winter in a stream near Royal Oak. In these days from streams and snow and ice did not stand in the way of doing a religious duty believed to be required of the Master.

Her last days were peaceful. She lived beyond the allotted time, and has been gathered in like a shock of wheat, fully ripe from the harvest. Of her it may be said as the poet wrote: "A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, we are."

GOES WITH A RUSH

The Business Men of Birmingham Start out for the Good of all. Success is Assured.

Meeting called to order by C. J. Shain who explained the purpose of the organization.

A short discussion followed Mr. Percival's speech and it was moved by T. W. Miner and seconded by Homer LaJoie that this Association be called Birmingham Business Men's Club.

The work of formal organizations followed and the following officers and Committees were duly elected.

President, Charles J. Shain; Vice President, Homer LaJoie; Secretary, Geo. Jennelle; Treasurer, T. W. Miner; Directors: H. G. Spencer, Phil Schlaack, Alanzo Bailey, Lou Erwin, W. E. Smith.

This movement starts right and we are sure it will be a great help to our town in every way, its growth, its social fraternity and its improvement in a civic way.

"What's the name of this street?" asked Lovey Mary of a small barefooted boy.

"Tain't no street," answers the little fellow, "this here's the Cabbage Patch." And such is Lovey Mary's and Little Tommy's introduction to the locals of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."
