Do you think we are giving this Civic League thing all the credit there is due to it? They are earnest, energetic men, giving their time, experience and earnest endeavor for the uplift and improvement of our village, without fee or reward, other than to make Birmingham bigger and better. Let's join the chorus and help 'em along.

Late advices from 'Gene Brooks gives us the impression that he and Mrs. Brooks are having the time of their lives. He writes, however that Dick Lusted, (whom some of our older readers will remember as the Birmingham baker) says if it wasn't for Dollie, his daughter, he would'nt stay in California twenty-four hours, so you see it is'nt all beer and skittles even in sunny Los Angeles. 'Long about April you'll see 'Gene coming home singing, "They all com back to Birmingham!"

One evening last week, while Mrs. Web. Bray and Mrs. Austin Parks were sitting 'round the room kimonaized, some one suggested that Web. go up town and find some one to come down and enjoy a game of 500. Web. went. He found the players. When he opened the door he was simply paralyzed. There were Polly and Mac in full court dress and the big house crowded full to give him a surprise party. It was a grand success, and all Web. could say to give vent to his deeply stirred up feelings was "Well, I'll be Goldarned". The party left at a reasonable hour with many a hearty wish to the pair for a long and happy life.

Last Friday night C. P. S. Price, Manager of the Walker Gordon Farm, had some high with one John Sullivan of Ogenaburgh Ontario, in regard to his mis-conduct and he pulled out of his pocket a set of metallic knuckles and gave Mr. Price a black eye. Mr. Price threw him down and took them away from him and had his boy telephone. Justice Campbell to send an officer there at once, so the said Justice got officer Reed on the way forth with. Mr. Price held him down till the officer arrived. The officer arrived and took charge of him until the next morning. Mr. Price then appeared and swore out a warrant before Justice Campbell charging respondent with carrying concealed weapons having gone armed with metallic knuckles concealed upon his person, with intent to do great bodily harm upon C. P. S. Price. The said defendant was brought in by the officer and arraigned before the said Justice and waived examination. In default of $500 bail the prisoner was taken to the county jail.

Mrs. Freeman Richardson, of Martin street, who is spending the winter with her son, Bert, in Bay City, reports having a good time but is missed by her many friends here.

Mrs. Mary Reynolds and sister, Miss Neal of Northville, sisters of the Neal Bros. of the Acme White Lead & Color Works of Detroit, visited Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Shattuck on Thursday last.

Mrs. Dick Dewey, wife of Commissioner Dewey of Pontiac, and her mother Mrs. Fair of Clarkston, were guests of Mrs. James B. Hunt of Brown street and Mrs. H. P. Saltzer on Townsend street, this week.

Mrs. Grand Porter of Woodward ave. is surely recovering from an operation at the Grece Hospital for appendicitis. Dr. George P. Raynale was the surgeon and all are pleased to see the patient slowly but surely recovering.

You cannot forget the repeated K. of P. show to come off next Wednesday evening at the Family theatre. Tickets can be had at the stores of Shain's or Cobb's. So many failed to see the first performance, that it just had to be repeated.

The Boy Scouts held their drill in the gymnasium room of the new Barnum school building Tuesday evening. Since W. E. Murchie moved to Illinois, the boys have been without a leader, but are most fortunate in having secured Mr. Earl Barr as their scout master.

The officers of Birmingham Temple No. 94, Pythian Sisters, entertained at Progressive pedro last Monday night. About 40 attended. The first prizes were won by Mrs. John Kelly and J. A. Wendorph., and the consolation prizes fell to Mrs. Chas. Hallock and Geo. E. Daines. Refreshments were served, and all enjoyed the evenigs entertainment.

The Detroit Business University with its host of ex-graduates as employers is in a position to do more than most schools of this kind in securing good positions for its students. Its success in this regard, and the excellent courses of training given combine to make it the largest and most important Business Training School in our State.—Adv,

Now is exactly the correct time for you to look over that old suit and if it's worth renovating and making over Mr. Chas. Peck is the man to do it for you. He is very busy now but with improved machinery he can and does take personal care of all work entrusted to him. New suit? Well, well, he is right home on that score, and can make for you to order and to fit a new suit for only $15. Call and pick it out. He is waiting.

Dr. E. Mather, formerly of our city, can now be found at his new home and office, 46 Warren Ave., East, daily from 2 to 4 o'clock, a very busy man. He has patients from all parts of the world to treat for cancers, tumors, and old sores etc. He is very successful and has many remarkable cures to his credit. He is now snugly settled in his own sanitarium and will be pleased to have all of his old friends call when in the city, whether on a professional call or merely to have a little chat over old times.

Remember Will A. Satterlee? You do if you are as old as Mitchell. Mr. Saterlee is General Manager of the city street car lines of Pittsburg, Kansas well as all the inter-urban lines, and the system is one of the largest and best in the U. S. We received a call from Mr. Satterlee who was here recently on a short visit with his sister, Miss Mary. Will has still a recollection of Troy, and B'ham to compel him to invest a big round dollar for the Eccentric so as to hear from his old home. Thanks.

That Dr. George Raynale always was a crank over machinery and tools to do his work with, and in it successfully is a well known fact, and we were not a bit surprised to notice a strange looking affair in his office recently, and on inquiring found out that it was the very latest X Ray machine,—a portable affair, one to be taken to the home of a sufferer. If the invalid has electricity in the home for lighting, then this M. D. can make an examination of a bone fracture or a break just as well as the old fashioned heavy and stationary machine could do it. This is a most wonderful thing to do. The machine is very powerful and makes this progressive Doctor right in line with the latest. Of course we don't want to try it neither does any one else for that matter, but when it is needed then the Drs. Raynale can supply it.

W. S. Skelton, a merchant at Stanley, Indiana, says he would not take $100.00 for the relief a single box of Foley Kidney Pills gave him. "I had a severe attack of kidney trouble with sharp pains through my back and could hardly straighten up. A single box of Foley Kidney Pills entirely relieved me." For sale by all druggists.—Ad.
