Garrick Theatre.

THE SILVER WEDDING.

Once in a great many years a comedy is produced which strikes an original note. Such a play is "The Silver Wedding," which H. H. Frame will present at the Garrick Theatre, Detroit, for a week beginning Monday, February 21. This comedy, from the pen of Edward Locke, author of "The Climax," "The Case of Becky," and other successful comedies, like his other plays, a substantial quality which distinguishes it from any other play seen on the American stage in years. It is not a drama of sex, nor yet a play of passion stage offerings with which the theatre-going public is familiar, but a comedy of wit and humor, and a play of simple tale of simple people. The scenes of the comedy are laid in Western Pennsylvania, and its principal characters are the family and friends of Ludwig Kohler, a prosperous German-American harness maker, of simple habits, genial disposition and lovable character, but who develops a streak of stubbornness which is the humor of the play.

Mr. Frame, who is the producer of New York's two biggest successes this season, "Fine Feathers" and "Ready Money," has been justly proud in selection of the cast for "The Silver Wedding." The company is headed by Thos. A. Wise, foremost of American character comedians, and includes Edna Auer, Alice Gale, John J. McCowan, Sigfried Abovitz, Richard Melvin, Robert Ames, Bratton Kennedy, Frances Nelson and others.

Conductor S. L. Miller, Norfolk, Nebraska, of Bonafest Division of Chicago & Northwestern Railway, recommends Foley Kidney Pills, saying: "I have used Foley Kidney Pills very satisfactory results and endorse their use for all cases afflicted with kidney trouble. They are a gem."

IV MEMORIAL.

WILLIAM N. FALLS.

His hands were hard and tough and his speech was sometimes rough.

But we knew the kindly spirit "neath it all."

Where ever help was needed, the call was always heeded.

By our old-time friend and comrade, Nathan Fall.

Leaves and strife for him are past, peace has entered in at last.

He has heard the echoing revellers' call.

Over him the "taps" have sounded, his days of life are rounded.

For our old-time friend and comrade, Nathan Fall.

Faithful husband, father, friend; unswerving to the end.

In his duties and his friendships, one and all.

Loved ones over there will miss him and with fond embraces greet him.

Our old-time friend and comrade, Nathan Fall.

When he went beyond the tide, over on the other side.

And he passed the outer portals, once for all.

Did shadowy columns say "Here's Nathan, other comrade to stay."

"Fall in, fall in, old comrade! Nathan Fall."

Mrs. S. S. Van-Buren Street, Kingston, New York, (Call name furnished on application) has each decided benefit from using Foley's Kidney Pills and has found that the pills have given her good fortune with their use. She writes: "Foley's Kidney Pills have cured my severe case of bronchitis and laryngitis. Oh, how many people I have recommended it to. For sale by all druggists.—Advertisement."
