CHAPTER XIII

The Department of Correspondence... I simply couldn't believe it...

"Ah, Mademoiselle, you are here!"... "I was already across the corridor..."

"What is the matter? Celine says you are ill!"... "Oh, it's nothing, but I've been crying..."

Celle hesitated, looked at me apologetically, and went out. Then I read my first love letter...

"Mademoiselle will not faint" she inquired... "I'll not faint unless you fall to come with the dinner..."

"I had loved him from the first, I knew that now I wondered that I didn't realize it sooner..."

"There is no answer..." "Ah, Mademoiselle, there is the answer..."

"I heard the sound of the gray car..." "I admitted now that I had hated for it..."

"I was in a panic. He must not come into the corridor and speak to me..."

"I had a real cry, a joyful, sobbing, refreshing weep..."

"I had a real cry, a joyful, sobbing, refreshing weep..."

"I had a real cry, a joyful, sobbing, refreshing weep..."

"The Mysterious Motor Boat..." "I gazed at the letter, trying to comprehend its meaning..."
