Not so very many years ago in Birmingham on G. T. Ry. a car load of freight consigned to one person, was commented and talked about for a year, and will be the scoots that there was a freight car full of freight to someone firm or individual in so many years. It is very different now W. E. McClellan one day last week had seven full car loads of chicken feed, meal, flour, feed etc. It keeps the little man bustling but he gets there just the same. Poultry Raisers will be interested in this new adv't in this issue. Read it.

Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest for us were the words in last week's issue when we said John Deane died last Friday. Say! He isn't! Every one in the Peculiar office knows it and knows it well since John called on us after the paper came out last week, in which we said John was dead. It can't be decided yet who is to blame. R. D. No. 1 Rousseau's lawyer (Hazel, Harriet says, pointing at Harriet) 'twas her, Hazel looking toward Fisher, says 'twas he, and he, Fisher, with a Duke eye says, 'I, George did it' so it's up to Mitchell.

Judge Hubbard of Wayne county Probate court, refused to issue an order Friday for the removal of Mrs. Mary A. Fisher, an insane patient in the Oak Grove sanitarium at Flint, Mrs. Louisa A. Jenks, her mother, wanted her removed to the Pontiac asylum. The petition was opposed by representatives of the Union Trust Co., executor for Mrs. Fisher's husband's estate. He was Maxwell M. Fisher, and was wealthy. The mother declared her daughter is not getting the proper treatment at the Oak Grove sanitarium but this was denied by Dr. Burr, head of the institution, who was placed on the stand.

The funeral of Tillman C. Trowbridge, age 56 was held from his late home Monday of this week. On Friday last week after a short illness caused by a paralytic stroke. His funeral was largely attended, and he was sincerely mourned by a host of old time friends gathered together to shape their last adieu for one they really loved. Rev. W. H. Jamieson conducted the services after which the remains were buried in the family lot in Greenwood cemetery. Tillman was a clean, bright citizen and without an enemy in the world. He leaves a sister and a brother to mourn his unjuly end.

All lovers of good horses, and buyers, and anyone interested in equines are hereby notified that Messrs. Freer & Newell have started a livery and sale barn in this village and call your attention to the fact in a new advertisement in this issue. They are on Maple avenue east, have a fine large barn, and sell you horse flesh so that you can make money. Their aim is to keep horses moving. They are not holding sales off for big profits but let them go with a small commission. All horses sold by them are guaranteed to be just what you need for no more. Their word is good and they are determined to build up a big business.

Mr. J. L. Cooper, a well known business man of Fowlerville, Mich. died recently at his home from heart disease. He was the father of Mrs. J. W. Miper, and both Mr. and Mrs. Miper were in attendance at the funeral services which were held last week, Friday at his late home, under the auspices of the Masonic Fraternity. For many years he was in the employ of the business interest of Fowlerville and served his fellow man in various ways. By his steadfast integrity he was admired by a large circle of friends and dearly loved by his family. He was married to Mrs. Miper in 1874, and reared a well grown up children to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and most excellent father.

A pleasant surprise party was planned on Monday evening for Mrs. Carl Symons, the occasion being his 50th birthday. About 25 with some full of good things went to the home at 8 o'clock. To say she was surprised is putting it rather mild. Progressive people were in joyous by all, there being no talk. The prizes were won by Mrs. Elmer Monroe and Ernest Morrow, several prizes Mrs. W. H. Wood and Miss Stella Wandorff and a prize by Mrs. Symons. After the game refreshments were served and the party concluded with 15¢ S. Symons very happy retirement. A very pretty silver cigarette set, and a watch were presented to Mrs. Symons with very appropriate words by Mrs. W. H. Wood, a token from all who attended.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson, Jr., a baby girl on Feb. 28. Miss Bessie McDonald was the guest of Miss Stella Wandorff Monday night. John T. Brown, son of Wm. Brown, was buried in Greenwood cemetery a few days ago. Deceased was an old time Birmingham boy, whose father platted that part of the village from which Brown street received its name.

W. H. Hoge & Co. have sold their Hardware business to Philip H. Schlack who took entire possession on Monday last. This is a good deal for Mr. Schlack whose acquaintance in this village and vicinity will be of immense value to him in his new venture. We certainly wish him good luck in this business.

All Kickers are interested, and especially all dairy men and farmers who would be freed from irritation caused by kicking cows. Go at once to the Walker-Gordon farm, see Mr. C. S. C. Price and ask about the good qualities of his device to save damages from kicking cows and an invention that makes them be good. It is worth money to any one having milking dows.

W. A. Sutherland, painter, paperhanger and decorator has moved right down into the heart of the village, having rented the late Henry Spicer home on Pierce street. Our old time friend, Henry and the good wife are now snugly settled in their new home lately purchased from John D. German on Woodland street. Heretofore Charles the G. T. Ry. engines' noises are sweet music to his car and invoke slumber every night.

HERE AGAIN!

Those cold mornings when pancakes taste so good. But they don't taste real nice unless you have some of OUR GOOD OLD-FASHIONED HOME-MADE PORK SAUSAGE, or some of OUR NICE HOME-GROWN CORN-FED PORK to go with them. We also have the choicest cuts of nice, tender, juicy prime BEEF, nice SPRING LAMB, real nice VEAL, and choice SPRING CHICKENS and FOWLS.

We handle the celebrated MARGOLD and MONARCH brands Butterine. Tastes just like Creamery Butter. All kinds Cold Meats, Canned Goods and Vegetables.

Yours for courtesy and good treatment.
