Clean up day Tuesday and Wednesday, April 22 and 23. Put your old junk in boxes and barrels and bring them to the walk and the teams will get them. Put them out the first day. The teams will not go into the yards but will gather them from the sidewalk.

The W. F. M. S. Thank-offering meeting at Mrs. Grace Smith's yesterday, Thursday, was a fine and successful affair. Miss Lou Ninda of Detroit provided special music and the program. Subject: China. The entertainment was good and a supper was served. The proceeds were added to the Thank-offering to be used for hospitals and schools.

Does Mrs. N. L. Shaw love an oil stove? Ask the lady. Last Sunday she started hers in the bath room, and it shot a time and then!—Not a black smoke with strings attaching rushing out under the door and keeping the lady in the street. When she had her head and face up she succeeded in putting out the oil stove but had been cleaning the room ever since. There was a coating half an inch thick of the best and purest lamp black on every saw over everything in the room. She could sell a ton and then have plenty left.

H. F. Daniels will store your stoves and take good care of them. Try him. 37
