MORTGAGE SALE.

Whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the 3d day of March, A. D. 1911, executed by Lewis H. Strebel, and Ella B. Strebel, his wife, and in brown right, of Ortonville, Michigan, to Orlando C. Laing, of the same place, which said mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of the County of Oakland, Michigan, in Liber 1805 of Mortgages, on pages 622 and 623, on the 3d day of March, A. D. 1911, at five o'clock p. m., and the same is now owned by him—said Orlando C. Laing. And whereas by the terms of the said mortgage, if the principal or the interest is not paid within 30 days after maturity, the whole sum of the principal and interest may, at the option of the mortgagee, become due and payable at once, and whereas the said 30 days and more having elapsed, and the interest and part of the principal due not having been paid, the said mortgagee hereby elects that all sums of principal and interest of the said mortgage are now due and payable immediately. And whereas the whole amount claimed to be due and unpaid on said mortgage at the date of this notice is the sum of three thousand four hundred and 6 tyode and 00-100 dollars ($3,406.00) of principal and interest, and the further sum of $35.00 as an attorney fee stipulated for in said mortgage and provided for by the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the front door of the Court House, in the City of Pontiac, Oakland county, Michigan, on the 6TH D. OF SEPTEMBER, A. D. 1913, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, which said premises are described in said mortgage as follows, to-wit: The lands, premises and property situated in the Township of Bruston, County of Oakland and State of Michigan, described as follows, to-wit: The northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 18; the south half of the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section nine, and the southeast quarter of section 16, lessthree acres off of the northwest corner and five acres of the southwest corner, containing in all 317 acres of land, more or less. Dated June 4, 1913. ORLANDO C. LAING, Mortgagee.

Eyster and Howarth have recently bought part of Dr. High's farm facing the Paint Creek Road a little over one half mile east of Clawson. The owners intend to run a street through to Clawson and soon platting out into lots will be done in Clawson.

Gladys Rogers of Clawson celebrated her 19th birthday last Saturday with a picked party of twenty or more young folks. She was the recipient of many presents among which was a twenty-dollar gold piece from her parents. This young lady is expected soon to wed.

The Sorority Club of Birmingham met last Friday night at Sam Reid's just west of Clawson at a business meeting of the Club and eight young ladies of Birmingham were initiated to membership and jolarity ran high and mirth was overflowing when the new members were initiated by riding a real goat.

Two important events in one week occured in the family of Chas. Juenzels' of Utica Plains when his eldest daughter Loreen married Howard Cromie, son of John Cromie of Avon who is working his father-in-law's farm and two days later, on the 12th inst his youngest daughter Kile graduated from the Normal School at Pontiac.

Ed Fisher of Troy had gotten into active service afer long tedious period of sickness and upon the 7th inst was taking the place of one of his sons in the horse barn when he met with an accident, laying him up again for a while. He stepped into the stall of one of his greys with a broom frightening the horse which kicked, striking Mr. Fisher just below the knee and inflicting a very sore and painful wound.
