HAWTHORNE LEONARD

A very quiet wedding took place last Saturday afternoon when Miss Katherine Hawthorne of Troy, became the bride of Homer Leonard of Birmingham.

The young couple were married in the parlor of the J. B. J. Milligan of the Presbyterian church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hawthorne of Troy, and well known and around Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard went to Cleveland on a short honeymoon and upon their return will reside in Birmingham.

We extend our hearty congratulations and best wishes to the happy young couple.

There will be a meeting Tuesday night, June 19, 1913, at 7:30 in the Village Hall to organize a Volunteer Department for the Village, with election of officers.

A company of twenty men is required, at least ten of whom should be employed near the business center for prompt response to call, come out and join, by prompt action.

Uniforms may be secured in time to participate in the Fourth of July parade.

By order of the Committee.

Improve the Stock. If your stock is in poor condition do not strive or look well, it will pay you to get a 25 pack of Harvey's...

NOTE TO THE PUBLIC. After June 1st 1913, the following (rental office) will close at 12 o'clock (standard time) on Saturday night, September 1st 1913.

Southfield Burg. Leon Miller has the red measles. Florence Brooks is sick with the red measles.

Norman Shovan has a new horse. It is a dandy. Sam Brigham has bought a new dandy.

Joe McCalland's new barn is progressing nicely. Ivan and Nelda Parks are recovering from the red measles.

Wibur Randall intends to have the Birmingham phone put in. Margaret Young is visiting friends in Southfield for a few days.

Henry Cort and Chas. Chisum have had the red measles. Frank Renter is painting his barn. He is certainly doing a fine job.

The social at George Brigham's was well attended. About $200.00 was made. Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Renter spent the week end with them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hedlow spent a few days the past week on the old farm. The Banner League entertainment was well attended. About $25.00 was made.

The farmers are busy hauling their potatoes to Detroit while the high price is just.

Miss Nellie Snyder of Wyandot spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chisum.

Mrs. Chas. Algim is doing a fine job painting the house and barn. Let the good work go on.

Dr. and Mrs. Clark Brooks of Detroit spent a few days last week with their mother in Birmingham.

HONEYMOON STILL CONTINUES!

On Wednesday, May 21, a quiet marriage ceremony took place at United Presbyterian church.

Big folks may grow from little acorns; but big little ambitions, never!

For Rent—Furnished rooms, board if desired. Inquire of Mrs. T. Royal Oak.

Wm. Beltz left Tuesday for an extended trip through the west. Best wishes for a pleasant trip and safe return.

The man who gets paid for his work gets his due; but he who also finds pleasure in doing it receives double pay.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hawthorne are spending a week at their vacation camp.

Sooner or later either your good work or your bad will find you out, and you will either get promoted or be given a seat on the T-boggan.

You can easily determine the caliber of a R. O. man by ascertaining the position it takes to discourage him.

Bear with us a little while. Seems like everything comes all in a heap and all at once.

Mrs. McHugh has given up the management of Tribune much to the sorrow of Mr. Mitchell and most of friends.

Miss Hattie E. Todd, who has been spending the last two months among her many relations and friends, and enjoying a much needed rest, has returned to Marquette to take up a position as head nurse in the Marquette Co. Hospital.

Thirty-seven men are on the pay roll of Messrs. Campbell-Mercell Construction Co. and it takes some building to keep them all going but the gentlemen managers are the ones that do it, and give perfect satisfaction.

The Campbell reunion will be held at the home of John D. Benjamin next Saturday.
