Here's hoping!

Art Robinson had a narrow escape from drowning at the mill pond few days ago. He made a dive into deep water and became fastened at the bottom in some unaccountable way and could not rise. The boys missed him and rescued him after quite a struggle to get him loose. Never again for Art. His hair went lay down yet, he was so scared.

Down at Big Beaver live Messrs. Ed Lamb and Charlie Strick. They hitched up a horse that ran away with the two of them. This frightened equine dragged them through a cornfield and when they were stopped in their mad career, the buggy wasn't worth much, and the feelings of these two celebrated horsemen can be better described than imagined.

Little Miss Violet Measel the 22 months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Measel down in Troy near Big Beaver, was seen just finishing pulling out the cork of a Daisy Fly killer with her teeth. Nothing particularly was thought of at act being dangerous until shortly the baby became violently ill. The family doctor was rushed to her bedside and for over two hours desperate efforts were made that saved the child's life. No more Daisy Fly killer around the Measel home. This spoiled the 4th for the Measels.

The Misses Parker of Davisburg were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tuxworth last week. They attended the graduation exercises of their cousin Roy, stayed over for the celebration the 4th, and were highly entertained.

Commodore Foote of the life and drum corps brought up the big new bass drum for inspection. Mitchell being absent, Miss Hazel got the O. K. stamp on it and everybody is satisfied. "It's a hummer", says Miss Hazel after a few hard thumps.

Italian section hands of the G. T. R. got into a fight inside their shack on the railroad. Razors and knives were found throughout and one man's nose was nearly sliced off. As it was all entirely without an interloper the case had to pass over into insolvency.

During his recent absence from our village and his pastoral duties Rev. C. E. Wakefield of the M. E. Church being absent, Miss Hazel attended the picnic among the sugar plantations of Louisiana, and the other in New Orleans, La., to a congregation of the M. E. Church South. We Wesley and Thursday of this week he spoke at the Orthodox Bible Conference held at Fort Huron.

Birmingham is daily growing and we are growing just right. Everyday some city man, or some one from another town sees beautiful Birmingham, and at once becomes obsessed with a desire to live here, and is done. He can't rest until he becomes a house owner right here. Presto!!! He is happy ever after, unless perhaps he has a secret sorrow and in that case he can never be happy anywhere.

Walter says, "Carrackert, a small long tailed parrot. Also parakeet. Well, if you see one of the above birds hanging around, just call "Dick", and this bird will come to you. When you have him safely in your hand you run as fast as ever you can to Miss Evelyn Deer for it is hot bird, and a great pet. It is used to being out doors, but one day recently it flew away. Probably caught the fever of the 4th. Anyone returning this bird will receive the Eccentric one year free.

They do say that there will be dancing at the Piece street Dancing Pavilion this week Saturday night. We have not been officially informed of the fact, but you had better get your feet firm, come round, and see for yourself. The music will be fine, and they do say that now the girls never looked prettier, nor danced any better than this season of 1913. Being so very old we did not notice this until our attention was called to the fact. We're glad.

John Allen Bigelow and John N. Heth have reported to us their safe return from the Battleground of Gettysburg. All the B'ham delegation returned safely. We are glad of it. The small mortality among so many thousands of old men, considering the hot weather, their strenuous goings on, is something wonderful. Only eight died. Both North and South sent hundreds of coffins to bring back their dead, but the old boys fooled them. The North and South are now solidly reunited, and if war was declared to-day with any Nation, the Old Guard would be the first on the field. We know it.

The picture that are being shown at the Family Theatre this week are well worth your time and money. Mr. Geo. Riddle has a different featured film every night, of the greatest mysteries of the world. Next Monday night there will be a drawing for the $5.00 Gold piece and during this week of July 14, the coupons will be for the drawing on July 21. Mr. Smith prefers for that week's prize a $7.00 clock, which can be won by H. W. Baxter's window. Don't stay home on account of the heat. It is cooler at the Family Theatre than at home. A good show, good music, and a good crowd every night. Remember the prize. Mr. Walter Allen held the lucky number last Monday night and carried off a $7 camera.

The Fourth was a big drawer. I brought Mr. Jack McDougal surprised his father and mother by dropping in unexpectedly along with a western friend, Mr. Richardson. Jack saw aside from a few bucking bronchos that our celebration did very well. Hurrah!

The agonizing discomfort and sense of suffocation that accompany hay fever and asthma may be greatly alleviated by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It has a soothing effect on the mucous lining, and relieves the pain and tickling sensation in the throat and bronchial tubes. Sold by all druggists.—Adv.
