LEGALS.

OF THE RECORDS BY REQUESTED TO HAVE PROBATE ISSUED TO THE ESTATE OF THE LATE JAMES H. WATSON, DECEASED, WILL BE AS FOLLOWS:

Ladies $2.00 Oxfords at 98c at Nixon's.

Born Saturday, to Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Barr, a son.

Men's and boy's Oxfords, one-half off, at Nixon's.

The M. E. Sunday school held its annual picnic at Palmer Park Tuesday.

In order to clean up my line of straw hats, I will sell them at one-half off at Nixon's.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Washington Berger a bouncing baby girl, on Sunday July 20.

Mr. Ray Griffin sang recently at the Family Theatre. We would like to hear more from this young vocalist.

Miss Gertrude Currow has returned to her home in Highland Park after a three weeks visit with Miss Gladys Hansen on the Twelve Mile Road.

A fine large room suitable for a business purpose can be secured by call on Mitchell at Eccentric office, 18 foot square, 1st floor, well lighted and heated, across from Post Office and Edison building. Its central location is desirable. Can be had, heated and lighted for $15 per month. July 25th

If you want that new automobile insured against Fire and Theft, or your liability for personal injuries, or property damage, settled for less than a lawyer's fee, you will act wisely in calling on R. E. Griggs the Insurance Specialist, in Room 2, Ford block, Birmingham. Hartford Agency. 2p

For two or three weeks Miss Shattuck of the Post Office has been singing at the Family Theatre and giving good satisfaction. She has a sweet strong voice for concert singing, and after the shyness naturally wears away, which it will in time, she is going to make a mark for herself in public singing if she so desires.

Dr. John O. Gaston, formerly of Big Beaver, and who was called East by the death of his father many months ago, has returned to Michigan and has settled down to practice at Rochester, where many of his old patrons will consult him. He is still loyal to the Eccentric and has it sent to him wherever he goes.

For Sale—Saginaw Silo 12x30, filled once, chute goes with it; brown and white Shetland Stallion pony, two and a half years old; gentle and used to children, eligible for registration; Columbia jubilee, good as new; 15 Stanchions; Shetland Colt, four months old, black, white and brown; Huisleuten cow, Frank A. Gordon, Southfield avenue. —25 July 16

The men of Birmingham are heartily invited to attend the men's "Bible Class" held each "Lord's Day" at the First Baptist church at 11:15 a. m. We are now assisting the life of Moses, together with the deliverance from bondage and wanderings in the wilderness of the children of Israel. Come and spend a profitable hour with us. Class Motto "We're in the kings business".

The Oakland County Horticultural society is approaching the end of the season and their calendar. Only two more meetings of this interesting society will hold and they are as follows: Aug. 2, Farmington, Karl Tibbitt's Fruit Farm, "Orchard Soils"; "Storing Winter Fruits", Prof. L. R. Taft; Sept. 6, Square Lake, Mrs. H. C. Ward's Fruit Farm, "Grading Apples"; Prof. O. K. White.

Mr. Geo. H. Fleetham one of Franklin's earnest, bravest and best (ball players) after years of faithful service and very successful life, for a Detroit firm has gone into business for himself. He has for a partner, Mr. F. C. Windes, another equally successful man and they are in Detroit doing a fine business for themselves and coming right to the front. They are the Detroit branch of the Yarns Knitting Works and with past years of experience and their many pleased patrons, friends of yours also—they can't help but do a big business.

Statement of the Governor.

Of the Birmingham Eccentric, published weekly at Birmingham, Michigan, required by the Act of August 24, 1912:

NAME OF P. O. ADDRESS
 Editor, Geo. H. Mitchell, Birmingham
 Editor, Geo. H. Mitchell, Birmingham
 Publisher, Whitehead & Mitchell, Birmingham
 Owners, Whitehead & Mitchell, Birmingham
 A. Whitehead, Birmingham
 George H. Mitchell, Birmingham

Known bondholders, mortgagees, etc., none.

GEORGE H. MITCHELL.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 14th day of July, 1913.

M. T. JARVIS, Notary Public.

See "Chief Little Bear" at the Family Theatre to-night.

One lot of Misses and childrens white sandals, one quarter off, at Nixon's.

Next Monday night The Family Theatre gives away a rocker from the stock of Daines & Bell. Those Monday night audiences beat the Dutch.

Mrs. Elmer Monroe Mrs. Frank Cobb, Mrs. John VanVey and Mrs. Homer Lewis spent Thursday at Bobb with Miss Smith's Sunday school class picnic.

Mr. Smith will give a $5 gold piece on Monday night, August 4. Next Monday the drawing will be for a leather chair and a pair of furniture store.

Don't fail to see Chief Little Bear at the Family Theatre tonight (Friday). You have seen him in moving pictures now come and see him on the stage and also in the Motion picture "Custer's Last Fight", a three reel film.

Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Smith left last Saturday for a two weeks' auto trip through several of the Eastern States. Miss Stella Wendorff is at the office of Dr. Crawford during his absence.

It is interesting to the patrons of the Family Theatre to see the great crowd of attendants reach for their numbers when Mr. Smith goes forward with his box of coupons to decide who is to have the prize that Monday night. The raffle is contagious.

A Big Head

Is of two kinds. The kind that comes on sick headache, torpid liver and biliousness, however, is curable. Does your head feel dizzy at times with spells of blind-stargers and ringing noises in the ears? These are symptoms of a diseased liver and clogged state of the bowels. The remedy is Dr. Herriek's Sugar Coated Pills. They are mild, easy to take and clean you out beautifully. Try them. Price 25c. Sold by Cobb-Stanley-Harris Co.—Adv.

H. F. SMITH, Prop.

"When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked one shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thy hand."

"Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul."

—Bible (Ezekiel 33:8-9)
