THE ECCENTRIC HAS BEEN RECEIVED BY THE BIRMINGHAM COURTS AS A LEGAL PAPER. BY DOING THIS WE ARE ABLE TO GIVE YOU THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS. WE ARE ABLE TO GIVE YOU THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS.

See page two fog good live locals.

Miss Oleana Doty spent Sunday at Dr. N. T. Shaw's.

Mrs. I. B. Hale visited her father at Macon, Sunday.

The village dog smiles all over and wags his tail triumphantly, his muzzle is off.

W. A. Sutherland is selling wall paper 50 per cent off. Phone 107-J Birmingham.

Picture postal from brother Standart who is vacationing around Burt Lake, in the northern part of the state shows a string of trout that would have made us start out a foot and alone a few years ago.

The Methodist people have given two afternoon services on the public square at the Baldwin Library. These services are largely attended, and the autoists are attracted somewhat, some in passing remaining to hear the words and singing.

The examiner of the state board tax commissioners held a crowded session at the council rooms in library hall on Saturday last. The Eccentric had a lot of callers from all around this vicinity, many of whom we hadn't seen for many moons.

Will Baum bought the premises near Ery's Mills from Mrs. Ada Rogers last week, comprising four acres formerly owned by Caleb Moore. It is a delightful location and Mr. and Mrs. Baum are to be congratulated upon the acquisition of so pleasant a home, with good buildings, fine shade and a flowing well that beats the cars.

A trade in real estate last week, resulted in the transfer of four lots and a bungalow on Race Day Lane (old F. Rundel, together with a launch, row boat, beds, bedding, household furniture, stoves, dishes, etc., and the first thing you know Julius will be conspicuous for his absence in these parts. Wouldn't blame him a particle.

A. J. Bodine has resigned his position upon the board of public works at Bridgeport and has been visiting his children who have spent the summer with their grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Adams. Mr. Bodine has accepted a position with a corporation doing business at Kalamazoo. His children commence school at Monroe, this week.

Adam Gray rural carrier, last Monday was telling the boys just before starting out on the daily run with Uncle Sam's mail, what a grand good old moolie his little Brush car was, new, every trouble, never any expense, always running and willing to do it. He forgot to pound wood and the consequences was as usual. Long years ago an apple caused unlimited trouble to mankind, but this time it was a pear. The participants at the time he reached for the pear to the finish was one continuous performance. After the ball was over, the machine had a broken axle, the engine torn out by the roots, and the busy Bee auto a wreck where Adam went down all took day to make her good, but she's good now as ever. Adam escaped injury.

There will be held in Birmingham on September 14, one of the most unique and interesting services incident to the opening of the Public Schools. Rev. Paul Livingston, R. R. 1, Rev. W. M. Robb, and the Rev. Wilson Reid of Birmingham, will join with the clergymen in all parts of the county, in a prayer for all free schools. These prayers will be uttered simultaneously in all the tongues of men. Special sermons will be preached on the subject of religious and moral education. The aim is to have the Bible made a text book in all schools. This world-wide service has been arranged by the National Reform Association, which has its headquarters in Pittsburg, Pa. It is part of the program mapped out by the Second World's Christian Citizenship Conference held at Portland, Ore., this summer.

Schools again.

With the sidewalks packed full of pupils going and coming George Tom says "It is me for the highway from now until next June." Same here.

The biggest line of sweaters and sweater coats in Birmingham can be found at Levinson's. A look inside the store will convince anyone.

If you want to get votes for absolutely nothing on the Cobb-Jennelle piano contest, you cannot do better than to pay up and renew your subscription to this great paper.

Residents on Merrill street are wondering why the street light on the corner of Chester and Merrill is out so much. This is a dark street and we certainly should have the light on.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Irene M. Jenks to Mr. Joseph Jones of Pontiac, which will take place on September 25, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Chas. Moore in Pontiac.

Ethel Crawford, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crawford, died at her home on Henrietta street, Monday afternoon after a long illness. The funeral was held Wednesday with interment at Greenwood.

Mrs. E. L. Bailey has returned from Kalamazoo, where she attended the Pythian Sisters Convention. She reports one of the largest conventions ever held. She was accompanied by Mrs. Helen Stevens of Oxford.

Mr. George Fenwick, of Detroit, with the Misses Eddy and Coyle, Buffalo, N. Y., made the Mitchell a short visit one last week that was enjoyed by all participating. Come again, the latch string is always out.

Bergman Bros. and Hilliard will give a grand social dance at Big Beaver hall Friday evening, September 19. Good music, violin, admission 50c. Everybody come and have a good time. You are invited to come and enjoy life with us.

Mona Jerome Foote is fitting up in Saginaw county all this week. With engagements for Birch Run at the reunion of the 3rd Michigan Regiment, and big gigs at Saginaw, the old veteran expects to be quite busy, and make lots of life music.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Daniels of this place, and each of the following: Mrs. Shreveport, La., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blakeslee and Miss Ida E. Daniels of Detroit, leave the first of the week for the National G. A. R. encampment at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mitchell begins to think he is out of the kindergarten class in learning the duties of a Postmaster, all expects to join the b grade in the primary room next week. Miss Lucy Ward is in the grammar school department of the business, with Miss Marion Gidden in a post-grade.

No use to ask us to change our rates or rules in regard to the Cobb-Jennelle Piano contest. We cannot change the terms other than to specify in our advertisements. This paper will not run indefinitely. If you are kind, let this paper do it NOW. After this offer goes into oblivion, do not ask us to take you in, it cannot be "didid".

Mr. and Mrs. John Hanna are away on a pleasure trip to the East, the objective point of their tour is a visit with J. Wilkes Foster, an uncle of Mrs. Hanna who lives in Pennsylvania. Mr. Hanna deserves this relaxation without one day of rest. Sail in the and have a good time, you have earned it.

Those of us old folks who can remember back into the early thirties, will remember Miss Della McKinstry, who was a young lady in Birmingham last. Didn't know her. She is promptly remembered by the Misses Kyles and Uiter, but our think tank failed us this time. She was visiting Birmingham with her daughter, Florence, at the home of Mrs. Jay Howell. Her name is now Mrs. J. Rowell and her home is in Flint, and she is happy.

John Benjamin and Jerome Foote are fitting at Birch Run and Saginaw this week.

Mrs. Charles Eddy of New York, and Mrs. Marie Daulton visited at Dr. N. T. Shaw's Tuesday.

If you have any rooms to paper call on W. A. Sutherland, 119 Pierce street, phone 107-J Birmingham.

OLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

For Menstrual In Clothing.

London has adopted a French industry which aims at neatness. It is that of the "stopper". The word refers to the art of mending clothes. In Paris the "stopper" is well and favorably known. Supposing a gentleman carries in his trousers a hole which is conveyed to the "stopper", who some mysterious way reconstructs the hole in the stuff, putting up the wave in a way which they seem to be the art of putting up the wave of a bit of cloth cut from another part.
