

SUFFER FROM THE AWFUL PAINS OF RHEUMATISM

For Sixteen Years Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mornton, Vermont. "I was troubled with pains and irregularities for sixteen years, and when I was with this, weak and nervous. When I would sit down it would seem as if I was going right down out of sight, and the wind would come and I would feel that I was out of doors it would seem as if something was going to happen. My blood was poor, my circulation was so bad I would be like a dead person at times. I had female weakness badly, my abdomen was sore and I had awful pains.

"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sensitive Wash and they certainly did wonders for me. My trouble disappeared and I am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. W. F. SAWYER, River View Farm, Mornton, Vermont.

Another Case. Gifford, Iowa. "I was troubled with female weakness, also with dizziness. I had very severe and steady headaches, also pain in back and was very thin and tired all the time. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am cured of these troubles. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. I. M. MILLER, Gifford, Iowa.

Certain Relief from headaches, cold feelings, and signs of biliousness, come quickly—and permanent improvement—after your stomach has been toned and regulated by BEECHAM'S PILLS

Sold everywhere. In boxes, 10c, 25c.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY, No. 10, N. B. A. THERAPION. It is a powerful medicine for the cure of all ailments of the stomach and bowels. It is a powerful medicine for the cure of all ailments of the stomach and bowels. It is a powerful medicine for the cure of all ailments of the stomach and bowels.

BLACKS OPTICIANS

ESTD. 1850 - DETROIT, MICH. 150 WOODWARD AVE.

PARKER'S HAIR BALM. A toilet preparation of merit. For Restoring Color and Promoting Growth of Hair. Sold by all Druggists.

His Reason. "Don't take notice of the cook dear." "I have to. She's just given it."

Putting it Mildly. "Tom—Did you say your friend is a sleazebag?" "Tab—Well, she returned a silhouette gown because she couldn't make a shadow in it.—Judge.

To Bad. "The Dentist—Let me see! I'll have to treat four teeth—eight teeth—eighteen teeth!" "Mr. Plido—Hold on! Four teeth, eight teeth, eighteen teeth! What do you think I am—a comb!—London Answers.

Have you noticed your policy to your constituents?" "No," replied Senator Seagraves. "I am still looking over the policy my constituents have outlined to me, trying to decide on which I had better select."—Washington Star.

Important to Mothers. Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, a safe and sure remedy for infants and children, and see that it bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson in Red Ink. Children Cry for Fletcher's Castoria.

Considerate. "Do you want a job as a farm hand?" "No," replied Plodding Pete, "you have been kind to me in the past and I think too much of you to make you an object of jealous hatred among all your neighbors."—Washington Evening Star.

Her Capacity. "A waitress is born to the work." "How so?" "Isn't she maid to orders?"

Well Equipped. "That star has the face of a sphinx." "And what's better still, she has the backing of an angel."

It may be easier for an actor to forget that he has an audience than that he hasn't one.

Foley Kidney Pills Succeeded because they are a good honest medicine that cannot help but rid the kidney and bladder ailments and urinary irregularities, if they are once taken into the system. Try them now for positive and permanent help.

W. N. W. DETROIT, No. 37-1013.

FROM THE STATE OF MICHIGAN

COMMISSIONER HELME FINDS WAY TO FORCE SWIFT & CO. TO PAY LICENSE.

TONAGE TAX WILL BE URGED AT NEXT SESSION.

New Law Governing Hotels is of Little Effect on Account of No Appropriation for Enforcement of Same.

[By Gurd M. Hayes.] Lansing, Mich.—Dairy said food commissioner, James Helme, who has been kicking up considerable dust in Detroit recently by his investigation of meat markets, bakeries and cold storage plants, claims to have "put one over" on Swift & Co., during the last session of the legislature and he says that hereafter the big packing house will pay its regular fee for operating creameries in Michigan.

For a number of years there has been a law on the statute books which provided that every creamery, milk station and condenser should pay a yearly license of $5. However, there was no penalty clause attached to the old law and Swift & Co., which controls about 600 creameries and most of the Michigan business, refused to pay. The smaller concerns paid rather than go to court as legal threats would have cost them more than the license fee.

During the last session Helme had bill introduced to amend the old law so that the Michigan business would be controlled by the legislature and not by the courts. While the attention of Swift & Co. and the other big concerns was drawn to this bill, another measure was slipped in by the legislature which authorized to condemn impure cream. Apparently this bill was overlooked by those who represented the interests of the Michigan business, and until the statute took effect August 14th Swift & Co. discovered that Commissioner Helme was in possession of a weapon that would compel them to do business.

Helme says that it was the intention of the companies to refuse to pay their license fees. Helme stationed one of his dairy experts and at their creameries and confiscated several hundred gallons of impure cream. After the seizure had continued for three days Swift & Co. remitted and other concerns are paying up. Helme says the department will collect more than $5,000 from the creameries this year.

It was learned here that the state senate will redouble its efforts at the next session of the legislature to bring about the passage of a tonnage tax on the copper country. The proposed tax is $200,000 to maintain the militia in the copper country to protect the mines during the strike. It is believed that the tonnage tax will stand a better chance of passage than any time in years.

Auditor General Fuller has already paid $200,000 from the general fund of the state to the military authorities in the copper country and the tax to the taxpayers is mounting each day. The amount of money is kept in his upper peninsula.

"The copper properties of Houghton and Keweenaw counties are owned and operated by the military and the taxpayers of Michigan are paying the freight," said a prominent granger who has always booted for a tonnage tax on the output of the mines.

Under a law passed at the last session of the legislature the cost of maintaining troops in a county is borne by the citizens of that county. It is claimed that the grange leaders will use this as an argument when the tonnage tax bill comes up for consideration. The next session of the legislature is believed here that the bill will have the support of all labor leaders in the house and senators who will be blindly disposed toward the mining interests.

Clintor Vetter, of Grand Ledge, who assisted a broken wrist while playing baseball with the Red team in the factory league in Grand Ledge, was taken to the industrial accident board for compensation.

Vetter claims that it was his intention to go home the afternoon of the accident, but he says he was ordered by a foreman to play with the Red team. Owing to the fact that Vetter is not regularly employed as a ball player, there is considerable question as to whether he is entitled to any compensation from the Red Motor Car company.

When State Treasurer Haier unlocked the vaults of the state's strong box at the beginning of the September business, there was a balance of $1,811,473 in the general fund available for immediate use.

The specific tax fund was credited with $7,905,011 and the primary school interest fund contained $6,715,322. However, within an hour after the treasury was opened, $177,000 was drawn from the general fund by the various state hospitals.

During the month of August, $1,048,169.37 was drawn from the general fund and if this record is maintained it will be necessary for the state to borrow money before November 1.

Knowledge by the Foot. Information was formerly measured by the page; it may soon be computed by the foot. One motion picture firm is sending out letters announcing that it has in stock 10,000 feet of architecture, 30,000 feet of science, and 400 feet of geography.—The World's Work.

Sweet, Solomn Thought. The only safe thing to do when you get your foot in it is to stand still.

LET BIRD SING ALONE

Worshippers at Evening Service Yielded to Robin.

Feathered Songsters' Fondness for Frequented Interiors of Holy Edifice Well Known, But in This Case He Rendered a Solo.

I have often speculated on the fondness shown by robins for the interiors of churches, writes E. Temple Thurston in his book, "The Open Window." Scarcely one of the books by the various authorities I have consulted ever mentions the fact. Rev. C. A. Johns alludes to it and with all that he says a brief reference to the subject is in complete agreement. It is undoubtedly for the sake of company that they frequent our places of worship, for I have heard of a robin building its nest inside a church, and it is nearly always at the hour of service they are to be seen there.

The other evening the one that has attached himself to our church flew in through an open window in the plant and, nesting himself upon a chandelier of the old choir screen, sang with us the Nunc Dimittis. All heads, I know, were raised from their books, all eyes were turned upon him, and he sat there, his throat swelling, his beak wide open as he poured out his glorious notes. Everyone must have heard a brief refrain of the subject, I am in complete agreement. It is undoubtedly for the sake of company that they frequent our places of worship, for I have heard of a robin building its nest inside a church, and it is nearly always at the hour of service they are to be seen there.

When the last legislature passed the bill endorsed by the traveling men's associations creating a hotel commission and providing for the inspection of all hosteleries and lodging houses, the lawmakers neglected to make an appropriation for carrying out the work of the commission. The bill was not discovered until the commission composed of Labor Commissioner Cunningham, Dairy and Food Commissioner Helme and Insurance Commissioner Winship and Secretary Dixon of the state board of health, held a meeting recently.

Inasmuch as the Detroit apparatus particularly attention to the equipping of hotels and lodging houses with fire escapes, the labor commissioner, Cunningham's inspection of hotels and insurance commission, it is along their line of work.

Section six of the act provides that every hotel keeper shall provide all beds with regulation sheets not less than thirty inches in length. The law provides that the beds shall be provided with such regulation sheets of regulation size blankets that are kept in a sanitary condition.

It was learned here that the state senate will redouble its efforts at the next session of the legislature to bring about the passage of a tonnage tax on the copper country. The proposed tax is $200,000 to maintain the militia in the copper country to protect the mines during the strike. It is believed that the tonnage tax will stand a better chance of passage than any time in years.

Auditor General Fuller has already paid $200,000 from the general fund of the state to the military authorities in the copper country and the tax to the taxpayers is mounting each day. The amount of money is kept in his upper peninsula.

"The copper properties of Houghton and Keweenaw counties are owned and operated by the military and the taxpayers of Michigan are paying the freight," said a prominent granger who has always booted for a tonnage tax on the output of the mines.

Under a law passed at the last session of the legislature the cost of maintaining troops in a county is borne by the citizens of that county. It is claimed that the grange leaders will use this as an argument when the tonnage tax bill comes up for consideration. The next session of the legislature is believed here that the bill will have the support of all labor leaders in the house and senators who will be blindly disposed toward the mining interests.

Clintor Vetter, of Grand Ledge, who assisted a broken wrist while playing baseball with the Red team in the factory league in Grand Ledge, was taken to the industrial accident board for compensation.

Vetter claims that it was his intention to go home the afternoon of the accident, but he says he was ordered by a foreman to play with the Red team. Owing to the fact that Vetter is not regularly employed as a ball player, there is considerable question as to whether he is entitled to any compensation from the Red Motor Car company.

When State Treasurer Haier unlocked the vaults of the state's strong box at the beginning of the September business, there was a balance of $1,811,473 in the general fund available for immediate use.

The specific tax fund was credited with $7,905,011 and the primary school interest fund contained $6,715,322. However, within an hour after the treasury was opened, $177,000 was drawn from the general fund by the various state hospitals.

During the month of August, $1,048,169.37 was drawn from the general fund and if this record is maintained it will be necessary for the state to borrow money before November 1.

LET BIRD SING ALONE

Worshippers at Evening Service Yielded to Robin.

Feathered Songsters' Fondness for Frequented Interiors of Holy Edifice Well Known, But in This Case He Rendered a Solo.

I have often speculated on the fondness shown by robins for the interiors of churches, writes E. Temple Thurston in his book, "The Open Window." Scarcely one of the books by the various authorities I have consulted ever mentions the fact. Rev. C. A. Johns alludes to it and with all that he says a brief reference to the subject is in complete agreement. It is undoubtedly for the sake of company that they frequent our places of worship, for I have heard of a robin building its nest inside a church, and it is nearly always at the hour of service they are to be seen there.

The other evening the one that has attached himself to our church flew in through an open window in the plant and, nesting himself upon a chandelier of the old choir screen, sang with us the Nunc Dimittis. All heads, I know, were raised from their books, all eyes were turned upon him, and he sat there, his throat swelling, his beak wide open as he poured out his glorious notes. Everyone must have heard a brief refrain of the subject, I am in complete agreement. It is undoubtedly for the sake of company that they frequent our places of worship, for I have heard of a robin building its nest inside a church, and it is nearly always at the hour of service they are to be seen there.

When the last legislature passed the bill endorsed by the traveling men's associations creating a hotel commission and providing for the inspection of all hosteleries and lodging houses, the lawmakers neglected to make an appropriation for carrying out the work of the commission. The bill was not discovered until the commission composed of Labor Commissioner Cunningham, Dairy and Food Commissioner Helme and Insurance Commissioner Winship and Secretary Dixon of the state board of health, held a meeting recently.

Inasmuch as the Detroit apparatus particularly attention to the equipping of hotels and lodging houses with fire escapes, the labor commissioner, Cunningham's inspection of hotels and insurance commission, it is along their line of work.

Section six of the act provides that every hotel keeper shall provide all beds with regulation sheets not less than thirty inches in length. The law provides that the beds shall be provided with such regulation sheets of regulation size blankets that are kept in a sanitary condition.

It was learned here that the state senate will redouble its efforts at the next session of the legislature to bring about the passage of a tonnage tax on the copper country. The proposed tax is $200,000 to maintain the militia in the copper country to protect the mines during the strike. It is believed that the tonnage tax will stand a better chance of passage than any time in years.

Auditor General Fuller has already paid $200,000 from the general fund of the state to the military authorities in the copper country and the tax to the taxpayers is mounting each day. The amount of money is kept in his upper peninsula.

"The copper properties of Houghton and Keweenaw counties are owned and operated by the military and the taxpayers of Michigan are paying the freight," said a prominent granger who has always booted for a tonnage tax on the output of the mines.

Under a law passed at the last session of the legislature the cost of maintaining troops in a county is borne by the citizens of that county. It is claimed that the grange leaders will use this as an argument when the tonnage tax bill comes up for consideration. The next session of the legislature is believed here that the bill will have the support of all labor leaders in the house and senators who will be blindly disposed toward the mining interests.

Clintor Vetter, of Grand Ledge, who assisted a broken wrist while playing baseball with the Red team in the factory league in Grand Ledge, was taken to the industrial accident board for compensation.

Vetter claims that it was his intention to go home the afternoon of the accident, but he says he was ordered by a foreman to play with the Red team. Owing to the fact that Vetter is not regularly employed as a ball player, there is considerable question as to whether he is entitled to any compensation from the Red Motor Car company.

When State Treasurer Haier unlocked the vaults of the state's strong box at the beginning of the September business, there was a balance of $1,811,473 in the general fund available for immediate use.

The specific tax fund was credited with $7,905,011 and the primary school interest fund contained $6,715,322. However, within an hour after the treasury was opened, $177,000 was drawn from the general fund by the various state hospitals.

During the month of August, $1,048,169.37 was drawn from the general fund and if this record is maintained it will be necessary for the state to borrow money before November 1.

LET BIRD SING ALONE

Worshippers at Evening Service Yielded to Robin.

Feathered Songsters' Fondness for Frequented Interiors of Holy Edifice Well Known, But in This Case He Rendered a Solo.

I have often speculated on the fondness shown by robins for the interiors of churches, writes E. Temple Thurston in his book, "The Open Window." Scarcely one of the books by the various authorities I have consulted ever mentions the fact. Rev. C. A. Johns alludes to it and with all that he says a brief reference to the subject is in complete agreement. It is undoubtedly for the sake of company that they frequent our places of worship, for I have heard of a robin building its nest inside a church, and it is nearly always at the hour of service they are to be seen there.

The other evening the one that has attached himself to our church flew in through an open window in the plant and, nesting himself upon a chandelier of the old choir screen, sang with us the Nunc Dimittis. All heads, I know, were raised from their books, all eyes were turned upon him, and he sat there, his throat swelling, his beak wide open as he poured out his glorious notes. Everyone must have heard a brief refrain of the subject, I am in complete agreement. It is undoubtedly for the sake of company that they frequent our places of worship, for I have heard of a robin building its nest inside a church, and it is nearly always at the hour of service they are to be seen there.

When the last legislature passed the bill endorsed by the traveling men's associations creating a hotel commission and providing for the inspection of all hosteleries and lodging houses, the lawmakers neglected to make an appropriation for carrying out the work of the commission. The bill was not discovered until the commission composed of Labor Commissioner Cunningham, Dairy and Food Commissioner Helme and Insurance Commissioner Winship and Secretary Dixon of the state board of health, held a meeting recently.

Inasmuch as the Detroit apparatus particularly attention to the equipping of hotels and lodging houses with fire escapes, the labor commissioner, Cunningham's inspection of hotels and insurance commission, it is along their line of work.

Section six of the act provides that every hotel keeper shall provide all beds with regulation sheets not less than thirty inches in length. The law provides that the beds shall be provided with such regulation sheets of regulation size blankets that are kept in a sanitary condition.

It was learned here that the state senate will redouble its efforts at the next session of the legislature to bring about the passage of a tonnage tax on the copper country. The proposed tax is $200,000 to maintain the militia in the copper country to protect the mines during the strike. It is believed that the tonnage tax will stand a better chance of passage than any time in years.

Auditor General Fuller has already paid $200,000 from the general fund of the state to the military authorities in the copper country and the tax to the taxpayers is mounting each day. The amount of money is kept in his upper peninsula.

"The copper properties of Houghton and Keweenaw counties are owned and operated by the military and the taxpayers of Michigan are paying the freight," said a prominent granger who has always booted for a tonnage tax on the output of the mines.

Under a law passed at the last session of the legislature the cost of maintaining troops in a county is borne by the citizens of that county. It is claimed that the grange leaders will use this as an argument when the tonnage tax bill comes up for consideration. The next session of the legislature is believed here that the bill will have the support of all labor leaders in the house and senators who will be blindly disposed toward the mining interests.

Clintor Vetter, of Grand Ledge, who assisted a broken wrist while playing baseball with the Red team in the factory league in Grand Ledge, was taken to the industrial accident board for compensation.

Vetter claims that it was his intention to go home the afternoon of the accident, but he says he was ordered by a foreman to play with the Red team. Owing to the fact that Vetter is not regularly employed as a ball player, there is considerable question as to whether he is entitled to any compensation from the Red Motor Car company.

When State Treasurer Haier unlocked the vaults of the state's strong box at the beginning of the September business, there was a balance of $1,811,473 in the general fund available for immediate use.

The specific tax fund was credited with $7,905,011 and the primary school interest fund contained $6,715,322. However, within an hour after the treasury was opened, $177,000 was drawn from the general fund by the various state hospitals.

During the month of August, $1,048,169.37 was drawn from the general fund and if this record is maintained it will be necessary for the state to borrow money before November 1.

Watch Your Coils

For Coughs, Colds and Hoarseness, and at the first symptoms of any throat ailment, apply this powerful throat lozenge. It is a powerful medicine for the cure of all ailments of the throat and bowels. It is a powerful medicine for the cure of all ailments of the throat and bowels.

WINCHESTER

BIG GAME CARTRIDGES

The time of all others when reliable cartridges are invaluable is in big-game hunting. A mis-fire, an inaccurate cartridge, or one having been pointed may mean the loss of a coveted trophy or even injury to the hunter. Winchester big game cartridges, smokeless or black powder, can always be relied on to be new, fire, accurate, and to have speed and penetration. You can help make your hunt a success by using them.

W. L. DOUGLAS

$3.00 $3.50 $4.00

SHOES FOR MEN AND WOMEN

Best Made Shoes in the World

READ CAREFULLY IN 1913. W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best material and are made to order. They are made to order and are made to order. They are made to order and are made to order.

Checked on and again checked. Ignorant of His Own Language. The Boston Americans were playing the Nationals in the Bean City one afternoon. The Bostonians knocked out long fly that fell between right field and center.

Danny Moeller, the speedy right fielder of the Nationals, went after it, crying out for the guidance of Milan "I have it!"

"As soon as Moeller had caught the fly, a disgusted Boston fan remarked: "That guy don't even know his own language. What he should have said is: 'I've got it! I suppose he's some kind that's trying to make out he's been to college.'"

As a matter of fact Moeller not only went to college, but graduated.—Popular Magazine.

Why He Loved Her. "Yes, young man, I know you! You've been in love with my daughter ever since you discovered that she was an heiress."

"But, my dear sir, you wouldn't have married a poor girl, would you? Why, I can't even support myself!"—Life.

New Name for Golf. Farmer of "Fodderbush" How do them summer borders of yourn keep busy?"

Reuben Robbins: "They play golf." "F—What is that?"

R. R.—"R near a tin finger, it's kolt-taire shiny."—Hartington Free Press.

Discretion. "Your office doesn't seem to be doing a great deal of work."

"No, I'm trying to be as quiet and obscure as possible so that nobody will ask me to resign."—Washington Star.

Nothing to Retail. "Do Gary—Won't you give me a lift—just one?"

Madge—Oh, please! I like a man who makes love on a large scale.—Judge.

Receipts. Miss Summit—I must answer his letter and I want to write something that doesn't mean anything.

Miss Pallade—Why don't you tell him to go to hell?—Judge.

Strength

Does not come from exercise alone, but also from the food one eats.

For real strength there is no better food than

Strape-Nuts

A breakfast dish of Grape-Nuts and cream is the regular morning custom of a mighty host who knows the value of right food.

Being partially predigested, Grape-Nuts is quickly converted into strength for body and brain—the power to "do things."

"There's a Reason"