A Three Minute Talk on How to Drink Healthfully and Decently. Have a Precaution.

The unwashed cup—Do you use it? Do members of your family use it? Do you use it? Do you use it? Do you use it?

JACOB M. LAWSON.

J. M. LAWSON HIT BY TRAIN

Prominent Business Man of Royal Oak Died Last Thursday.

ACCIDENT WAS CAUSE HORSE IS KILLED ALSO

Fell Over Nail Key in His Shoe and Was Ruptured Internally.

Last Thursday morning the report circulated about the village that Jacob M. Lawson was dead. It was staggered news, for few persons know that he was ill, and people were reminded at once of the good man that he was.

Mr. Lawson was 53 years of age. He leaves a widow and five children: Clyde, Arthur, Raymond, Allen and Mrs. Fred Erb of Highland Park.

Always had a fine, clear complexion. Many more women would be beautiful if they could only get rid of salivations, pimples and eruptions.

Garrick Theatre.

"Little Women," produced by William A. Brady and which ran all last year at the Playhouse in New York, and was pronounced by the critics as the season's delight.

"Little Women" is a dramatization by Marian de Forest of Louisa M. Alcott's world famous story of the same name.

Miss Jessie Bonville, whose entering efforts long years have made possible the dramatization of "Little Women," will come from New York to be present at the opening performance on Monday night next, September 26th.

Washington Theatre.

In the high lights of the drama you will surely find more colorful settings and characters than in "The Doctor."

Next week Miss Ware will be seen with the Wm. Morris Players in "Her Husband's Wife," a comedy by A. E. Thomas.

It has been well said that the public is tired of salacious times and claptrap in the drama, and that the present is an era when the play that is clean, wholesome, bright and appealing is the play that the people want.

Justice flew was called upon and set the following Friday morning at ten o'clock, Judge J. W. C. Grawford, the beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Crawford.
