THE MAID OF THE FOREST.

Thrilling Story Starts in The Betroit News February 2.

Randall Parrish has produced a great uovel in "The Maid of the Forest," which starts in The Detroit News Mon-day, Feb. 2. It's an Indian story, with the scenes laid in and about Detroit, which in those laid in and about Detroit, which in those days was only a trading post. Simon Girty, the renegade, whose grave is at Amhertsburg, is one of the chief characters of the narrative, and bad as history has painted him, he is given credit for some goodness by the writer. Brady, the famous scott, is aiso pictured, but is east in a heroic role, which tured, but is cast in a heroic role, which histerians say is amply deserved. The Maid of the Forest is a very lov-able and courageous woman, who en-dears herself to be readers. This story starts Feb. 2 and advertis-ing matter containing the installments of Feb. 2, 3 and 4 is now being distrib-tted. Be sure and read the opening chapters. to possible or personal reasons refuse to give what is considered to be been for all. It is acknowledged that the vast majority of thinking people would rather pay for an occasional mistake of an aggressive, conscientious group of Village Pathers, than to have no improvements, or to see those officials sulking and declining to do their duty. Let us hope we will be free from sulking and declining to do their duty. Let us hope we will be free from the considerable officials and citizens, and all work of attilibetic and larger tows.

How Can One Man Milk 25 Cows Per Hour?

By Using the

It reduces the cost of the operation very decidedly. It is very economical, costing from $1.00 to $1.50 every year—and that is for rubber mouth-pieces and pump valves.

pump valves.

The average man can handle three machines to best advantage, milking three coys at a time and from 20 to 25 cows per hour, by using the extra pail.

There are exceptions to this, as we have some customers using five and six machines, milking from 40 to 50 tomers using incomes.
