Friends
The Rev. Dr. Manson, late of Montreal, Can. will preach in the First Presbyterian Church next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

Some weeks or months ago some one mailed a box of "The Eccentric" to the Birmingham post office containing a pair of rubber gloves and handkerchiefs. If the sender will call at the post-office as desired, the box will be returned as directed.

America's Eye for the eye, Secretary Bryan at his right hand, there is little danger that we shall become involved in the great war. Things are being done to make the finger-pointing which will happen in the event of such a war, and those who mistake patience and love of peace for cowardice will seem for some real or fancied grievance. But the men who guide our national destinies have shown by their admirable conduct of our relations that the best way not to be influenced by the outcries of the excitable and the unthinking.

Watchful waiting! These two words taken from President Wilson's new definition of his extension policy, furnished the text for numerous articles in the past some appearing in our pages. It is a policy that will not precipitate the great disaster.

Only three deliveries a day after Nov. 1, 1914. After Nov. 1, 1914 there will be three deliveries a day.

Mrs. Lillian E. Cook has returned after spending two weeks at Caro, Tuscola County.

Mrs. Elizabeth Phelps of Detroit, is a guest of her cousin, Miss Ida B. Corey, of Bates street.

We are told by those who know that we are now enjoying typical Florida and Mississippi ideal winter weather.

Mrs. Thos. Edwards is spending a few weeks at Caro on account of the sickness of her son, Ann Pike.

Mr. J. W. Sabin of Malvern, Ill., is visiting friends in Birmingham. Of course the good man is pleased with our pretty village.

You can't fail to notice Cobb & Jenelle's big Cut Rate Drug adv. You can't save a cent now, by going to Detroit for your chemicals and patent medicines.

Big Republican auto trip and speeches galore in Birmingham, next Monday forenoon October 26th. G. A. R. rifle and drum corps will furnish music. Read adv. elsewhere.

The Pythian Sisters have changed the date of their annual Banquet and Supper from Nov. 18 to Nov. 11. All Pythian Sisters keep this in mind and prepare their fancy articles.

Prof. W. Irving of Chicago, sent for this great periodical for one year just to keep track of his brother Will who just came to town and old man Mitchell, the Post-master.

The Sunshine Biscuit company and the City Coffee and Spice Mills will give a demonstration of biscuits and coffee, at the afternoon of October 24 at Bailey & Bly's Sanitary Grocery and Bakery.

D. George Michael will hold a public auction on the premises three and one-half miles north of the Everett road and two and one-half miles north and three-quarters miles east of Redford, October 29, at 10 o'clock in the morning. Charles L. Parks is proprietor and M. H. Blunt is the auctioneer. Read his advertisement.

All who had the privilege of hearing Edward Elliott in the first number of the lecture course at the Baptist church were greatly pleased and very liberal in their words of praise. The church was well filled and the course is most popular. The next number, "The Old Kentucky Jubilee Quartette," November 12, will doubtless be still more popular. Tickets for the remaining four attractions will be sold for $1.00 as long as any seats remain. A few reserved seats at $1.15. Single admission to all adults 35 cents.
