CITY OF TOLEDO

Department of Public Safety J. G. KNAPP, JR., Director G. A. MURPHY, Chief

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 24, 1914.

DWIGHT 1. OLIVER, Sheriff of Oakland County,

Pontiac, Michigan:

Dear Sir:

The officials of the Toledo Police Department wish to express their thanks to you for your effi-cient work in assisting in bringing about the arrest of several notorious criminals in the last two weeks.

We refer to the case of the "land sharks" and "wire tappers," whose names follow; John Shea, alias Mickey Shea, alias John Harrison, alias John Smith; and Thomas Manton, James Hayes alias John Arthur, alias Boston Jack; also George A.
Banning alias Benning. Most of these men have criminal records throughout the United States and their pictures appear in all the leading identifica-tion bureaus of the United States. Two of these men are now out on $7,000.00 bail awaiting the action of the Federal Grand Jury.

We also refer to the case of the burglary of P. H. Struthers & Co.'s store at Pontiac, Michigan, where a large quantity of silk was stolen and which we believe will all be recovered, the suspects having been arrested and returned to Michigan.

Your efficient Under-Sheriff, O. H. P. Green, has furnished valuable information in these cases, we wish to thank him for his untiring efforts and valuable services in bringing these criminals to Yours very truly, G. A. MURPHY, Chief of Police.

WHAT SPIDER INDICATED.

When Mark Twain, in his early days! was editor of a Missouri poper, a superstitious subscriber wrote to him saying that he had found a spidor in his paser and asking him whether it was a sign of good luck or bad. The humorist wrote him an answer and printed it. "Old Subscriber: Finding a spidor in your paper was neither good luck not bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant is net advertising, so that can go to that store and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."—Ex.
