AT HOME

Mrs. Walter Nichols is ill at her home on Pierce street.

Fred Allen left Saturday last for a business trip to Oklahoma.

Mrs. Carrie Crombie, of Detroit, is visiting friends here for a few days.

Mrs. Allen is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Carpenter, at Island Lake.

Helen, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thornton, has been quite ill.

Mrs. Louis Erwin is home from the hospital and happily recovering from an operation.

Mrs. C. Conway and daughter Violet and Mrs. C. C. Morrow are guests of friends in Detroit.

Mrs. Talpha Simonson is having a good old fashioned visit with her son Earl, down on the old farm.

Have you stepped into Bailey & Bile's yet and seen their new machine wrap bread? It sure is some wrapper.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Troy church were entertained at the home of Mrs. Ira Carpenter, November 19.

Miss Marguerite Bailey separated suddenly from her pony, resulting in a painful injury to her shoulder and arm.

Last week the Misses Winifred Robinson, Blanche Greer, Anna M. Parks and Mrs. Seely Peck visited at Oxford.

Mr. and Mrs. George Button are entertaining Mrs. Fred Baker, of Flint, and Miss Bernice Morrish, of Flushing, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Lawrence have returned home from East Jordan, where they have been visiting relatives the past two weeks.

Miss Ida B. Corey is home again just for a short time, and then she starts for Biloxi, Miss., where she will quietly enter into another state.

The ladies of the Baptist church will hold a bazaar and supper the afternoon and evening of Friday, December 4th. Everyone is extended a cordial invitation to attend.

The following have been elected officers of the Citizens' league for the coming year: President, H. G. Field; directors, Dr. N. T. Shaw, Rev. Jamieson and Fred G. Crawford.

Notice—Knights of Pythias. Election of officers Tuesday evening, Dec. 1, 1914. Every brother should be present. Meeting called to order 7:30 sharp. Leslie Gray, C. C.

Mrs. Harry Coney and daughter Miss Helen, of Duluth, Minn., after a few weeks' visit "down below" and some of the time with their aunt, Mrs. Nellie Camp, will return to their northern home next week.

B. A. Holcomb, a representative of the auditor general's department at Lansing, arrived in Pontiac lately and is busy in the probate court looking up estates in which an inheritance tax is due. He looks over all the estates which have been probated since his last visit and reads every will to ascertain whether the state is entitled to an inheritance tax.

The hoof and mouth disease of live-stock which has caused a quarantine over Michigan and several states and has temporarily closed the stock yards at Chicago and Detroit, is not making any material difference with the business of local stock buyers. The latter are able to ship direct to packers and have been able to make usual shipments so far. The price does not seem to be affected by the quarantine.

Editor Seed, of the Rochester Clarion, says: "Let 'em fight. A few days ago, October 4 to be exact, millions of Americans sent up earnest prayers for peace. And the fight was resumed with redoubled fury. And this inclines us to the belief that the best thing for America to do is to sit tight and let 'em fight it out. European nations are like a bunch of bull dogs turned loose in a pen. They will fight until one or the other is chewed up and soundly licked, and outsiders who attempt to interfere are likely to get bitten. America has done its duty. Let 'em fight."

Is it turkey?

Are you still reading the war news?

We sure done had a nice summer this fall.

Aaron Levinson, from Ann Arbor, was home over Sunday.

One day earlier than usual this week? Thanks we are giving for it.

Save December 2 for the bazaar and supper given by the St. James Guild.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris, of Chesaning, are guests of Frank Harris and wife.

Turkey used to be a luxury. It don't cost much more now than liver. Anything in the meat line now is not cheap stuff.

If you have last week's Eccentric, November 20 date, will you bring or send it to Mitchell, at the postoffice. Say, will you?

Miss Mollie G. Smith is visiting around among her many friends, but pretty soon she will start south for a visit with her brother, Fred A., and family.

The Home and Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. T. B. Smith, Maple avenue, E., December 2. Everyone welcome.

Mrs. Polly Stanley just celebrated her 87th birthday at Otisville, Mich., and proves her sound mentality by sending through her next best friend, Mrs. Nellie Camp, a big round dollar for the Eccentric for the coming year.

The ladies of the Baptist church will hold their annual bazaar and supper on the afternoon and evening of December 8. A baby show under the age of two years will be held in the afternoon. Tickets for chicken pie supper, 50 cents each. Everybody come.

Bring the kids and come along and let us feed you. The ladies of St. James Guild will feed the kids under 12 for 35c and you for 50c, Wednesday evening, December 2. Menu: Clam chowder, celery, cold slaw, cold roast ham, cranberries, creamed potatoes, rolls, ice cream, cake, coffee.

Yesterday, Wednesday, November 25, is the day that the Miner Grocery Co. cut their big 200 pound cheese. If you didn't get your portion you are left. Their window made a fine showing for a grocery store. You should see it to believe what can be made in the way of a display in a country village.

Last Sunday evening, Rev. C. E. Wakefield, of the M. E. church, began a series of sermons on "Things Told in Genesis," the opening subject being, "Creation—New and Old." Next Sunday morning Mr. Wakefield expects to preach the first of a number of sermons on the great Bible prophecies of things to come.

Sid is a good sport! Sid Copeman, of Oxford, has the following notice in the Leader over his signature: "All hunters are invited to hunt on my property in the cedar swamp or on my farm. If a fence is in the way, kick it down, and I'll put it up again in the spring. I want the boys to have a little hunting if they can."

If this quarantine on live stock should continue any great length of time it will work hardships on many farmers in this locality. There is hardly a farmer but what is now feeding many hogs that have been in market-able condition for some time, and not only hogs but sheep and cattle. The conditions are aggravating to say the least.

The windows of all our dealers show that they are "to the manner born." We doubt if many windows excell in display those of Bell Bros. & La Joie, Erwin & Smith, Miner Grocery Co. in edibles, while in drugs, medicines, magazines, etc., Cobb & Jennelle and C. J. Shain are in the front, and for wearables just note the Quality Shop and the Big Department Store. All fine and dandy.

A very quiet wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Thomas A. Ward, 128 Woodward avenue, Wednesday noon, November 25, when Miss Lucy Pearl Ward and Mr. A. H. Hendrick, of Silverwood, were united in marriage by Dr. W. H. Jamieson. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white voile over satin and carried white roses and lilies of the valley and was unattended. After a short trip to—(well, we don't know nor anyone else), they will make their home at Silverwood.

The November meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. James church will be held in the church Monday, November 30, at 2:30 p. m. Miss Frances Sibley, of Detroit, will be present to give an address on the Philippines, which will be illustrated by steroptican views. Miss Sibley has spent some time in these islands and is prepared to give a most interesting talk concerning them. The Woman's Auxiliary extend a very cordial invitation to all interested in the Philippines and its people and missions to be present. No collection will be taken.

Luke McLuke says: Hush money does more talking than any other kind. When you see an overdressed woman escorting a man who looks like a door man, you know who is boss in that house. A girl can put in ten years acquiring culture; but that won't keep her from snoring when she is asleep. The man who beats his wife isn't a bit worse than the man who robs his family by spending his money on his friends. The old fashioned man who used to paddle his own canoe now has a son who owns a motor boat named "Ishkibibble." It is funny what a difference a few years make. The girl who used to let you chew her "wax" in school while you took a whirl at her "all day sucker," now has a daughter who carries her individual drinking cup so she won't get any germs in her mouth.

Miss Emma Vokes winters in San Francisco, Calif.

John Putnam is home again from a visit at Baldwin, W. Va.

Note the many new buildings going up and we don't get them all either.

Our high school lost one half day last week on account of the furnace being out of kilter. It's O. K. now.

Miss Ella French is having a visit with her sister, Mrs. Walter Nichols. Miss French's home is in Farmington.

Philosopher and poet are alike in the verdict that the safety and perpetuity of any nation lies in the homes of its people.

Mr. M. A. Rowe has broken ground on Maple avenue, next to where he is now living, and will build up as fast as possible a fine two story house. This fills that block nearly full.

The girl with the sweet little voice need not feel discouraged because she has no opportunity to sing in grand opera. She can give great pleasure by being a songbird in the home nest.

The Baptist Young People's Union will have charge of the service next Sunday evening at the Baptist church. The program will be of the nature of a Thanksgiving service and consist of special music and recitations. Harvest home decorations will be used and remembrances of the Thanksgiving season will be made in special gifts.

The bazaar and supper given by the ladies of the St. James Guild will be held Wednesday, December 2, from 3 o'clock in the afternoon on into the evening. There will be tables of beautiful dolls, fancy work, toilet articles, fancy cakes, Japanese booth and a large 10 cent table with loads of pretty things for 10 cents. And, of course, there will be homemade candy and the supper will be extra good. Be sure and come. See the beautiful electric booths and you will surely see hosts of things for Christmas gifts. There will be music during the afternoon and evening. Come early and stay late and you may be sure of a good time. Everybody welcome.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH.

Sunday will be the first Sunday in the Advent season, during which time we are preparing for the coming of Christ at Christmas.

Services at 6:30, Holy Communion.

9:45, Bible school.

Morning service at 10:45, to which all are most cordially asked to come, and if the rector can be of any service to you at any time you must feel at liberty to call upon him.

The Woman's Auxiliary will hold an interesting meeting in the Guild room Monday, November 30, at half past two. Miss Frances Sibley, of Detroit, will give an illustrated lecture on the Philippines. You are expected and will be missed if you are not there.

On Wednesday, December 2, beginning early in the afternoon, the annual bazaar and supper will be given by the Guild members. This you simply cannot afford to miss and we cannot afford to have you miss it.

Good Glue.

Nearly every housekeeper who has occasion to use glue for mending articles in the home finds that frequently after the glue dries the article to which it has been applied breaks, tears, or springs apart. This can be remedied if glycerine is added to the glue in proportion of one part glycerine to four parts glue, as the articles mended in this way, "stay mended" indefinitely.
