HOME

NICKEL INN.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ford, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heathcote left last week for Tampa, Fla.

Pratt Smith, of Belvidere, N. J., is visiting relatives in our village.

Miss Jennie Todd has returned home from a visit with friends at Eaton Rapids, Mich.

Mrs. Alec Parks and nephew, Adam Johnson, returned recently from a visit in Louisville, Ky.

The next meeting of the Woman's Literary Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Harvey Carter.

The People's Laundry has been sold to Mr. Dana, of Detroit, who took possession Monday, December 7.

Mrs. James Campbell will leave soon for Summertown, Ky., where she will spend the winter with friends.

Mrs. N. J. Hanson is very ill at her home on Maple avenue, she having suffered a stroke of paralysis recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore, of Detroit, are spending a week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miner Spencer.

Last week many friends of Mrs. Mary C. Taber helped her to enjoy a birthday anniversary party. A fine visit was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Jeanette Rainey celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday anniversary at the home of her son, Dr. J. M. Rainey, last Friday.

Mrs. Harding has returned to her home at Marysville, Ky., after spending a month here with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Heathcote.

A handsome, well printed board on Willits street says, "Do not dump rubbish here, by order of the 'Village' Council." Quite a village that.

Arrangements will be made in the near future by which the "dry" side of the liquor question will be made plain to all our readers so they may vote on this great question next spring.

We heard a citizen of our town, and he is one of our finest, takes a drop if he wishes to, but he said he'd vote dry next spring and that he knew 200 men like himself, and many of them greater booze fighters than himself, who had all declared that they themselves would vote her dry next spring.

In another column may be seen the adv. of H. P. Daying, Birmingham's new florist. During the past summer, Mr. Daying erected a new greenhouse at his residence near the High School and he is now a full fledged florist. His new place is not large, but he has it well stocked with pretty flowers and ferns and he promises to build larger greenhouses as soon as trade warrants it. We bespeak for him a liberal patronage by Birmingham people.

The home minstrels can always be sure of a big crowd. Their entertainment last week at the Family theater was a fine local affair and the boys played to S. R. O. Their jokes, songs and other entertainment pleased so many of those present that it was requested that they give a repetition of it, which they did on Tuesday night of this week, and they drew a full house. All the participants did so nicely that it would be unfair to specialize. The boys can always count on a big house whenever they decide to appear.

Miss Caroline Crosman, for more than 40 years a prominent teacher and principal in the Detroit schools, and after whom the Crosman school at Taylor avenue and Hamilton boulevard was named, quietly celebrated her seventy-fifth birthday last Friday afternoon at her home, 123 Alger avenue, in the presence of a few relatives and close friends. Miss Crosman retired from active teaching several years ago, and enjoys the best of health. She takes a great interest in civic affairs, and has seen many of her former pupils rise to positions of trust in public office.

NICKEL INN CIGARS.

Wonder how many of our readers know what a bar-fly is?

Frank Standart and family are in the Sunny South for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Hale leave for Eustis, Florida, December 29. Their son Claude and family have moved into their home for the winter.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. C. E. Conway, Pierce street, Thursday afternoon.

Capt. E. F. Brown, of Cass avenue, called on Geo. H. Mitchell Tuesday and the two old chaps of Mitchell lineage had a good visit for a few hours.

The Good Will class of the First Presbyterian S. S. will meet with Mrs. R. J. Taylor, 518 Southfield avenue, Saturday afternoon, December 19.

However, one thing can be said in favor of Champ Clark. He succeeded in crowding the European war off the northeast corner of the front page of the fourth (regular) extra of the Detroit dailies.

Miss Ida B. Corey started for Biloxi, Miss., for the winter. On her arrival there she will enter the state of matrimony by marrying Mr. James Sabine, of Malden, Ill. After a winter South, the happy couple will either make their home at Malden, Ill., or in Birmingham, Mich. we hope they choose Birmingham.

Thanksgiving evening Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hunt celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary by inviting about 60 of their relatives and friends to their home. It was a very happy reunion. Just before refreshments were served, Mr. Parmenter, in behalf of the company, presented Mr. and Mrs. Hunt a beautiful set of dishes of 125 pieces.

A number of the old friends of Mrs. T. A. Ward met at the home of Mrs. W. H. Jamieson last Thursday night and gave the pleasing lady a most brilliant reception. All had a good social visit and presented their honored guest with a handsome hand bag. She leaves for her new home this week accompanied by the best wishes of all her friends.

At their meeting Tuesday evening, December 1, the Knights of Pythias elected the following officers for next year: C. C., Wm. Van Every; V. C., Claire Stewart; Prelate, Frank Cobb; M. of W., Floyd Smith; K. R. and S., Claire Aldrich; M. F., A. J. Gould; M. E., Charles Wilcox; M. at A., George Newmen; I. G., W. H. Wood; O. G., W. D. Clizbe.

Received a fine call from Samuel Alexander this week. Samuel has made a most enviable reputation as botanist among not only Detroit's scientific scholars, but in the nation. A book written by him will soon be published by the National Society of Botanists. Our old friend Samuel's cup of distinction, money, health and happiness runneth completely over.

Two moving-picture entertainments will be given on Friday Dec. 18, at the Birmingham Theatre, under the auspices of the Bloomfield Hills Seminary, for the benefit of Belgian Relief Committee, the proceeds to be used in the purchase of supplies, It is hoped that a large sum will be realized. Tickets for the afternoon performance at 3:30, 25 cents; for the evening at 7:45, 35c.

Birmingham was quite a busy little city last Thursday night. With an opera at the Baptist church, given by the seventh grade pupils, a minstrel show at the Family theater, both playing to full houses, two fraternal lodges working over time and a social reception at Mrs. W. H. Jamieson's in honor of Mrs. Thos. A. Ward, we sure can announce, "It is well with Birmingham."

One of our very best, most thoroughly religious, good ladies after listening to an evangelist sermon at the Baptist church, was asked by the preacher how she liked his sermon. She didn't gush much in his favor. He said, in a surprised manner, "Madam, do you believe in the Divinity of Christ?" "I sure do, but not as you do." "Madam, you're damnned," was his reply as he marched away.

Mr. A. S. Holleyhead, who for some time made his home in our village, dropped in on us last week Friday looking fine as silk. Said his family were all well and happy but sighing for dear old Birmingham, and by the way, he "blew up" Editor Mitchell good and plenty because Postmaster Mitchell hadn't been sending the Eccentric to the big Windy City. However, all troubles were patched up and made good and the Eccentric has added one more Chicago name to its already big list there.

Last winter the Grand River Avenue Male Chorus of Detroit gave a concert at the M. E. church, which was enjoyed by a large audience. On Tuesday, December 15, a concert will be given in the new school building in Royal Oak by the same company of singers, under the auspices of the Baptist church. The music lovers of Birmingham will have a three-fold object in attending: First, entertainment of high order; second, helping in a great cause, and a chance to inspect our fine new school building. Price, 25c and 15c.

John McMichael, the general contrator who is building three houses for C. E. Jones on his property opposite the D. U. R. power house, is also building for himself a construction office at the corner of Woodward avenue and Ravine road. Work is progressing as well as could be expected and weather considered. The foundation for the first house is complete. The men are working on the second house and the excavation for the third is likely to be begun any day. These three houses and perhaps enough to make a round dozen here in Birmingham this winter will help considerably.

Let Jack Nye make you a box of cigars to order for you and see how much he can surprise you.

David Levinson returned from Ann Arbor Friday evening to spend the week end with his parents.

The "Up Streamers" of the First Presbyterian S. S. will meet with Mrs. R. J. Taylor, 518 Southfield avenue, Friday evening, December 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Smith and children and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bowers spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. Orson Hunt's family at Clawson.

Regular meeting of Birmingham Lodge, No. 149, K. of P., next Tuesday evening, December 15. Candidate for Third Rank. A full attendance is desired. W. C. Aldrich, K. R. and S.

The next number in the lecture course at the Baptist church will be Tuesday evening, January 6. The attraction will be the Maud Stevens Concert Company. A children's concert will be given at 4 o'clock the same afternoon. Announcements later.

Big holiday advertisements mark the way for Messrs. Cobb & Jennelle and the Quality Shop. These two firms believe in printer's ink judiciously handled and success attends them. See the crimson window of the Quality Shop and note the windowr of Cobb & Jannelle for holiday gifts.

The Knights of Pythias elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Chancellor Commander, William Van Every; vice-chancellor, Claire Stewart; prelate, Frank Cobb; master at arms, George Newman; master of finance, Arthur Gould; keeper of records and seals, Claire Aldrich; inner guard, Will met Wood; outer guard, Warren D. Clizbe; past chancellor, Leslie Gray; delegate to grand lodge, Floyd Smith.

What funny things one sees and hears traveling back and forth on the trolley twixt here and Detroit. Coming from the city one evening last week and sitting on a back seat, we had a good chance to see what was going on ahead of us. Three seats ahead sat a cleaneut looking, fine featured gentleman who lives on Council Bluffs, one of our finest citizens if he is or might be called a new comer, although his ancestors 60 years ago led the then crowd. Well, anyway, at Cross Town crossing two smart, well dressed and handsome ladies came in and one sat in the seat with our c. l. f. f. citizen. He never flinched, but at Woodlawn he felt something tickling his ear and the swell lady alongside dosing, her hat feather was tickling his ear. She was resting; yes, indeed, she slept, and soon with a sigh of relief and contentment her head slowly sank to his shoulder and she slept the sleep that knows no fear, as he gently slid his strong right arm around her generous waist and whispered softly in her ear, "Fear not, kind lady, I am near." We never can tell how they untangled for we left the car at Brownstreet.
