IS THE EAST

Germany Turn Military Energies Against the Forces of the Czar.

KAISER WITH HIS TROOPS

London, Dec. 30.—That the great battle between the Austro-German and Russian armies in Russian Poland has become of prime moment, capturing the attention of the world, is the subject of the leading article in the issue of the East.

Russian Official Statement.—The following official communication was received from the Russian government regarding the military operations in the East.

Relief for Belgium.—New York, Nov. 30.—Boxes of food, prepared especially for the relief of Belgium, were forwarded to the port of New York today.

Defenceless City Shelled.—Amsterdam, Holland, Dec. 30.—The TjD states that the chamber of commerce of Antwerp has sent to the American consul at Dunkirk, with a request that he be sent to Washington, a protest against the bombardment by the Germans of Antwerp, in France.

FOUND TRENCHES WELL BUILT.—Germans Astonished at the Completeness of the Allies' Field Fortifications.—The Berlin Zeitung am Mittag prints an account by a correspondent of the progress of the fighting in the trenches captured by the Germans.

SHATTERS HIS REASON

W. W. Belvin Lost Big Fortune in Railway Deal in Wall Street

He had all the advantages of education and culture that wealth affords. He was recognized as one of the plunders of Wall Street. A son of one of the oldest families of Virginia, he had all the advantages of education and culture that wealth affords.

Figure in Wall Street.—Wall street smiled upon him for a time. He was rated as a millionaire and lived up to the reputation. He was known about town, a familiar figure along Broadway when the lights shone brightest.

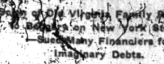

Business Reverse Came.—Since Belvin lost $425,000 in the Northern Pacific deal he has had a checked career. Business reverses followed each other rapidly and consistently. Wall street frowned upon that prospect.
