Build a Permanent Silo

A makeshift affair soon needs repairs and never will protect your silage from heat, cold and moisture. Experience has proved a silo wall must be airtight and moisture-proof to keep ensilage from becoming sour, moldy or rotten.

Natco Imperishable Silo is built of hollow, vitrified clay blocks, reinforced by continuous steel bars between each layer. These blocks are impervious to air and moisture and protect silage from extremes of temperature. Natco Imperishable Silo walls will not freeze and crack. There are no staves to warp, shrink or splinter—no hoops to tighten—no painting—no repair bills.

Build a Natco Imperishable Silo and you are practically through with the job forever. First cost is the last cost. Any mason can erect it.

Weatherproof, Decayproof, Vermingroof, Fireproof

An insurance policy in itself, against loss from windstorm. Keeps ensilage fresh, sweet, succulent and palatable right down to the last forkful. The most permanent and economical silo—the most attractive. A valuable asset to your farm buildings.

Garrick Theatre.

Passing Show of 1913.

With a score or more of individual players, many recruited from headline positions in vaudeville, welded into a harmonious and smoothly acting company, of which sixty dazzling Winter Garden beauties are a feature, presenting in bright and clever revue of the past season's successes and original with originality, lavishness and close attention to detail never equalled within the memory of the oldest theatregoer. "The Passing Show of 1913" comes to the Garrick Theatre, Detroit, all next week, commencing Monday.

In these dramas are assembled most of the leading characters of the successful plays in travesties, dancing numbers, choral ensembles and novelties that baffles description. Following one after another are seen Peg O' My Heart, Cinderella Janis, Pankinhead Scarecrow Stone, The Good Little Devil, The Poor Little Rich Girl, Joseph Keoeton, Broadway Jones. The Sunshine Girl, Mrs. Potiphar, Never-Say-Die Collier, Mary Turner, the underpaid working girl. Joe Garson, Conspiracy, Bill and the Fifth Frankfurter.

The story of the play is full of grips, thrills and climaxes. This company is the original Winter Garden one of 125 and includes Conroy and LeMaire, Mollie and Charles King, Whiting and Burt and a dozen or more popular and well known Stars.

The chorus has a score of changes of costumes, During the action over 30 musical numbers are presented. An augmented orchestra of thirty is a feature.
