Home

Bad weather recently.

Sunday April 19 is Go To Church Sunday for our folks.

We note that a marriage license has been issued to Rudolph A. Burtraw, of Birmingham and Margaret E. Murray, of Martin, a former Birmingham teacher.

Elections both village and township developed strange changes this spring, but we are told that our changes this year are as nothing compared to what is coming.

The Ladies Church society of the First Presbyterian church will hold its next monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Herbert Poppleton, Maple Avenue east, Wednesday afternoon April 15 at 3 o'clock.

The Misses Cornelia, Ruth and Carolina Richardson, of Bay City, are spending the week with their Grandmother, Mrs. Richardson, on Martin Street, and their aunt, Mrs. W. D. Clizbe on Southfield Avenue.

Ellsworth Plumstead is home for just a few days from a highly successful entertainment tour. He starts almost immediately for the East with every night filled for over two months in Pennsylvania, New York, Conn., and New Jersey. "Plum" is the right man in the right place and honors and speaks well of of his home town wherever he goes.

If you should meet Jennie Ferguson of Southfield Avenue, dont ask her where she got those beautiful well done black eyes, and how. If you do she will tell you how it was, that she was in her cellar, slipped on a rake, the handle jumped vicious y from the floor swiping the astonished lady aeross the face, causing her to retire from public view for several days.

From the Fort Wayne, Indinana Sentinel we glean the following:— "D. E. Wilber, a retired real estate and insurance man of Ypsilanti, Mich., and the father of Miss Flora Wilber, principal of the Fort Wayne Normal school, died at 8 o'clock March 9 1914, at Hope hospital at the age of 77 years. Mr. Wilber, with his wife, came to Fort Wayne last January to visit their daughter and Mr. Wilber suffered an attack of illness one week ago. His death was due to complications. Mr. Wilbur was one of the best known residents of Ypsilanti and he was a 32nd degree Scottish Rite Mason and Knights Templar. He was also active in many in the affairs of the Baptist congregation at Ypsilanti and news of his death comes as a sorrowful shock to his many acquaintances. Surviving besides the widow he leaves two sons and two daughters,—Miss Flora Wilber, of Fort Wayne; Mrs. F. E. Arthur, of Bellaire, Michigan; B. E. Wilber, of Indianapolis and F. P. Wilber, of Ypsilanti. The remains were shipped to Ypsilanti and funeral service held at his late residence." Deceased was a teacher in our public schools and later on a leading merchant of Birmingham well known and highly respected by a host of friends here.

Go to Church Sunday April 19, if you don't you will be all alone.

Do you suppose it is Codnor and his limburger cheese that has caused our bad weather, recently.

Shain's rabbit show in his big front window excites much admiration proves that Easter is right here.

Big Special Feature, "The Daughter of the Hills," at the Family next Wednesday evening. Don't fail to see it.

A gasolene stove for sale cheap. Although it is a second hand one Hilliard who has tested it out says it goes like a bird. Call and see it. Mitchell. 2p

A band of gypsies creating consternation at every move passed through town recently, and at every point our officers was close by urging them along.

David Bell for the town treasure ran like a deer. Had a majority of 248, and was exceeded only by night watchman, Stepenson's, majority as constable.

The concert given by the Grand River Male Chorus at the M. E. Church last Monday night was thoroughly enjoyd by a large audience. We hope to hear more talent like this.

Mammoth bronze turkey eggs for setting 25 cents eachor $2.50 per dozen, also mammoth pekin duck eggs 10 cents each or $1 per dozen. Mrs. O. W. Cook Sweet farm, Birmingham. 2p

Regular meeting of Birmingham Temple No. 94 Pythian Sisters Monday April 13, at 8 o'clock. There will be Knights and Ladies initiation, and lunch served. All members urged to be present.

A concert will be given by the Mu Pli Epsilon sorority of the Detroit conservatory of music under the auspices of the St. James Woman's Guild, at the Johnson-Shaw Hall, Friday April 24. Dancing will follow the concert. Admission 35 cents.

Easter-Sunday services will be held in the First Presbyterian church next Sunday morning consisting of Sunday school exercises, followed by a musical selection appropriate to the day. The school will meet at 10:30 o'clock and the public service will be at 11 o'clock.

Don't miss seeing the "Battle of Gettysburg," at the Family, Monday. (April 13). There will be a special matinee beginning at 3:30, the price the same as usual, 5 and 10 cents. Evening show opens at 6:30, second at 8:15, the admission is 10cents for every one.

Our good old time friend Edwin Miller is a very sick man now, but has been a great deal worse, in fact he came very near passing over. At this writing he is better, his bad symptoms are disappearing and everything now looks favorable for a sure recovery. We are glad.

Sometimes do you not feel a little warmth about your heart as you recall some past stirring of your soul to better things by a faithful preacher or sincere Sunday school teacher of other days? If the habit of church attendance has been given up or weakened, renew it and Go-To-Church, Sunday April 19.

At the Family, April 15, Daniel Froman presents a pastoral drama of long ago" The Daughter of the Hills," with Laura Sawyer. It is a romance of Ancient Rome, an appealing drama played in the shadow of Nero's Throne. The conquest of a savage heart by a gentle love is shown. First show starts at 6:30 second at 8:15.

Mrs. Thomas A. Ward, who has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. John Ruckman, in Washington D. C. left Wednesday evening for Cleveland, Ohio where she will visit her sister, Mrs. J. H. Schmuch before returning to Birmingham where she and Miss Lucy will make their happy home in the Schlaack terrace along with Mrs. Jennie Ferguson.

Mrs Breckenridge, the Public Health nurse, sent out by the State Society for the Prevention and Relief of Tuberculosis spent Wednesday in Birmingham, getting acquainted with the schol children and giving informal talks on the need of Preventive Care. She feels that a mass meeting of the Citizen's of Oakland County to look into the needs of the County, would result in much good,

Mr. William Harris who bought the home of George H. Mitchell, on Woodward Avenue, had an army of men at work making changes desired. With newly laid floors all over the big house, and with painting, paper hanging decorations and all other improvements finished Mr. Harris and family will have the largest, finest and most valuable home in Birmingham or dare say Oakland County.

Last Sunday evening the Birmingham delegates to the Y. M. C. A. convention at Pontiac told the people of Birmingham of the convention. The following spoke:—The banquet Friday night, Arthur Heacock; Saturday a. m. A. Brown; The Photography, L. Shippey; Saturday p. m., Recreation, Gep. Johnson; Saturday p. m., Charles Beals; Sunday a. m., services at the different churces by:—Dudley Hays, M E church; Robert Peck, Baptist Sunday school; Mark Hanna, Presbyterian church; Arthur Peck, mass meeting Sunday p. m.; Farewell service, by L. Tracy and W. Parmenter.

On Tuesday evening, April 14, Prof. Tealdi, of the Department of Landscape Design of the University of Michigan, will give a free public lecture in the High School room, under the auspices of the Citizens League and the Town Improvement committee of the Womans Literary club. The lecture will be illustrated by lantern slide views, and on the subject of "Home Grounds and their Improvements." It will deal with such topics as, trees and shrubs for the small yard. Their selection with references to use and beauty. The possibilities of comfort and beauty on even the smallest lot. Come and hear Prof. Tealdi.

Do you want the best flour in the market today? If so go to the Miner Grocery Company, and ask for "New Century Flour." Don't forget this name. "NEW CENTURY FLOUR."

Mr. and Mrs. Isrela Hale returned Sunday from a 4 weeks trip in Florida. They were called there by the illness of Mrs. Hale's father. After his recovery they took short trips to the ocean and through orange groves, the report having had a grand time.

Not a word has been heard from J. M. Kelley, the late manager of the Michigan State Telephone Co., for our city as well as Royal Oak. Mr. Corbett the Company's auditor is busy settling the books and he has found some shortages and acts that look bad for Kelley Mrs. Kelley has sold out their interest in their late home to Mr. John Hawthorne.
