She belongs to the great middle class that class which has given help mates to the foremost men of our time; which teaches its daughters the true meaning of love; which teaches the manners of the drawing room and the practical life of the kitchen as well as teaches its girls the responsibilities of wifehood and the greatness of motherhood.

Police Duty Left to Burghers.

In the eighteenth century the whole safety and order of Glasgow, Scotland, was intrusted to the, unpaid and reluctant burghers. Every citizen who was between the years of eighteen and sixty, and paid a yearly rent amounting to $15, had to take his turn at guarding the city. "On touch of drum," says a writer, "the gentleman was at his post at ten at night, and strolled with weary tread and yawning gait along the Trongate and High street, and up the pitch dark lanes, of winter nights till four in the morning. After that hour the city was without a police."
