It pays to advertise in the Eclectic. Last week this great publication was in the Postoffice early Friday morning and before noon the next day. Nicholson 12 miles away down in Redford township walked hurriedly to Grays home and said, "By Heck I've got to build a porch for my wife and if you can give me any pointers in your book I want to buy a right smart quick. I want to Rousseau but he wasn't at home."

William Finn who worked in the D. U. R. power house here for years and made a host of warm friends and forwards to New Baltimore to work for the D. U. R. Co., in their power-house there. He was a kind and cheerful man who knew him loved him for his cheerfulness, his kind and courteous treatment of all alike.

Orion village is "dry" since the city council refused to grant a Proprietor license to A. Farrell of the Park hotel a license to operate his bar for the $500 which he tendered the council. The council refused to pay. He has brought a mandamus against the village to secure a license under the old ordinance providing for but $500. To retaliate upon the village for refusing him a license, Farrell has closed his hotel and says he will keep it closed until the license is granted. Farrell owns the building and is in a position to keep it closed. The Park hotel is the only one in the village. The hotel had the only bar in the village in the past years and has been the Mecca for thirty among the villagers and summer resorters. The rarest "wet" spots now are Oxford and Rochester.

The B. H. S. Class "94" held their 20th annual reunion and every living member was here to answer roll call but Mrs. Estelle Ward Kuckner, of Washington, D. C. They met this year with Mrs. Fred Quatton, on Maple Avenue. We notice present and they were a jolly happy noisy bunch: Mrs. Wiley Foley of Boston, Mass., George Ford of Erie, Adams, Fred Quatton, Bert Blacklake and Mrs. Gordon Allen Pierce. To see this fine looking lot of ladies and gentlemen collected talking over old times does cause one to think that life may perhaps be worth living outside of Birmingham. We hope so.

There are now more than 5,000 Marines in Mexico; more are needed for service there. The Marines are leading the American troops in this campaign, and are daily adding to their glory to the name of the veteran Corps, as well as to the American colors which they are serving so faithfully. I enclose herewith a booklet which explains the service in the Marine Corps. I trust that you will read the same with interest. The fire alarm sounded again Sunday noon and our fire ladies promptly responded and quickly arrived on the spot and just as quickly doused out the fire. It was a small stack of hay, and was extinguished before any damage was done. The alarm brought out the entire population.

Washington Theatre.
"MARTHA"
Not since the older days of the Savage Grand Opera company has Detroit meant treated to such an opera feast as is now being served at the Washington Theatre. Detroit's local newspaper critics are unanimous in the opinion that the list of principals in the English Grand Opera company is the greatest English singing aggregation in the world and that the Washington Theatre is never heard in Detroit, not only in the singing but in the production, the costuming and the electrical effects.

As the sixth and last week of the opera season the English Grand Opera company will present to the most popular of all operas, "Martha." The story concerns Lady Harriet, a girl of rank in the Court of Queen Anne of England, who, tired of the amusements which court life affords her, forms a plan to visit the Servant's farm at Richmond in the guise of a poor girl. She is accompanied by her maid, who is secretly in love with her. The story is a masterpiece of dramatic art.

Arrived at the farm, the foster parents find that their new servant is absolutely nothing of their duties. But Liliel is quite smitten with the lady and Plunkett pleased with the lady's capacity. The story is a masterpiece of dramatic art.

A little while after this occurrence, the queen with the ladies of her court, among them the lady of the name, Nancy, hang in the forest adjoining the village of which the brothers are the lords. The story is a masterpiece of dramatic art.

Plunkett and Liliel fall in with a party of hussies headed by Lady Harriet. They recognize their foster parents, but the ladies deny all knowledge of them.

But the indefatigable Harriet contrives still another plan to bring about a reconciliation. Her ladyship's plan is actually to bring to the face of the market place in Richmond, Farmers and Servants are to be put to a test. So are the ladies and the final curtain descends on two happy couples.
