slowly. But it is possible to hasten hem #title. The postoffice has compiled lists of farmers who are willing to ship food to city people by the parcel post. These lists are at the service of anybody who will ask for them. Lists are also being made of the names of people who wish to obtain produce direct from farmers and these will also be given out friesly. Thaf it is beped that consumer and producer will be brought into friesly communication to the benefit of both. But something more is needed than this. There should be a propanginds throughout the country to organize parcel post clubs. Similar work is needed in other states. It is not sufficient to offer advantages to the rubilic, it ends to offer advantages to the rubilic.

The, method employed is simple, which supplies the body-cells with the substance they so bailly need and of course, thus converts the cancer cells back to sormal baelthy structure again.

It is quite easy for every physician to lock the case of cancer over and adopt measures according to the case, thave used this very largely on cases which have already been operated upon recurrency. I have had and am having the grandest success in this treatment.—Mecial Century, New York, N. Y., May 1914.

Mrs. H. George Fleid Successfully Manages Onkland Co. Hospital Tag Day. Result $74.00

Twenty pretty maids under the able management of Mrs. H. George Field, general chairman of the day, collected $71 on our streets last Saturday. This amount will be used in farnishing a nurses' home at the Oakland County hospital of Pontiac. Early in the day enthusiate maidens appeared with tags and vari-colored plumes and with sackeyl an exception was a refusal given. Many of our citizens were adorned with three and four tags and all sorts of vehicles were decorated with the bright blumes.

four tags and all sorts of vehicles were decorated with the bright plumes.

No one was too rich or too poor to war a tag, the man who digs in the soil was no prouder of his tag purchased by a nickel than the rich man who dropped a quarter in the tag boxes.
