THE NEW FABLE OF THE LIFE OF THE PARTY.

One Night a Complimentary Dinner was given to a Captain of Industry by some Friends looking for Orders. The Chairman of the arrangements Committee was a popular Wine-Purser, consequently the volunteer Search Parties were kept for Three Days after, gathering up the Bond.

Along about 10:30, when every Perfect Gentleman was neatly Stewed and each Chandelier was doing a Stewed Salome in time with the Hungler, Orchestra, a Man connected with the Jobbing Trade got up to say a Few Words.

He was keyed to Concert Pitch and the Audience was Piped and all the old sure-fire Bokum of a Sentimental Nature simply Killed them all when they

When he concluded, the hilarious Bro Brothers, with the mused-up Hair and the twisted Shirt Bosoms, arose to their Feet and waved Napkins and gave of water what he described to his Wife at 2 A. M. as A Novation.

Another Good man was spotted. After Herman made the oshawwal Hit with the Bouses he became convinced that he was an After-Dinner Will.

One Thomas and Simeon Ford had nothing on him.

Whenever he found himself seated at a Table with other People and Food being served he began to suck Lenses and classify his Anecdotes and try to appear Unconcerned.

"All the time he was simply waiting for the Hair Pluff to come out from behind the Chrysanthemum and say, "We have with us this evening."

Then for the quiet Introduction, leading to the Hair Pluff, he turned to the Tremolo Stup pulled all the Way out on the Pathos and a couple of Depress to put them in a Good Humor, combined with a Hypocritic of Hot Mush.

If the Punch sat back and refused to Fall for the War-Time Favorites he would console himself by telling the Magnificent Assemblage stood and cheered him for five Minutes.

Therefore his Voice sounded to him a good deal like the Boston Symphony Orchestra playing Rubinstein's Melody in F.

Whenever People sat down in front of the decorative Canape Cavalier and ready to start on the course of another Hotel Gorge, they would glance across the Snowy Expanse of White, dotted with plump California Olives and cold, unattractive and seeing Herman seated opposite, would remark, "Stung!"

He could not have been kept in his Chair with a Ton of Coal in each Tail-Pocket.

And if The Ladies were present that was where he worked in the Bird-Calls and ordered out the Twinkling Stars.

According to the Expectation Tables of the Insurance Actuaries, probably he will live 22 years, 3 months, 2 days, 10 hours, 15 minutes, 10 seconds, 10 tenths, 10 hundredths, 10 thousandths, 10 millionths, 10 billionths, 10 trillionths, 10 quadrillionths, 10 quintillionths, 10 sextillionths, 10 septillionths, 10 octillionths, 10 nonillionths, 10 decillionths, 10 undecillionths, 10 duodecillionths, 10 tridecillionths, 10 quattuordecillionths, 10 quindecillionths, 10 sexdecillionths, 10 septendecillionths, 10 octodecillionths, 10 novemdecillionths, 10 vigintillionths, 10 unvigintillionths, 10 duovigintillionths, 10 trivigintillionths, 10 quattuorvigintillionths, 10 quinquavigintillionths, 10 sexvigintillionths, 10 septuagesimillionths, 10 octogintillionths, 10 nonagesimillionths, 10 centillionths.

THE NEW FABLE OF THE HOKEY. BACK.

Once there was an undivorced Couple that would get up every G. M. and put on the five-ounce Mitts and wait for the Sound of the Gong.

Each was working for the Championship of the Ring and proved to be the Glutton for Punishment.

Every time he landed a crashing Hay-Maker on her Family History she countered with a short-arm Jolt on his Person.

Both would retire to the Corners breathing heavily, but still full of Combat.

He loved to start out the Day by finding in the Paper what a Professor connected with the University of Chicago had said about the American Woman being a vain and shallow Parasite with a Cerebrum about the size of an English Walnut.

She would retaliate by reading aloud a Special in regard to a Husband who after Wife with Ax, while under the Influence of Liquor.

After which, for 15 or 20 minutes, the Dining Room would be just as peaceful and quiet as a Camorra Trial, but just as often she would fiddle around for an Ostracism and then Zowie!—right on the Cook and him Stalling to escape further punishment.

When Nightfall came they would stroll in and around the Ring, whanging away, for each was too Game to be a Quitter.

Their Married Life, which started out with American Beauty Roses in every Vase and a long Piece in the Paper, now settled down to a Thirty Years War with all of the Attendant Horrors.

The only time the Dove of Peace really lit was when they had Company.

Then they would Dear each other until the Premises became Sticky and she would even cook up a Ripple of Fats, laughing and then pulling some of the Cheese that used to go for the War they were engaged. But the Moment the Dove of Peace would lit it and another domestic Gettysburg would drive the Servants to Cover.

GEORGE ANTON

After this had been going on for several Seasons he happened to get hold of a Powerful Work written by a Popular Novelist (Unmarried), who made a psychological Dissection of a Woman's Soul and then preached a Funeral Sermon over the Dead Love that once blossomed in the Heart of the Heroine.

After he read this Tragedy of Hired Romance he felt like a Pup.

He perceived that he had been in the Wrong.

The Novelist taught him that his Cue was to bear with the Weaker Vessel and to keep the Hoop-jockey of True Affection pruned and watered by Devotion and Sacrifice.

Therefore, he made one large Vou to cut out the Rough Stuff.

Next Morning when the Queen of the Amazons put on her Paint and Feathers and began to beat his War Drum there was Nothing Doing. He refused to enter the blood-

He tried several treatments which cured me for a month, but it always broke out again. One day a friend saw the advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the paper and I took three months for Cuticura Soap and Ointment to complete my cure. (Signed) Walter Mahony, Oct. 22, 1913.

stained Arena and when she came after her, he got out and took the Count before a Punch had been delivered.

Before starting for the Office he kissed her on the cheek and gave her some Massage Treatment around the Shoulder Blades and called her "Toots"—a Term of Endearment which had been mixing in the Street ever since they used it at Niagara Falls.

She was so dazed by this Reversal of Form that she peeked from the Window and watched him clear to the Corner, convinced that he was on his way to meet Another Woman.

He came home that Evening with a Jar of ointment and a tin of ointment. Simon Legree demanded the Name of the Hussey he simply pulled a Yearning Smile and invited her to go ahead and use his ointment.

Next day she put a Newspaper around the Bird Cage and tied up the Geranium and took the unfinished Tattling and Bawling.

When she walked in on her Own People, with the Declaration that all Bets were Off, they wanted to know what she meant and a Spotted Woman couldn't keep on rooming with a Guinea-Pig.

MORAL—Contempt breeds Family animosity.

Enrancing Bird Melody.

I had dropped in at one of our big downtown grocery stores to buy the Melons of a Welsh henny when I heard from a gilded cage in the window the sweetest bird song in the world. I was reminded of all Wordsworth has to say about the skylark. The liquid melody rippled and trilled from the small throat as if the little captive was singing praises to the morning sun, praising the skylark grapefruit pluck so fragrantly on the counter. The tiny warbler was certainly throwing his whole soul into the melody. It conjured up visions of shady forests and of leafy glades. There was a certain tropical warmth in the lyric that was new.

"What a remarkable canary!" I observed to the proprietor.

"Oh, that isn't a canary," he replied. "It's an Indian thrush."

"I had heard that," I said, "but the music of the Indian thrush, whose song is the rarest of all tropical bird songs. Few of us in this climate, however, have had the exquisite pleasure of listening to such a melodious—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Foolish Question.

Rev. Dr. Aked used to tell a story about an eccentric American who, wanting to get married in a hurry, arrived at the altar with a Spotted Cerebrum whose statue insisted and insisted on being married at the spot.

Very unwillingly the clergyman got out of bed, and, having roused some members of his household to act as witnesses, he proceeded to tie the nuptial knot.

Things went smoothly enough till he asked the American:

"Do you take this woman to be your lawful wedded wife?"

The American stared at him in astonishment.

"Say, boss, what'd ya's pose I yanked you out of bed at this hour of night for?"

Not That Kind.

"Don't you think you ought to be more wide-awake about the medicine you are introducing?"

"To be wide-awake about it would queer the whole business. It is a cure for insomnia."

HYPNOTISM FOR THE AILING

Famous French Physician Claims to Be Able to Cure Many of the Ills of Mankind.

Dr. Bertillon of Paris asserts that psychoculture, or soul-culture, is the medicine of the future.

He does not hypnotize his patients into hypnotic trances, but places them in an environment which creates an appetite for sleep. He invites them to repose on their beds and think of nothing. Then he leaves them, and they gradually succumb to the "tick-tack" of a metronome.

When a patient lies in a hypnotic slumber, if it is desired that he shall be cured of a tendency to excessive indulgence in alcohol, the psychoculture suggests to him that he cannot raise a glass of asbath to his lips and repeats the suggestion until the prohibition is engraved upon the brain that if the patient would think of it could not do so.

Dr. Bertillon is frequently consulted by those who have had unhappy love affairs, and it is said that through hypnotism they obtain release from their unrequited passion.

SCALY PSORIASIS ON LIMBS

Troop H, 6th U. S. Cavalry, Camp McCoy, Sparta, Wis.—"I was troubled with psoriasis for nearly two years. Portions of my arms and limbs were affected mostly with it. It appeared in scaly form, breaking out in very small dots and gradually grew larger and white scales formed when about the size of an ordinary match-head. The itching was very annoying. I tried many different remedies, but it itched a little at times.

"I tried several treatments which cured me for a month, but it always broke out again. One day a friend saw the advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the paper and I took three months for Cuticura Soap and Ointment to complete my cure. (Signed) Walter Mahony, Oct. 22, 1913.

"Sir, that is not a fair question."

Show us a man who thinks he knows it all and we can show you a moving picture of a big mistake.

"Yes, she is keeping up with six continued stories in the magazines and four in the movies."—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Discovering the Real Mexico

See the correspondence with the army at Vera Cruz are acquiring a knowledge of Mexico which they are imparting to their readers in the benefit of the people. They are hearing that cities founded by the conquering Spaniards before Jamestown or Plymouth began are not more devoid of vice than are our cities. The general sentiment of Spain in its hercule age. One correspondent admits that all the public buildings in Vera Cruz are good and contain a great deal of what we have at home.

"If the scribbles to whom real Mexico is restricted keep on with their journals they may come to Puebla and see the great professional library of one hundred thousand volumes attached to the municipal school. In the City of Mexico there are many structures that delight traveling architects. Mexico is not all "militaristas" and "peons," though this trouble has always been too many of the former. There are cultured people in Mexico who find a culture a refuge from the turmoil of their starved republic.—Boston Transcript.

Known of Old.

"Ambassador Thomas Nelson Page like most married novelists, treats married life in his books from the inside, as it were." A Washington woman said she had read Nelson Page's "The Wife" and "The Mother." "At a tea Mr. and Mrs. Page had a ludicrous argument over something or other, and when their misunderstanding was cleared up, Mr. Page laughed and said:

"This seems like a chapter that has slipped out of a novel, doesn't it?"

"No, it is not," Mrs. Page retorted, "more like a chapter that will slip into one."

Long-Delayed Postcards.

During the removal of an enamel plate from a letter box outside the post office at Stanley Road, Tooting, London, England, three post cards dated October, 1891, were found wedged between the plate and the frame of the letter box.

Although the cards were much discolored after their 23 years' rest, the addresses on two of them were decipherable, and they have been delivered.
