The Source of Uric Acid

Eating too much is a common habit that does a lot of harm. Meat, especially, forms uric acid and the constant intake of acids weakens the kidneys. Uric acid causes rheumatic and serous diseases, lodges in the eyes, forms gravel and leads to dropsy and Bright's disease. Kidney weakness gives early warning, however, such as backache and urinary disorders and can be stopped by prompt treatment. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, the best recommended and most wisely used kidney remedy.

Doan's Kidney Pills
A man had a bad case of kidney trouble. He was a member of the Y. M. C. A. and had to give up his membership because he was unable to attend. He had a great deal of trouble and was very nervous. He was advised to use Doan's Kidney Pills and he was cured. He was able to attend the Y. M. C. A. and was a member again. He was very happy and healthy.

400,000 Settlers a Year

Immigration figures show that the population of Canada increased during 1913, by the addition of 400,000 new settlers from the United States and Europe. Most of these have gone on farms in provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Lead Wilson, an English nobleman says:

"The possibilities and opportunities offered by the Canadian West are so infinite and greater than those which exist in England, that it seems absurd to think that people should be imported from coming to this country where they can most easily and advantageously improve their position."

New settlers are being opened up which will make accessible a great number of homesteads in districts especially adapted to mixed farming and grain raising.

HOW TO TREAT PIMPLES AND BLACKHEADS

For pimples and blackheads the following is a most effective and economical treatment: Gently smear the affected parts with Cuticura Ointment, on the end of the finger, but do not rub. Wash off the Cuticura Ointment in five minutes with Cuticura Soap and hot water and continue bathing for some minutes. This treatment is the best treatment for pimples and blackheads. At other times use Cuticura Soap freely for the toilet and bath to assist in preventing inflammation, irritation and itching. Pimples, the common cause of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness, yellow, oily, mothy and other unwholesome conditions of the skin.

Wanted to See Novelty.
A little girl wrote her father a letter, using a "script" typewriter, the letters of which were joined as those in ordinary handwriting. The little girl asked her father to get her a typewriter of this type and that more generally used, with interest.

"Oh, uncle, uncle," she cried, upon her next visit to his office. "I want to see the typewriter that writes words instead of letters!"

Worst Vet to Come.
"I hate to leave the old place," remarked Adam as he turned from the Garden of Eden. "Leaving isn't the worst of it," replied Eve. "Think of the trouble you're going to have when you get to telling of the animals and rivers in this place to the explorers and make a public acknowledgment of it."

The Chief Poet was about to pulverize Mr. John Smith when a shriek rent the air and Pochontas stood beside him.
"My son," he commanded.
"Ah!" exclaimed Smith, who was noted for his fertility in resource, "you are the first I ever loved."

EYE STRAIN
Relieved by Quitting Coffee.
Many cases of defective vision are caused by the habitual use of coffee. It is said that in Arabia where coffee is used in large quantities, many lose their eyesight at about fifty. Tea contains the same drug, caffeine, as coffee.

A N. J. woman writes to the point concerning eye trouble and coffee. She says:
"My son was for years troubled with his eyes. He tried several kinds of glasses without relief. The optician said there was a defect in his eyes which was hard to reach."
"He used to drink coffee, as we all did, and finally quit it and began to use Postum. That was three years ago and he has not had to wear glasses and has had no trouble with his eyes since."

"I was always fond of tea and coffee and finally became so nervous I could hardly sit still long enough to eat a meal. My heart was in such a condition I thought I might die at any time."
"Medicine did not give me relief and I was almost desperate. It was about this time we decided to quit coffee and use Postum, and have used it ever since. I am in perfect health. No trouble now with my heart and never felt better in my life."
"Postum has been a great blessing to us all, particularly to my son and myself."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. "The Road to Wellville," in pkg.
Postum now comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled. Hot and the package contains instant Postum—is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.
The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.

How Women Avoid Operations

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"My left side pained me so for several years that I expected to have to undergo an operation, but the first bottle I took of Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued its use until I became regular and free from pain. I had suffered several doctors to help me and they said there was nothing that they knew of. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."

Woman's Sad Lot.
"Weren't you fully shocked when you heard that Mrs. Spozum had been sent to a divorce?"
"Not a bit. Why should I have been?"
"Well, it seems such a pity on account of the children."

"Yes, it would be kind of unfortunate if the court should decide to give them to her to take care of. But a woman always will have to assume that risk as long as we have only men for judges."

Candid Opinion.
A genius is just an ordinary man with kinks in his mind.

The man who doesn't care what other people think of him would generally be very unappy if he did.

Some men think they are philanthropic when they give back what they have stolen.

Tact is deceit in its dress suit.

HIS CHANCE.
"I wish I could do something like that," said a man who had just seen a man who had had a million-dollar fortune.

"I can tell you how to do it," replied the philosopher.
"How. Tell me, man, and I will make it worth your while!"
"Look back over your career, find out just how much of your success was due to your own genius and how much of it resulted from sheer luck, and make a public acknowledgment of it."

The Cry of the Disconsolate.
I wish 'at I could get enough to go to war, for then I'd get on and never have to go to school again.

And then the government would have to furnish me a gun. And I'd just shoot away all day—free. Who would be able to stop me? I wouldn't have to study then. Ever fail I wouldn't pass. And I wouldn't have to know the laws. Nor make away the grass.

And when I got into the game Ma couldn't come no more. And I wouldn't have to get Her something at the store.

I wish 'at I was big enough to go to war, for then I wouldn't have to go to church. Nor say my prayers again.

Another Notifying Committee.
"Well, sir," said the fair maiden's father when the young man had been ushered into the private office, "what is your business with me?"
"I have been appointed to serve as a committee of one to notify you that you have been nominated to become my father-in-law."

What He Had Done.
"What have you ever done for me?" complained the young man whose father had chided him for his inability to get ahead.
"Well, I kept your mother from naming you Percy or Clarence."

The Only Way.
"Come now, Johnny," said the teacher, "tell us how Washington crossed the Delaware."
"On a pass," said Johnny, whose father was a member of the legislature.

School System at Fault Again.
"Say, pa, what's an idiom?"
"That's the Latin meaning for more than one idiot. Do you know what you're goin' to school for if they don't learn you them kind of things there?"

The Real Terror.
"Come around tomorrow evening," she said. "Father will be away."
"No," he replied, "I met but that you will excuse me. But if that butler of yours ever has a night off I wish you'd let me know."

Mr. Peck.
"There's one thing," he said, "that I'd like to know."
"I'm glad to hear it," replied his wife, "although there are many things that you ought to know."

Register O'Laughlin of Brooklyn will think twice before he undertakes to address another convention of tailors. His own tailor led him into it. "For me," said the tailor, "you do it. With my friends it makes a hit."

O'Laughlin put on his openwork clothes and sat on the platform. Tailors, cutters, buyers, city salesmen, busketeers, models, bosses, other flumes of the tailoring industry buzzed loudly on the floor. Now and then some man would enter and be greeted with applause.

"That," said O'Laughlin's tailor and guide, "is Max Schlichter, he is the buyer for Clipperton & Menz."
Hours O'Laughlin sat there. At last he was introduced as the next speaker. He made the most attention to him. Conversation rose toward the heights of emotion. After three false starts O'Laughlin sat down. He was angry enough for a reason. His tailor saw the black rage on his brow.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he belabored, whacking at the table with his gavel. "You should listen to Mr. O'Laughlin. He is my best customer."—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

A Buxton philanthropist, it is said, not long ago received the following letter:

"Dear and Noble Sir: Knowing your kind heart and nobleness of nature I write these few lines to ask will you be so kind as to add to your good deeds the following: I have lately lost my husband and my wife. So being horseless, homeless and wifeless I am up again hard trying to earn a living. Would you be so kind in the goodness of your great heart to help me along some financially until I can replace my three losses when I am sure I can repay you once on my feet I can make good my losses an would pay back the loan with interest. A small loan would help me to reach the goal of success sooner and therefore you would get your money back sooner so it would be better for both if the loan could be large as possible. Hope to have favorable reply etc."

The Middle Course.
Senator Hart at a reception was discussing the Mexican situation.
"Steer a middle course," he said to an extremist. "These extreme ideas are always wrong."
"Thus at tea, one young girl asked another:
"And where are you going this summer?"
"From the way mother talks," was the reply, "you'd think we were going to Newport. From the way father talks you'd think we were going to starve. But I suppose we'll steer a middle course, as usual, and put in a fortnight at a $12 Atlantic City boarding house."

Practically So.
Eddie, what's the matter? Fall?"
"No. I tried to hang some pictures and stood some dictionaries on a table and they slipped from under me."
"Words failed you, I suppose."

An American woman made the acquaintance of a young man who had a small party which included Mrs. Cook, widow of the famous tourist manager. The display within the car was unusually fine, which the American at dinner smilingly attributed to the presence of Mrs. Cook. After several moments of silence, two Englishmen exclaimed in one breath, "But how could they manage that?"

Some Bootless Remarks.
The whole-souled fellow is not half so likely to go on his knees as the half-souled ones. The former is usually better behaved and doesn't get out and leave a fellow in the lurch when he finds it necessary to revamp his fortunes after business affairs have run counter to his desires.

Complicated Courtesies.
"I tried to apologize to my wife," said Mr. Meekton, "but it was confusing."
"Why?"
"Every time I tried to say anything she insisted on saluting back, word for word."
Tribulation.
He—Darling, why are you so sad? She (gulping down a sob)—Oh, dear, I was just thinking this will be our last evening together until tomorrow night!—Puck.

Sure Clue.
"Doctor, is your patient sure you can cure him by your new method?"
"How did you know my patient was not a woman?"
"I heard that you were going to try the silence cure."
No wonder Solomon was the champion wise man, with 1,000 wives to coach him.

Hard to Understand.
"I can understand how we got along without wireless, or electric light, or the telephone," said the society bud.
"Well?"
"That how did we ever get along without the tailor?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Superfutility.
"You never admit having made a mistake!"
"What's the use?" asked Senator Sorghum. "When I make a mistake, there are always plenty of people to talk about it without my joining in."
"Why?"
"I heard that you were going to try the silence cure."
