LEGALS

OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN. I, the undersigned, being a duly qualified and licensed attorney at law in the State of Michigan, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original as the same appears in the files of the State of Michigan.

Mrs. C. G. Hunt, of Central America, is visiting her brother and sister, James B. Hunt and wife.

John Allen's leg is not broken. He hobbles around about as bad as if it was and is thankful (twas) no more. Mr. Allen was injured when his horse ran away Tuesday.

All is well! The summer of 1914 is complete! We have received a birch-bark post-card from Mackinaw Island, a warm-looking pennant from Bob Blank and a dear, sweet card from the useless birch-bark card from Put-in-Bay.

Daines & Bell, abreast with the times, announce a grand July clearance sale that means just what it says. Note the prices. The goods are their regular stock and are cheap at regular prices. At the Clearance Sale they are given away.

Ed O'Neal says: "There are a few others who are open for business besides bars and banks on Wednesday afternoons. There are harness shops, hardware stores, feed stores, plumbing shops, garages, justice office, blacksmith shops, the post-office, the Eccentric office, the jail and the telephone office."

Anyone needing the services of a competent tinsmith for any kind of work should call on the Birmingham Tinning company, William Thornton, proprietor. They are kept very busy by citizens of Bloomfield Hills, Birmingham and vicinity and give satisfaction every time. If you need a tinner, send for Thornton.

The following letter was received by M. B. Maxwell, of Venita, Pa.: "I would like you to still be the 'best' dispensing nurse, boosting the home town. I would like to see you come with a little stronger on reform measures in your editorials. I love the beautiful village where I lived seven happy years and shall always enjoy hearing from old friends there. I enclose you $2 which please credit to my subscription. I send best wishes to yourself and all the old friends and for the Pride of Oakland."

Someone has advanced the opinion that the letter "Q" is the most unfortunate letter in the English alphabet, because it is always out of cash, forever in debt, never out of danger, in all he all the time. For some reason, he overlooked the fortunate of the letter, as we call it here, and the fact "Q" is never in war and always in peace. It is the beginning of ease and the end of trouble. Without it there would be no meat, no life and no heaven. It is the center of honesty, makes love perfect and without it there could be no editors, devils nor news.—Ed.

Would it not interest you to know that in the Wright-Kay building, corner Woodward and Grand River avenues, Detroit, there is a store and a little shop where everything in knit underwear and hosiery for the entire family can be purchased at one counter? Madge G. Walker, the proprietor, says: "Upon careful study and close observation of the shopping public, we have noted that 90 per cent of all shopping for the home is done by mother, daughter, wife or sister. To eliminate waste of time, energy and strength expended in an ordinary day's shopping, going from one department to another, we have devised a method of combining four departments into one. You may sit at our counter away from the noise and confusion of the store and leave your order for everything in knit underwear and hosiery for the entire family. You are not obliged to take what we have. We get what you want. If you have been annoyed by fitting underwear or have been dissatisfied with the wear your hosiery has been giving, come to us and let us solve your troubles. We make knit underwear to your order. Outsize our own fitting. Visit Miss Walker's splendid green shop. You will like it."
