Somebody said long ago

That he wished to be neither rich nor poor.
Truly that was a wise observation.
Because the in-between place is far preferable.
It is well for most of us that it is, for few of us can ever become wealthy—
While all of us may acquire the rainy-day amount.
It is just a question of starting to save up money that doesn't have to be spent.
A question of starting soon and of keeping at it.
A few years of systematic saving will give a young man a wonderful lift up the ladder of success.
This Bank offers its savings branch as the safest and surest plan to accomplish the desired result.

Quoth Tagore.

Do you know whence comes the sleep that floats over the eyes of a child? Yes. They tell us it has its home in the fairy village in the shadow of the forest. It is just faintly lighted by glowworms and two sensitive magic flowers grow in it. Smiles come from the spot to kiss the eyelids of children.—Rabindranath Tagore.
