Huerta; Huerta; let me see, seems like we've heard that name before.

Mrs. Bertha McCarty is spending her vacation with her sister, Mrs. Charles Frain, of Henry, Nebraska.

Born to Mrs. Fred Cook an eight pound baby boy, Mrs. Cook is a niece of Mrs. W. E. Smith at whose home she is staying.

The Ladies' church society of the First Presbyterian church meets August 19, with Mrs. W. J. McKinney, Jr., on Brown street.

Word was received Tuesday of the death of Mrs. Holmes Kimball in Stan-foord, Conn. Burial was in Middleport, N. York. Mrs. Kimball was formerly Miss Mary O. Eddy.

To Germany. It'll serve right if you do get a good licking! To France, now's your time to do your kicking. To England; Go to it John and straighten 'em out. To Russia; This is no time to sulk or pout.

The first annual shoot of the Birmingham Gun club will be held August 13, at the club ground, one-half mile east of the village. Following the officers: President, W. H. Story; vice-president, P. H. Schlaack; secretary and treasurer, F. L. Schlaack; field captain, R. S. Fortitt and general manager, Tom Parker.

Services at St. James' church on Sunday will be as follows: 8:30 a. m., Holy Communion; 9:45 a. m., Sunday school and 10:45 a. m., Morning, Anti-Communist and sermon. The parishioners are all very much pleased with the new decorations and they extend a cordial invitation to their friends to come and see the interior of the "little stone church" and to take part in the worship.

Mrs. Elmer Monroe gets very pleasantly surprised on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Merrill street. The affair was a farewell party for the hostess, who leaves the latter part of August to make her home at Ann Arbor. There were 39 ladies present and the time was devoted to 500. Mrs. Home's second ward won first prize; Mrs. I. E. Hale, the 2nd; and Mrs. Montgomery the consolation. Dainty refreshments were served. With these words, "Make us your friends, but don't forget the old," the new arrivals, the old and gold, the Mrs. Dawson, in the behalf of the ladies, presented the surprised hostess with a beautiful hand-painted plate.

That same evening Mrs. J. Schramm of the Family theatre entertained the crowd at a theatre party which was enjoyed and appreciated by all.

Arthur H. Young, of Pontiac, candidate for the office of County treasurer, will have no words of introduction from us to the voters of Bloomfield, Southfield, Royal Oak and Troy. He is a son of his early 40s, born in Southfield town-ship, where, as a boy, he was brought up right, with a big "R" and where he had until he struck out for him- self. We have known him from boy- hood, and can vouch for his ability to work, his honesty, his business ability and his good all round hard common sense. He aspires to be County treasurer, and has the best wishes of nearly every voter in townships name nearly knows him that he's granted his aspirations. Knowing him all his life as we do we can truthfully say, that if nominated and elected, the office of County treasurer, will be filled to the satisfaction of all the patrons of the office, and with honor to Mr. Arthur H. Young.
