Don't Be Bothered with Coughing.

Stop it with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It spreads a soothing, healing coating as it glides down the throat, and tickling, hoarseness, and nervous hacking, are quickly healed. Children love it—tastes good and no opiates. A man in Texas walked 15 miles to a drug store to get a bottle. Best you can buy for croup and bronchial coughs. Try it. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

Garrick Theatre.

The Whirl of the World.

The new Winter Garden show, "The Whirl of the World," with the same company which achieved signal success for five months at the famous playhouse on Broadway and for sixteen weeks at the Cohan Grand Opera House, Chicago, will unfold its beauties at the Garrick Theatre, Detroit, Monday evening next, where a week's engagement has been arranged for. The big spectacle is in two acts and twelve scenes. Since the big spectacle has been sent on tour it has proved to be the biggest sensation of any Winter Garden offering. Leading critics declare it to outrival any similar entertainment of the sort and assert that no more gorgeous extravaganza has ever been placed on any stage. As in other productions from this home of mirth and melody, the girl feature predominates, on the stage, in the aisles, on the runway, in the lobby, dancing, singing, romping, jumping, laughing, tangoing, beauty is ever in evidence until the spectators seem on the verge of joining in the magnificent spectacle.

The song hits and musical ensembles are thirty in number. The biggest scenes show the SS. Vaterland departing from the dock at Hoyre, the burning of a yacht in mid-ocean, the Maxixe Restaurant, the Amber Club, the Century Opera House and the Arabian Night's Ball at Madison Square Garden.

BELIEVE FUR SHEEP MEAN A NEW INDUSTRY.

Great Interest Taken in American Experiment—Lambs Exhibited Here.

Great interest is being taken all over the world in the experiments which F. E. Dawley of Fayetteville, N. Y., is making in raising fur sheep, the rare breed which will be one of the attractions at the Michigan State Fair, Sept. 7-18. For some years Mr. Dawley has been carrying on this work, and his efforts have met with marked success, so much so that those interested in the fur trade believe raising Persian lamb fur will be to the sheep business what the development of the Holstein has been to the cattle industry.

This year a large percentage of the grade Persian lambs which were dropped have had skins of exceptional value for fur. The best lamb had a skin equal to the highest priced imported baby lamb fur, and its dam was a half blood Lincoln ewe, so that the lamb carried only three-fourths of the Persian blood. The pure bred fur sheep are somewhat more nervous than the domestic sheep, but they are vigorous and growthy and make a most valuable cross for meat or early lamb production on all the breeds which do well in America.

Mr. Dawley has experienced difficulty in the importation of these sheep, as the Persians realize the advantage of keeping a monopoly on the lamb fur business. Their exportation now has been stopped. Last year over $14,000,000 worth of Persian lamb fur was imported.

These sheep will be exhibited in one of the buildings on the grounds where they will have a central pen and may be viewed from every side.

OLD SOLDIERS AGAIN TO BE GUESTS OF STATE FAIR.

Tuesday, Sept. 8, Is Day G. A. R. Button Is Admission Badge.

Tuesday, Sept. 8, will be Old Soldiers' day at the Michigan State Fair.

The invitation issued last year by the Fair management to the old soldiers in the state was accepted in such a hearty spirit and the veterans had such a splendid time that they are asked to come again.

In his letter to the old soldiers General Manager Dickinson says:

"The management of the Michigan State Fair, desiring to recognize the old soldiers of Michigan, extends to them an invitation to spend Tuesday, Sept. 8, at the State Fair. It was thought best to set aside a special day for this occasion that we might make every arrangement for your entertainment. The only requirement for admission will be the wearing of the regulation Grand Army button. A special tent will be provided, where the members may get together and talk over reminiscences. We trust that all members who are able to attend will be with us to enjoy a day's recreation and witness the great display of Michigan's agricultural and industrial exhibits."

The Midgley-Golden Wedding.

Wednesday evening September 10th at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Midgley, 29 Prall street, Pontiac, a very pretty weddiog was solemnized, when their daughter, Miss Myrtle, and Mr. Harry Golden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Golden, of this place were united in marriage by Dr. J R. Milligan, of Pontiac.

Promptly at 8 o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, brilliantly executed by Miss Marian Emily Golden, sister of the groom, the bridal party entered the parlor, and after the ceremony, Mr. Mack Newberry sang a few appropriate selections.

The bride was handsomely gowned in pearl crepe de chene, and carried white roses and lillies of the valley, and was attended by her sister, Miss Maude Midgley, who wore a beautiful gown of embroidered voile, and carried Maryland roses.

Little Miss Ruth Cartwright and Master Edward Mitts, niece and nephew of the bride, were ribbon bearers, and little Elma Cartwright, niece of the bride, carried the ring concealed in a basket of flowers.

The home was beautifully decorated in pink and white, also ferns and smilax.

Mrs. Golden is one of Pontiac's popular society young ladies, and Mr. Golden is an expert draughtsman in the Maxwell Auto Co. of Detroit, and has a host of warm friends in his own home town.

After a wedding trip they will be at home to their friends on Brown street Birmingham.
