TELESCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not conquer"

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1914.

Astrologers read in the stars for October, my sinister signs, but they are promises of improved conditions in certain lines of trade.

The planetary government for today is said to be of no importance. Mars and Saturn are strongly benefic in the early hours and later Uranus is mildly helpful.

The rule is held to be an exceedingly lucky one for removals of every sort. Change of residence is subject to the most auspicious guidance.

As the kindly aspect of Uranus is supposed to be identifying to friends, this is a figure favorable for making new acquaintances or for pursuing old romances.

Old persons should benefit while this aspect prevails. There is an influence, it is said, that stimulates and encourages them, imparting buoyancy and confidence.

Prospect of gain for workers in foundries, steel works, smelters and places where implements of great size are manufactured are good.

This should be a fortunate time for judges, lawyers and those who decide questions of paramount importance.

Those who have the prognostication of extreme speculations based on anxiety and confidence. According to the seers the next year will bring great distinction and honor to their magnetic center in the Libra and Venus is their principal ruling planet.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1914. This is rather a favorable day, but business of importance should not be transacted early in the morning.

ful to all who seek what is hidden, whether it be in the material world or in the realms of the occult.

Poets and other writers should benefit, for the sway of the planets is supposed to render active latent emotions for mystery and romance.

Scandals in hospital management are foredoomed by the stars. These will be meted in Great Britain and Germany as a result of the extantions of war, the seers declare.

Children born on this day should be instructed in the art of friendship. They are likely to be good students. Intuition and ambition are usually characteristic of these subjects of Libra.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1914. Astrology reads in the stars today mingled good and evil influences, since Uranus and Jupiter are in benefic aspect and the Sun and Venus adverse.

The influences are not auspicious for visiting or for the usual social entertainments. Friends are likely to be devoid of the pleasant conditions necessary to success, warn the seers.

When Venus is evilly disposed misunderstandings and criticisms are common. Courtship is subject to unfavorable influences. When this rule prevails women are said to be careless concerning the impression that they produce.

Jupiter is in a place that is held as most promising to bankers and brokers, who have the prognostication of extreme speculations based on anxiety and confidence.

New work for the churches again is foredoomed. There is a prophecy that the United States will lead in a world-wide movement.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1914. According to astrology this is not a very fortunate day, for Mars and Neptune are in conjunction and Mars, however, is in a place held to be most fortunate for many important affairs of men.

world, and they declare that this country will face new problems in providing for foreign refugees after the war.

Toward the end of this month a sinister sign menaces New York and renewed anxiety in the financial world is foredoomed. Days of extreme excitement are prognosticated.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the omen of a busy year that may bring numerous accidents. Danger of accident or injury is foretold.

Caution is advised for today. Astrologers find that Mars, Mercury and Uranus are all strongly adverse, while Jupiter alone is friendly.

Although Jupiter usually rules as a planet that offers success and aid to those who use his benefic influences, the evil power of Mars and Mercury makes necessary the most conservative action in all affairs involving money, professional reputation or future success.

Bankers are subject to a rule indicating large opportunity and exacting initiative. They are warned to beware of severe strain in a fortnight, when financial complications will disturb industrial conditions in this country.

October has been designated by London astrologers as a month that will be most profitable for the emperor of Germany, owing to the position of Saturn and Uranus in his horoscope.

Children born on this day may be impetuous, restless and impatient by nature, but they probably will have an easy time in life, because relatives and influential friends will look after them.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1914. This is a most unfortunate day. According to the readings of astrology Saturn rules the day with a power for evil that dominates all other influences.

Changes, removals and journeys are subject to an adverse sway which may lead to accidents, disappointments and broken friendships, but if the seers are right in their interpretations.
