The Alter Motor cars sold by E. A. Parks, are getting quite popular and giving the best of satisfaction. Ask Fred Taylor how he likes his. H. B. Parks also bought one last week, and Mr. Van Atta, of Pontiac, who bought one last year, bought the second one this week.

Mrs. Ida Corey Sabin, of Malden, Ill., is about as busy a lady as you ever see. She has sold her home to her sister, Mrs. Hanna E. Mitchell, and is cleaning up and out on everything on the premises. J. Ren. Bell sells out everything next Tuesday afternoon at auction, beginning at one o'clock sharp. You are invited to attend.

The Firemen's and M. S. T. operators' dancing party given in the Johnson & Shaw Hall, last Friday evening, was indeed a success. Everyone spoke of the fine decorations and the music by Fenzel's orchestra of Detroit. Although a number of both the firemen and operators did not join in the dancing, they said they enjoyed watching their guests enjoy themselves. Forty couples attended.

Messrs. Clarence Conway and Thomas L. Hanna have returned from a month's trip away out West, where they enjoyed the sights at the Panama Exposition—yes, both of them, San Francisco and San Diego, besides a side trip or two. They were gone a month, lacking a day, and enjoyed every minute of the trip. Mr. Conway says the trip can be very nicely done in a month's time and $200 will pay the bill. This does not take in the Grand Canon or Yellowstone Park.

The road, Woodward avenue north of Maple inside the village, is something terrible. We wonder how a self-respecting auto can make the trip and save itself. It must try men's souls and the auto's springs to make the effort, especially after dark.

The program for the recital to be given by Miss Milne at the Baptist church, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, will be as follows: Studio Scene; "Getting Ready for the Rehearsal," six girls; Drill, six girls; Recitation; Vocal Solo, Miss Mildred Burchns; Recitation; Piano Solo, Miss Katherine Burlingame; Pantomime, "Rock of Ages," ten girls.

They promised that they'd vote for me by all things holy and good, and I believed they'd do it, too, because they said they would. I had their names down fine and pat, and when I summed them up, I had the other fellow skinned. I had no doubt of that. I was so sure that I'd win out I treated all the boys and didn't wait for the returns and Monday evening's noise. But when the news began to come I couldn't believe the wires; I soaked my head and went to bed and said, "All men are liars!"

A thing of beauty is a joy forever, but a thing of beauty combined with utility, exercise, benefit, profit, service and advantage makes the article just doubly valuable. This is what every purchaser of the King auto finds to be true. Messrs. Valentine & Smith have good reason to be proud of their sales in the King auto. Besides several sales in Birmingham their sales in Detroit excel their fondest hopes. Their recent sales here were to Wiley Bell and Will Van Every, who each bought an eight cylinder, and Dr. Baldock, Dr. F. G. Crawford and John Lawson each bought a four cylinder car. Besides this local business this busy firm, for the first time since the introduction of the eight cylinder motor into the automobile world will ship an entire train load of these machines next week. An order for the trainload was received Thursday from the King distributers in Chicago. W. L. Daly, sales manager, and F. A. Vollbrecht, treasurer, of the company, who returned to Detroit Thursday from Chicago, report indications of a tremendous business.

Garrick Theatre.

"The White Feather"

"The White Feather," which is at present scoring a sensational success at the Comedy Theatre in New York, will be the attraction at the Garrick theatre, Detroit, all next week, commencing Monday evening, with the usual matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. This stirring melo-dramatic comedy, with the present war as a background, has not a dull moment. There are countless thrills in each of the three acts, with the best thrills held in reserve for the last and there is an ample supply of humor to relieve the tension of these thrilling moments.

The entire action transpires within fifteen hours in a private hotel on the east coast of England during the past summer, at a time when the English troops were in process of transportation to the Continent. A group of clever German spies, using the hotel as their rendezvous, are endeavoring to convey information about the movements of the troops to the German authorities. Two English spies, a man and a woman, uncover their plotting, and in the process of so doing there are as many turns, surprises, thrills and anxious moments as are usually found in half a dozen good plays.

Mr. Brady has engaged an unusually strong acting cast, including Albert Brown, Wyndham Standing, Roy Cochrane, Dierdre Doyle, Grace Hampton, Majorie Murray, Mona Morgan, Louise Maldener, Justine Cutting, Jules Epially, Paget Hunter and others.

OBITUARY

EVA MASTERS HILLIARD

Eva Addelle Masters, daughter of Samuel and Dorcas Masters, was born in Birmingham, February 4, 1861. Her home remained here until at the age of 16 years, the family removed to Pontiac. About a year later they moved again, to Fenton. Near here she taught school for a year. On November 1, 1882, she was united in marriage to Wm. M. Hilliard, at Fenton, where they made their home for the next ten years, later living at St. Johns, Owosso, Flint, and finally returning to Birmingham where their home has since been.

Since ten years of age, Mrs. Hilliard has been connected with the Methodist church, and we believe died in faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. For several years she had been poorly, but the end was greatly hastened by typhoid-pneumonia, which found her unable to overcome its dangerous consequences.

To Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard were born two children, Florence and Samuel, both of whom, with their father, remain to-day bereft.

The funeral was held from the late home Monday afternoon and interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

SAVE THE WAR PICTURES

What kind of a pictorial record of the greatest of all wars are you going to keep for future reference? London Lloyds, the famous insurance agents, are now betting three to one that it will end by December of this year, and already those who like to have records for future reference for themselves and their children are preparing scrap-books of many kinds.

In the issue of Sunday, April 11, were some very interesting views. There was a splendid picture of the French battleship Bouvet, which was sunk during an attack on the Dardanelles forts, and a general view of the ancient city of Smyrna, which has been under bombardment by the allied fleet. There was also a view of the Golden Horn at Constantinople, which, it is predicted will soon be in the hands of the Allies.

In years to come those who keep these pictures now appearing in the Illustrated Section of the Sunday News Tribune will have a most valuable souvenir of the war. Each section contains about 24 pictures in colors, so in the course of a few months a collection of rare value is compiled.
