Harold Cowan spent a few days with David friends this week.
Geo. Benjamin and Mr. Berger, of Orion, were Birmingham church Friday.
Mrs. Raynald Whitehead and children, of Bowling, Ky., are guests of Mrs. Whitehead of Woodward avenue.
George Bush of Southfield, having sold his farm, will dispose of his personal property with the help of M. H. Blunt, on Tuesday, April 27. See advertisement.

The Home-Coming Chauntauqua in August is one of the best things Birmingham has undertaken. Write to your relatives that you are expecting them in August.
Our local laundry will heretofore be known as the Ideal Home Laundry, the name being in part supplied by Mrs. H. E. Briggs and Doc Gray, who will divide the $10 prize offered by E. O. Dana, the proprietor.

There is to be a service in St. James' church Sunday evening at 7:30. There will be special music and the rector will preach. This service is rather exceptional as Mr. Kraft is usually in Rochester on Sunday evenings.
Those who enjoy a good evening's entertainment and a hearty laugh, come to the Baptist church Friday evening, April 30. Von Rodey, the original comedian, has returned and characterized impersonator, will entertain you.

Married, at high noon, on Tuesday, April 20, at the home of Mr. E. T. Mallett, by Rev. G. L. Conley, Mr. Charles H. Mooney and Miss Clara J. Mallory. Only a few intimate friends were present. The happy couple expect to make their home near Cincinnati, Ohio.

Miss Mollie G. Smith dropped in the office lately and notified us she has been appointed to a fine position as matron of a Nurses Home in Burlington, Ia. Her advancement was the result of observations made by a lady who took a motherly interest in Miss Mollie and this fine position is the result.

Dear Sir:—I'm it about time that the non-sensical voting for school and theatre sites cease? Several months ago the voters of this district were given the choice of two good sites—one in the growing section of the village and the other in the extreme south-end adjoining Birmingham's latest school. The district was also asked to approve the issuing of $10,000 worth of bonds to purchase a site.

The legal voters approved the purchase bonds and selected the Woodward avenue site, and the School Board paid $50 to bid the bargain.
Then the "cluster-school" advocate got busy; said the above action was not fair and must be done over again. A site adjacent to the old school was selected at an estimated expense of $25,000, and placed in competition with the site already selected and partly paid for, and both were turned down in disgust.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH NOTES
The services at St. James' church on Sunday, the third after Easter, will be Holy Communion at 6:30 a. m.; Bible school at 9:45, and morning service at 10:45.
There will also be an evening service this week, as Mr. Kraft will not be going to Rochester. The service will be at 7:30. The choir will be in attendance, and good music is assured, and the rector's prayer a helpful sermon will be preached.

At a meeting of Vestry of St. James' parish, Mr. W. H. Cobb was elected senior warden; Mr. T. W. Mincer, junior warden; Mr. Frank Stapp, secretary; and Mr. Lawrence Hebert, treasurer.

There's a Big Difference in Coffee
A traveling salesman offered me a bag of his Coffee. He said it was a brand his firm was closing out. If I hadn't been a good seller my firm was going to put in a new line of coffee, and that I could buy the old brand at several cents less. I told him, "I was afraid if I bought it I would be closing it out some day less than I paid for it. I further stated that I would rather stick to..."

Chase & Sanborn's Coffee
For in the eight years I have sold this line I never had to close out a single pound of it. Instead I have closed out all other brands. In Chase & Sanborn's Coffee you get every cent's worth of value you pay for. We don't have to cut the price to sell it. THE COFFEE IS RIGHT and the PRICE IS RIGHT.
