Don't forget to set out that straw-berry bed this spring. E. A. Starr has the plants for you. Will bear till snow flies.—Adv. 11*

Fred Lambert sold a mow of hay to Henry Collins for a lump sum of $200. Also sold 225 bushels of seed oats at 70c per bushel.

B. B. Eldred resigned Monday evening as member of the Board of Trustees and the Village Board elected Warren D. Clizbe to fill the vacancy.

Work on the new subdivision at the Twelve Mile Road on the Geo. Shilling property has commenced. Streets will be graded, side walks laid and a complete water system installed.

Work on the good roads south of the village is progressing very rapidly. A large force of men are tiling the sides of the road for drainage and are now at Parkers Corners. The Pontiac Light Co. have extended their gas mains north from Royal Oak to the Twelve Mile road.

Mrs. Ida Belle Corey Sabin has returned to her home at Malden, Ill. After nearly two weeks of tearing up, packing up and shipping, she with the help of many faithful friends went through with the work. She has sold the old home to her sister, Mrs. Hannah E. Mitchell, who has rented it to J. C. Young and family.

A church in Santa Rosa, Cal., has the distinction of being built from the timber of one tree, a gigantic redwood that grew in Mendocino county. The pews were also made from the tree. The spire is 100 feet high, the audience chamber seats 400 people, and the parlor 100. A pastor's study, 12 by 20 feet, is also in the building. The church cost $5,000. Only two-thirds of the tree was needed to construct the church. After the roof was finished it was discovered that there were 60,000 shingles left over.

Dr. J. B. Book has purchased a site in Roseland Park cemetery, Woodward avenue and Twelve Mile road, where he will erect a family mausoleum. Dr. Book's lots are near the great public mausoleum in the cemetery and the new building will be in full view of the entrance. The crypts in the beautiful public mausoleum are selling rapidly, more than 600 having been disposed of. The burial lots are also going rapidly. Since the public mausoleum has been finished, it has become quite an attraction for visitors from the city.

Inquiry following a humorous incident shows that nearly 200 girls in various Kansas City high schools have never seen a live hog. It had been related that a high school girl recently went to the country and seeing a pig run across a yard, asked what animal it was. On receiving the information that the scampering beast was a hog, she exclaimed, "Why, it has hair!" This led to an inquiry on the subject and a canvass of all the high school girls in Kansas City showed that some 200 marriageable girls of the second largest livestock market city in the world had never seen a live member of the porcine family.

This is Billy Sunday's style from the pulpit. Goliath, according to Billy Sunday, "was the head cheese and the whole works." "Who's that gunaboo?" asked David. "Then he gave Goliath the once over." Here the evangelist illustrated the effect on the giant by himself falling at full length upon the platform. The language accompanying the regular demonstration was "Beaned! David soaked him in the coco between the lamps and Goliath went to the mat and took the count. David chopped his head off and Goliath's gang beat it." And then he stirred the trail hitters with this appeal: "Say, are you riding a blind baggage or a gobel train? I'll know in a minute whether you are men or mutts. If you're a man you'll fight your way down these aisles to take my hand. Oh, I'll have your number! I'll know who her you've got a coline or dishwater in your veins, whether you're real or a four flusher."

Mrs. Rhoda Lyons, of Daines street, who has been very ill, is able to be about again.

Mrs. Root, of Detroit, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. Arthur Brooks, of Brown street.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lake, of Woodward avenue, entertained Miss Margaret Rogers, of Detroit, Sunday.

Mrs. Emerson Beardslee has returned to her home at Redford, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Renwick McKinney, on Pierce street.

The regular time, from now on, for holding the Sunday evening church service at the Baptist church will be 7:30 instead of 7 o'clock, as heretofore.

The Woman's Literary Club will hold their annual outing May 4, at the home of the Misses Pott. All members are cordially invited to be present. Pot luck supper.

Attention, R. A. M. 93. Regular convocation of Birmingham Chapter No. 93, R. A. m., Monday evening, May 3, 1915. Lou H. Randall, H. P. J. A. Bigelow, Sec'y.

Well, something to be appreciated—a baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kline, April 20. It will be named in honor of their family physician, Geo. P. Raynale.

For rent—Three rooms, in Telephone building. Can be used for offices, or living rooms for housekeeping. Will rent them heated and water for $20 per month. See Mitchell at the Postoffice. tf

This week and perhaps the next, Mr. E. B. Converse will be enjoying himself visiting friends at Owosso. This thriving city was once Mr. Converse's home, as of course he will enjoy every minute while away.

Despite the torn up condition of Woodward avenue, you would have thought that last Sunday was "Auto Day" from the number of machines that caverted through, around and past every minute all the day long.

Dr. E. Mather, of 228 Gratiot avenue, Mt. Clemens, proprietor of one of the many fine bath houses in the Bath City, is doing finely in his business. He has Frank Smith, of Hamilton avenue, under his care and our townsman is showing improvement that is most encouraging to his friends.

W. D. Clizbe made a speech referring to the breeding places of flies and what should be done to correct this evil that caused his appointment on the Village Board. He is down on outhouses, manure piles and garbage. All must be kept covered in darkened places. He hath said it and the Eccentric supports the saying of it.

Miss Tillie Walker is home again from a sad visit at her Fowlerville home. During her absence she buried her mother, and her father is very poorly, too. It was not expected at one time that he would live, but at this writing is some better. Both parents being past 80 years of age, the death of both would not have been surprising.

Gray Ferris, of Elnora, Ind., telegraph operator, played a joke on the village marshal. The marshal locked him up. Ferris' uncle appeared and offered to put up bond or pay a fine. The marshal, it is said, refused and in a quarrel which followed it is stated that he tried to shoot the uncle. A short time afterward a group of citizens appeared, tore down the jail and released young Ferris.

Mr. Harry Barton, conductor on the D. U. R. (Pontiac division), is one of the finest. He never is satisfied with himself until all elderly and feeble men and women have a comfortable seat—also a mother with babe is guaranteed a seat on Barton's car every trip. At Coppbell's Corners a lady boarded his crowded car. At the middle of the aisle a gentleman arose and with hat in hand offered her a seat, and she fainted dead away. Upon being restored to consciouaness she thanked him sweetly, and then——he fainted.

Had you noticed the lengthening out of Euclid avenue? Don't know where this street is, hey? Well, we will tell you. It is the first street right north of Tom Cobb's fine home, and in its new extension it does not stop until it reaches Adams avenue straight away east. Huh? Well, Adams avenue is the town line between Bloomfield avenue and Troy townships. Now can you see it? We think that this street opening shows the growth of Birmingham more than any other one thing that has occurred lately.

Wonder what the fare is to San Diego, Cal.? Neighbor W. C. Harris and family are all out at the Expositions, San Diego and San Francisco, Calif., having a trip that is most enjoyable. Seeing all the sights, the Grand Canon, Yellowstone Park, fishing at Catalina Islands, and doing and seeing all there is to do and see. A souvenir card of a beautiful woman smiling at you from a blanket of roses, labeled "Queen of the Roses," reads in Bre'r Harris' handwrite: "This is the way they look at you out here." "By Heck! When does the next train leave for San Diego?

The Birmingham Choral society plan to present in the near future the light opera, "The Chimes of Normandy," a universal favorite for amateur musica societies the world over. The society furnish an excellent and well balanced chorus and the principals are well chosen. Mr. Albert Dunham will sing the leading baritone role and Miss Elizabeth Trible, of the Detroit Institute of Musical Art, will sing the leading soprano role. Miss Trible has a very lovely voice and has had much experience in this kind of work. She appeared recently with much success in a light opera given in Detroit and has many times proven her ability as an interpreter of light opera. The opera will be given about the last of May. The exact date will appear in next week's issue of the Birmingham Eccentric.

Frank Sherman is remodeling his home on Woodward avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lowe are now settled in their new home on Frank street.

Mrs. Homer LaJoie and daughter Helen have returned from a visit with Mrs. Cassius Davis at Oxford.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Johnston, of Maple avenue, enterthined Dr. and Mrs. D. Towers, of Detroit, over Sunday.

A farewell party was given in honor of Harold Sanford, last Friday evening. He is leaving soon for his new home in Tampa, Fla.

The proceeds of the pedro party given by the Pythian Sisters amounted to $13. All who attended spent an enjoyable evening.

Remember the entertainment at the Baptist church tonight (Friday, April 30). Von Boyle will make you glad that you came. Come!

The M. S. T. girls gave their second theatre party last Friday night at the Lyceum theatre. Four of the girls were winners in the "Good Service" contest.

Did you notice Wm. G. Oleson's new ice wagon? He is new already for the season, and to insure prompt service you should notify him that you want ice, and want it mighty bad if this warm spell continues.

The anniversary services of Birmingham Lodge, No. 547, I. O. O. F., were held last Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church, and were very interesting. Rev. R. M. Traver, of Pontiac, made the principal address.

We have had two very hot days recently. Just as hot as we will have in July or August. Thermometer stood at 84 in the shade nearly all day, and the papers report that 115,000 people visited Belle Isle on Sunday last. It sure was some hot day.

The annual meeting of the Birmingham Memorial Association will be held at the home of John Heth, president, Tuesday evening, May 4, at 7:30 o'clock. All members and any others who may be interested are requested to be present. Mame Daniels, acting secretary pro tem.

Thirty-three years ago when Billie Manser lived in the Majestic and had his boot and shoe shop in the front room he made a pair of sewed boots for Luther Stanley and J. Allen Bigelow. Tuesday, we saw Bigelow and he was wearing those boots, marked "Bigelow." But Stanley was no where in sight and we ask, with Billy Shakespeare, "What boots it?"

While the Village Council is sending out their S. O. S. for a clean-up day, Friday, April 30, it shouldn't forget its own front yards, the village parks, and especially that awful dump in the park on Willitt street. The gasoline stoves, bed springs, old bicycles and other monstrosities should be carted away and the smaller rubbish covered up with dirt. Now altogether for a clean Birmingham.

Miss Marian Emily Golden packed her little Gladstone bag and passed the week end with her chum, Mrs. Lucy Pearl Ward Hendricks, at Silverwood, Mich. That is, she intended to, but reaching one end of the railway platform, she saw the train for Silverwood leaving the other. If the traveling bag hadn't been so heavy she solemnly avers she would have made a run for it and caught it, too.

We understand that petitions are being circulated by "the boys of Birmingham," asking the Village Board to provide some kind of a dressing room at the pond; also that a small dam be put in the creek in the rear of the screw building to make for the smaller boys an old fashioned "swimmin hole." All in favor say aye. It is carried. Please remember, city dads, that you enjoyed these things when you were a boy. "Safety first" for the boys.

Beginning next Saturday, Oakland county will be as dry as a tinder box, but the "wets" have begun proceedings in the Supreme Court at Lansing, that they hope it will go back to "wet" again. The wets contend that if any ballot boxes tampered with are thrown out, all should be, and then the count of those pure and clean may turn it back to wet, because the vote is so close. Having nothing to lose and everything to win, the effort is being made.

One night last week Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bird, riding behind the ponies, going home, all singing, were run into from the rear by an auto driven by Mr. Thos. L. Thurber, who could not see them because Bruce Steel in his auto was approaching from the opposite direction. The spill was great. The ponies ran away, the buggy smashed and all more or less injured. Now all are recovering. Messrs. Steele and J. Bert Peabody rendered first aid to the injured. It could have been worse.

Johnny F. Steele, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Steele, of Bates street, has been a marksman in the Birmingham Log Cabin Gun Club for about a year. He has won high honors at the Pastime Gun Club, of Detroit, by breaking 52 out of a possible 60 birds. He was one of the highest shooters at Rochester, Feb. 14, when the Birmingham Gun Club and the Rochester Gun Club shot against the Pastime Club, of Detroit, for a supper. Young Steele broke 46 out of a possible 50 birds. He was also winner at the shoot held in Birmingham, April 15, when he won a silver spoon given by the Dupont Powder Co. Shooting from a 20 yard range, he broke 23 out of a possible 25 birds. The boy says good shooting is easy. He shoots with the same gun his father uses. He is also a lover of hunting and fishing of all kinds, and is well known throughout the state among the devotees of trap shooting, hunting and fishing.

A two weeks' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. McCutcheon, of Detroit, was brought here for burial in Greenwood cemetery, Monday afternoon last.

Our best congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lowe. Mr. Harry Lowe was recently married to Miss Norah Abbey, of Marlette, Mich. They were married at the home of the bride's parents and are now snugly settled in their own new home on Frank street in dear old Birmingham.

About 20 foreigners (Hunkies) have rented the old home on the corner of Pierce and Martin streets, the house lately occupied by Messrs. Sutherland and Lauer. The coming of the new members of society makes a great stir among the 400 and the strife of those to see who will call first on the new comers is very amusing to those who are not in real society.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Deer and Mrs. Boughner and son drove over to Lansing after nine o'clock last Saturday night and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Will Deer. The night was clear with a fine moon and the trip was made in a little over two hours time. They were finely entertained, saw the sights and Will instructed his father how to administer those "painless shaves" that Will has made so famous at the Capital City.

There's a Big Difference in Coffee

A traveling salesman offered me a bargain in Coffee. He said it was a brand his firm was closing out. It had not been a good seller, his firm was going to put in a new line of Coffee, and that I could buy the old brand at several cents less. I told him I was afraid if I bought it I would be closing it out some day at less than I paid for it, I further stated that I would rather stick to

Chase & Sanborn's Coffee

For in the eight years I have sold this line I never had to close out a single pound of it. Instead I have closed out all other brands.

In Chase & Sanborn's Coffee you get every cent's worth of value you pay for. We don't have to cut the price to sell it. The COFFEE IS RIGHT and the PRICE IS RIGHT.
