SANITARY BAK'RY

The Sanitary Bakery and Grocery Business of Messrs. Bailey & Aldrich Is True To Name.

So much now days claiming "Sanitary" as their key note or trade mark, it is really satisfying to meet a business that keeps up the name and all that it signifies like the bake shop and grocery store of Messrs. Bailey & Aldrich, of Woodward avenue, east side. Not so very long ago, the bakery in Birmingham consisted of a big sheet iron oven over a big stove and baked 20 loaves at a time, and one basket of bread a week came from Detroit. Today the bakery business, just the baking of bread, cakes, cookies and doughnuts, of Messrs. Bailey & Aldrich requires a large room on Maple avenue east, where they have an expert and sanitary bakerman and expensive machinery do all their baking. A bread mixer, run by electricity, costing over $1,000, is here installed. The flour is never touched by human hands. Elevated to the top of the powerful machine it drops into the mixer and so on along until it is wrapped in waxed paper, clean and sanitary. An electric cake mixer also is used. All flour, sugar, milk, etc., is kept in covered metal drums. Everything is nice and clean on the start and delivered to their patrons in the same condition. When this firm began they had their baking business in the rear of their Woodward avenue store, but promptly outgrew it, moved the baking business to its present location and used their Woodward avenue store for their stock of fancy and staple groceries.

Here will be found Mr. Aldrich at all times ready to meet his customers, while Mr. Bailey is superintendent at the bakery. Two to four clerks are required at the salesroom where you can be served promptly, pleasantly and courteously, and satisfaction to the public and more sales is the aim of Messrs. Bailey & Aldrich.

The capacity of the mixer and ovens at their bakery is 2,500 loaves a day. At present they run out 1,500 loaves daily and it is sold. Franklin takes a daily supply.

You are invited by Messrs. Bailey & Aldrich to inspect all lines, their grocery or their bakery. They sell everything in the grocery line, and if it is not right tell them and if it is tell others.

Garrick Theatre.

"Dancing Around"

"Dancing Around," with Al Jolson as the featured individual, will begin a week's engagement at the Garrick theatre, Detroit, next Monday evening. Contrary to custom as concerns Winter Garden spectacles, there will be but two matinees during the Detroit engagement of "Dancing Around."

"Dancing Around" comes to Detroit direct from the Winter Garden, New York, where it enjoyed a run of twenty weeks, something quite remarkable for this theatrical season of bad business the country over. A host of entertainers well known to local theatre goers will assist Mr. Jolson in keeping the speed-ball-fun rolling, for the tempo of the performance is quite amazing with its numerous terpsichorean novelties. To be found among the principals are Melville Ellis, Lucy Weston, Mary Robson, Frank Carter, Kitty Daner, Eileen Molyneux, Ray Bowdin, Fred Leslie, Mae Dealy, Olin Howland, Helen Lee, Harry Wilcox and Harry Wardell. In the matter of feminine loveliness, "Dancing Around" is said to eclipse any previous Winter Garden spectacle. As is well known, these big shows require approximately a hundred girls, all of whom are selected for their beauty of face and form and ability to sing, dance and wear ravishing costumes.

King and Kaiser and Czar; Czar and Kaiser and King.
Blood lust, ambition, power and hate,
These are the harvest they bring.

Millions of loved ones in blood soaked graves,
Millions of treasure beneath the waves,
Pestilence, famine, grim visaged war,
Grisly spectres at every door;
Homeless orphans crying for bread,
Mothers and widows mourning their dead;
Burdens of blood and grief and tears,
Burdens of sorrow for countless years,
Heaven ignoring the world's affairs,
Never an answer to world wide prayers,
Scarce us good Lord! Forget the past,
Send us Thy peace and rest at last.

King and Kaiser and Czar; Czar and Kaiser and King
Blood lust, ambition, power and hate,
This is the harvest they bring.

Famous Connaught Rangers.

The Connaught rangers were originally called the "Devil's Own" because of their rascality, but their superb fighting in the Peninsular war changed the term from one of reproach to one of honor. At Fuentes d'Onoro and at Badajos they fought with amazing fury.

In a State of Doubt.

"Your legal department must be very expensive," "It is," sighed the eminent trust magnate. "Still, I suppose you have to maintain it?" "Well, I don't know. Sometimes I think it would be cheaper to obey the law."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Kerosene Found Effective.

Investigations have been carried on to discover remedies for insects which damage such forest products as telegraph poles, railroad ties and tool handles. With hardwood products liable to attack by the so-called powderpost beetles it has been found that kerosene and linseed oil are effective repellents against these insects.

To Remove Warts.

The cause of warts is unknown; they are most frequently observed on the hands of children. An efficient home treatment for warts is castor oil. Keep the warts continually wet with oil. If the warts are in localities where they are subjected to injury it is better to have them removed by a physician.

Toads.

There is nothing very attractive looking about toads. If you should find one of the homely little fellows hopping about among your flowers and plants do not allow anyone to disturb him, as they are invaluable to farmers and gardeners. They destroy many insects and bugs that would otherwise ruin plants.
