LAUGHTER FROM THE TOMB

John Kernell Tells Funny Story While Waiting for the Call of Death.

The late John Kernell, whose death in a Detroit hospital is one of the pathetic incidents of local mortality history, retained his uncanny sense of humor to the last gasp. Cardinal Mazarin was not more tenacious of his beloved than was John Kernell of the sense of things that enabled him to major indicates to the municipal council certain expenditures that are to be met. For the month of February, when the city is in the midst of its "For disburse pronounced at the grave of the territorial soldier, Jean P. five francs.

"For disburse pronounced at the grave of Lieutenant de la M. of the Infantry, ten francs.
"For disburse pronounced at the grave of Comandant Albert O. of the chasseurs, 25 francs."
From which it may be seen that the price of mortuary eloquence varies with the grade of the soldier whose body is consigned to the grave.—Le Cri de Paris.

Being Kind to Tommy Atkins
"Well, well, being the car tomorrow and take as one of your patients for a drive. And, by the way, I'm sure you might look out some of my hand-kerchiefs that show the last party might not have been wounded at all, so far as anybody in the streets could see."
—London Punch

Creamed Chipped Beef.
Put one tablespoonful butter in the frying pan. When melted, put one-fourth pound chipped beef and fry until well browned, stirring often to keep from scorching. Add one pint milk. When it begins to boil, thicken with one tablespoonful flour dissolved in a little water. This makes the gravy a little brown. Fry it and see if the beef is not better for frying the beef!"

To Dry a Sweater.
Make a hamper of a piece of muslin or linen for any size of sweater. Hang it up in the sun to dry. Draw the hamper out that so the sweater will be dried on the inside. It will be when in shape of a sweater. Dry it in any shape you wish. Pull it out of shape at stretch it.

"Oh, any kind you want. Do you like a minaret show?"
"Minaret show? What dem white men come out wif black stuff on day fairs an' make out day's called? No, indeed. Dem's frauds. Ah! oan' like train!"
"Well—er—a burlesque show?"
"A what?"
"Well—er—something funny."
"What? What dem ordainablen things show desolves in fights? Ah! gues not. Ah! was bring up tonight!"
"What kin ob a theater yo' all like, then?"
"Now Ah'll tell you, man (dropping his duster and coming close to me with ber arms indignantly akimbo): Ah'll tell yo' when Mistah Shakespear bring his plays to town mah parents use to chain me to de fiah."

Price of Mortuary Eloquence.
The municipal accounts of some of our provincial cities contain chapters which should not pass unnoticed. It is a modest little place, a neighbor of the city of Lyons. Each month its welcome death with a quip. It was while waiting for the final hour he told this story:

"I was sitting on the window sill in the corridor of a hotel in Jacksonville, Fla., one morning, when I went to see a friend with 'The Hustler'. A colored chambermaid, with merry mischief in her rolling eyes, saluted me with a hearty 'Good mornin', sah!'"
"Say, Tidy, I called, wouldn't you like to go to the theater tonight?"
"What kin ob a theater yo' all got down dah?"
