

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING AT THE CHURCH

Beautiful Nuptial Event Witnessed at the First Baptist Church on Thanksgiving Evening.

Few as pretty weddings have ever been celebrated in Birmingham as that of Mr. Virgil L. Lubrow and Miss Vella E. Beck at the First Baptist church...

The church had been appropriately and beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bride wore an elegant pearl satin gown and carried white roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride's party went from the church to the home of the bride's parents on Townsend street, where only the immediate family and special friends were entertained.

After a short wedding trip they will return and make their home on Brown street.

The following original poem by T. C. Williams was read by the pastor to the guests at the home of the bride's parents:

TO MISS VELLA BECK AND FIANCÉ ON THE OCCASION OF THEIR MARRIAGE. On this joyous day of celebration...

Deafness Cannot Be Cured. By Local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness...

War Upon Pain. Pain is visitor to every home and usually it comes quite unexpectedly. You are prepared for every emergency...

MEETING HELD MONDAY NIGHT TO DISCUSS NEW FORM OF GOVERNMENT FOR BIRMINGHAM.

About 75 citizens of Birmingham met in the high school room on Monday night to discuss the commission plan of government.

After a few preliminary remarks by Mr. Harris and W. B. Bessel, President Philip Schlack was called to the chair and introduced Mr. A. L. Moore...

The statute framed to carry into effect the constitutional provision makes it mandatory for the common council of any village...

A broader charter with powers not granted under the general statute by a smaller executive and legislative body with direct responsibility.

An expert general manager with ability to present and carry out the plan and discuss the merits of the plan.

Mr. W. D. Cline then gave a detailed description of the present village situation. Mr. John Hanna also spoke on certain phases of the plan.

Mr. Moore answered many questions relating to the details of the commission plan as it is actually being carried out in various cities.

W. S. TRUCK CO. HAS MADE BIG INCREASE IN CAPITAL WITH LARGE DEMAND FOR FOUR WHEEL DRIVE TRUCK.

The W. S. Truck Co. of this village have recently increased their capitalization from $30,000.00 to $50,000.00 and are making preparations to market a 1 1/2 ton capacity four wheel drive double steered truck.

Our readers are no doubt familiar with this truck having seen them in operation on our streets for the past year or more.

The organization as it stands today is managed by J. A. Moore, president, B. B. Smith, secretary, and W. E. Smith, vice-president.

The editor in an interview with Mr. S. O. Williams who has taken over the financing and reorganizing of the W. S. Truck Co.

The company in the past year has had numerous inquiries from Detroit merchants for trucks. In fact the company has prospects throughout the state, also from Ohio and other places.

Therefore in view of these facts, the experiment of the commission plan by their predecessors in the truck field—the board of directors of the W. S. Truck Co. is commended for their patient, conservative attitude with regards to their product.

The Yoke. Charles J. Jelliff's adaptation on "The Yoke" book is the play which the Avenue Players will present in the popular Detroit theater devoted to stock productions during the week, beginning with next Sunday's matinee.
