The Farmington Enterprise is not our local option and in a recent issue says: "The petition posted here against eighty-one names, and the signature has been the object of no little scrutiny since it was posted. One significant fact stands out above all others, and that is that the name of not one Farmington business man has been signed to the petition. Several prominent names, names of men who have been identified with the dry movement in previous years, are found on the petition, but even these are signed by a minority. If the business men of the township had believed that it was to the interest of the county to have local option they would have signed the petition. Not a one of them did. It is for Farmington, first, last and always, to be the business men. They do not favor county option—neither does The Enterprise."

Garrick Theatre.

"A Pair of Sixes"

Probably one of the most important events in the local theatrical season will be the presentation in this vicinity of H. H. Frasse's "A Pair of Sixes," which will be seen at the Garrick theatre, Detroit, all next week, and which New York and Chicago have unanimously declared to be "the funniest farce in the world." The book is by Edward Peple who has controlled almost such successes as "The Prince and the Peasants" and "The Little Red Cab" and "The Little Red Cab" is the chief motive of "A Pair of Sixes" concerns the ingenious scheme of a young woman who, figuratively, shows how a queen of hearts is better than a pair of aces. All of which develops after two young men, partners in business, unable to agree as to their respective importance to the firm, decide to separate—commercially. The lawyer, for the firm is called in and he finds the conditions aggravated to the point where no amicable agreement can be made, so he proposes a hand of show-down poker. The winner shall be known as the master and operate the business for one year, unopposed by the other, who is, however, to be credited with his share of the profits.

Mr. Frasse has cast "A Pair of Sixes" with a cast which is one of the most important will appear such well known artists as Ralph Her, Richie Ling, Mark Smith, Marion Ballow, Ethel Jackson, Louis Bright, Walter Allen, Mary Harper and others.
