The Ford car is built to serve and to save. It is low in first cost, but its greatest economy is in the after-cost of operation. No extravagant upkeep charges—no heavy tire and repair bills—just the satisfying day-after-day ability to go anywhere, over any kind of roads—in any kind of weather—and get back again—less than two cents a mile.

More than seven hundred thousand Ford owners are enjoying Ford service and experiencing the reality of Ford economy.

Buyers will share in profits if we sell at retail 300,000 new Ford cars between August, 1914, and August, 1915.

Runabouts, $440; Touring Car, $490; Town Car, $690; Coupelet, $750; Sedan, $975, f. o. b. Detroit, fully equipped.

On display and sale at Oakland Garage, 128 Woodward Avenue.

The oldest residents, Wm. Randle, last week the members of the Bagged 75, and Mrs. M. Smith, 92, say that the church gave a farewell reception first Masonic lodge was held over Bous- for Miss Lulu Jackson at her home in ford's store and the old house lately Southfield. Miss Jackson will soon torn down was not used as a Masonic leave for Cuba, where she will be temple. Glad these old citizens can a missionary. She is the daughter of tell us the straight goods of old time Mr. and Mrs. Caleb B. Jackson and is a most estimable young lady.

TROY

Phil Durkee visited Detroit Saturday.

John Wesley began carrying 45 mail Thursday.

Mrs. J. A. Biel was entertaining a number of Detroit friends Sunday.

The Cemetery Auxiliary gives an all day celebration in Franklin July 5.

Rev. C. E. Wakefield, of Birmingham, was a caller at the parsonage Friday.

Otto Berger is constructing an up-to-date cement box house. Hayes Levee is the architect.

A number of our boys and girls are earning vacation money by picking cherries for Chas. Berger.

Everyone is busy. Too busy to gossip, or get married, or go visiting, or do anything to make news.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Green and daughter May were calling on old friends in Franklin one day recently.

The morning congregation at the church is increasing, but there is still room for you. And, by the way, where is there a prettier church amid more beautiful surroundings?

You will never find a better dentifrice than Nyal's Nydentia Tooth Paste. It's a cleanser, a preservative, an antiseptic, prevents fermentation, and yet is delightful to use. Let us show you. Cobb & Jennelle.—Adv.

About 40 of the Birmingham M. E. congregation, together with their pastor, Rev. C. E. Wakefield, conducted a prayer and praise service at our church in Sunday evening. There were two Birmingham people to our Franklinton. So it was a Birmingham meeting. Now let us all plan to have a larger number out to greet them next Sunday evening, for they are surely coming here. Make it a Franklin meeting next time. One-hour's service, 8:00 to 9:00, sun time. Everyone enjoy themselves and it was a time of spiritual uplift.—Adv.

R. D. NO. 1

C. Elton has a new porch on the east side of his new house.

Miss Gladys Baldwin, of Manning, N. D., is the guest of Wm. Hunt.

Miss Elizabeth Taylor has been at the point of death for the past three weeks.

Thomas Martin is just shipping strawberries by the bushel from his fruit farm.

H. L. West and daughter Ruth left for the west July 1 for a grand tour to be gone eight or nine months.

Dr. Clyde Cannon and family spent last week with his parents and his many friends around Southfield.

Miss Sadie Purdy is on the gain, after an operation at Harper hospital last week. She had her tonsils removed.

Nyal's Nydentia Tooth Paste is just the thing for you—a delightful antiseptic that cleanses and preserves, whitens, polishes and preserves the enamel. Let us show you this dentifrice. Cobb & Jennelle.—Adv.

White Dr. L. Ballock was driving his car past Joseph McChilant's, a colt was out by the roadside. The colt went to cross the road and was struck by the fender and lamp. The colt went down and as it got up hit a post and broke it. Now the doctor is having his car fixed.

BIG BEAVER

Burt Kies has purchased a new five passenger Maxwell auto.

George Stevens, who has been very ill, is somewhat improved.

Henry Gebhardt spent last Sunday in Ann Arbor with members of the Red Run Golf Club.

E. B. Davis has gone to Chicago, where he was called by the serious illness of his mother.

Miss Margaret Daly is spending six weeks of her vacation with a number of teachers at Amherstburg, Ont.

Mrs. Henry Sullivan has returned to her home in Detroit after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Charles Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dongrow and son, of Rochester, and Mrs. Rosa Smith and daughter, of Detroit, were Sunday visitors with Edw. Dongrow wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Albright and children and Mr. and Mrs. Houghton and children, of Detroit, and Miss Scanlan, of Algoma, were visitors Sunday at the John Scanlan home.

Nyal's Nydentia Tooth Paste is a prophylactic and preservative. It whitens and polishes the enamel, sweetens the breath and prevents fermentation—we are sure you will like Nyal's. Cobb & Jennelle.—Adv.

Marquis Harris, who has just completed his 53th year, passed the eighth grade examination in Detroit and will next fall enter Central high school. He is the grandson of Mrs. Theresa Harris, of this place.

In the absence of Rev. R. J. Chase, owing to the continued severe illness of his father at North Branch, the pulpit here was occupied by Dr. Jackson, who spoke in the interest of Methodist homes for old people.

Mr. and Mrs. John Yipe, of Royal Oak, have purchased the McRoberts farm of 30 acres, one mile and a half mile east of Big Beaver, and expect to make their home there when they get possession in August.

Acid fermentation—decomposition of food particles—should be prevented. Cleanse the teeth with Nyal's Nydentia Tooth Paste. It goes into the crevices of the teeth, dissolves the particles and prevents fermentation. Deciduously antiseptic. Cobb & Jennelle.—Adv.
