

WOMEN CAN HARDLY BELIEVE

How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eldon, Mo. — "I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand up a long time and I could not walk two blocks without increasing every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite, no regular menstruation, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have regular menstruation in any way and highly praise and recommend it. It advertises itself." — Mrs. S. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, irregularities, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it? Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

The HOME BEAUTIFUL

Flowers and Shrubs and Their Care and Cultivation

THE IRIS EASY TO GROW

By G. BESTCHER. Of all plants the most indifferent to all conditions and environments, sells and care, none yields the product that the iris does, and with high culture it is just that much more satisfactory for the added attention.

In all garden operations one should observe natural conditions of growth, as this with added good care will lead to success.

The Germanic type of iris, in many ways, an especially desirable plant. It is most desirable as a garden flower or for cutting, as they keep especially well in the hot sun.

Many people say "Oh, flags, they are so common." However, when they see a collection in good colors they very soon decide differently.

Many growers go to far more trouble than is necessary in making preparations for planting many subjects. For all plants we recommend giving the soil a coat of manure in the fall, the fresher the better.

Apply it at once several inches thick if the soil is very poor, if good give only an inch thickness. When this has set out, it is that the fine particles are taken out.

So the several times between now and spring time, so the elements are well incorporated with the soil.

Spade when the ground is in good shape—if possible, do so before freezing is over, for when agitated so the frost will penetrate it deeply, pulverizing it so it is soft and pliable.

For German iris, plant the roots deeply, but the bulb should be covered very lightly unless planting late in the fall or very early in the spring, when they should be planted about two inches below the soil level. At other times just barely cover them.

When hoeing in the summer it is well not to draw much soil to them as it is liable to rot them at certain times when they are more subject to this decay than others, when deeply covered with soil, and doubly so after they become larger.

All the culture they need is to have the soil kept free from weeds and hoeed very lightly or raked just so the crust is broken and kept loose.

About November 1, before freezing begins, give them a good hoeing and light dressing of manure after the hoeing. Plant or divide at any time.

The Japanese iris requires much different treatment, while very easily handled when their requirements are understood, yet they are somewhat fickle.

The best results are obtained when the soil is very rich, well watered and kept cool at all times.

Never allow weeds to attack any growing in their beds as they cannot resist the encroachments of strong-starting weeds.

Plant them deeply so that the crowns are fully three inches below the soil level. Plant very early in the spring, just when the growth is showing or late in October.

"Water well after doing it. They may be planted at almost any time if the soil is allowed to adhere to the roots and kept well dampened for at least two weeks. In fact, they should never be allowed to become dry.

Give them deep hoeing and good mulching of manure during August or September, and hoe it into the soil thoroughly.

Postville, N.H., June 27.—Drowned on Straits lake, in Commerce township, some time last night while on a fishing trip, the body of Alexander Grant, 48, of Hiram, Maine, was found this morning by the two men who went with him from that village yesterday afternoon.

Grant had gone out at about 11 o'clock after the others had retired. Early this morning as Grant had not returned, they began a search and found his body.

Coroner Farmer brought the body to Postville. Grant was a carpenter. Surviving are his widow and four children.

Jackson.—David A. Wild, aged eighteen, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wild of this city, was drowned when a motor boat in which he was riding on his little pond at Michigan Center struck a sudden snag, tearing a hole in the bottom of the boat. Young Wild was in company with his brother, Daryl, Paul Ostwick and a young woman named Bertha. The accident occurred in the extreme east end of the lake, a comparatively shallow water.

There are a large number of stumps in this part of the lake. Young Wild swam for nearly forty rods and then sank. His brother, Daryl, young Ostwick and the girl clung to stumps until morning, when they were rescued.

Ludington.—Sneak thieves have been reaping a harvest at Hamlin lake cottages and Flory Ridge resort. At Flory hotel blankets and dishes have been taken in company with their hostess. Daryl, young Ostwick and the girl clung to stumps until morning, when they were rescued.

Friendship.—In the hour of distress and misery that had come upon the poor constipation, housewife just it late sort of kennel outside her door for the wandering dogs of the city.

FUN'S FABLES UP TO DATE

This is About the Literary Man Who Insisted on Writing Just What He Wanted to Write.

Once there was a literary man who decided to write for posterity. He refused to be guided by the editors and the public, and he wrote what he thought they ought to want.

According to all the rules of the game he should have starved to death in very short order, but for once, the rules didn't work.

Did the public suddenly wake up to the fact that a genius was in their midst? And did the editors camp at his door clamoring for the product of his pen?

Oh, no, dear reader, nothing like that at all. A rich aunt died and left him half a million dollars, and he kept right on writing stuff that nobody wanted to read.

Whether posterity will read it remains to be seen. As for the moral, well, you've got to guess.—Magazine of Fun.
