SCHOOL NOTES

HIGH SCHOOL

Mid-semester examinations come Thursday and Friday.

A very enjoyable dialog, entitled "Advanced Geography," was given at Freedmen chapel by Caryl Porter and Adelin Barnes.

The High School Reserve team was defeated by Royal Oak last Saturday by a score of 12 to 6. The High School team defeated Pontiac Reserve team at Pontiac last Saturday afternoon by a score of 12 to 0.

The regular monthly meeting of the teachers was held on Wednesday p. m. "Tardiness—Its Cause and Cure" was the topic for discussion.

BARNUM SCHOOL

Mae Bodger is absent from the Seventh grade on account of sickness.

Mrs. Trumbull and Mrs. Paddison were visitors in the Fourth and Sixth grades last week.

Allen Evans was the last one standing in the table-down of the Sixth grade last Friday. Herma Reynolds stood next. In the spell-down Beatrice Brittain stood first and Mildred Kemp second.

A. L. Nique, county truant officer, visited the school last week and served notice on several parents that all children under 16 years of age must be in school every day. Some parents do not realize that the compulsory school law is to be enforced this year and it is to be feared that Mr. Nique will have to call the offenders into the justice court in order that the law is obeyed.

Frank S. Jackson, deputy sheriff in charge of the juvenile work of the probate court, has been looking up a case reported to him for action. It is expected that a hearing will be held in Pontiac next week.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

East Maple Street

Rev. William C. McKnight, Pastor.

Morning service at 10:30.

Sunday school at 12 m.

Evening service at 7:30.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at the regular morning service next Sunday, November 14. There will also be reception of new members. The pastor will speak briefly on the subject, "Following Jesus." At this service the pastor will also commission the men of the congregation who are to go out two and two in the afternoon on the Every Member Canvass. All members of the church are urged to be present; also to remain at home Sunday afternoon until called upon by one of the canvassing teams.

In the evening at 7:30 at a praise service, when it is hoped the new hymn books will be used for the first time, the pastor will speak on "Jesus the King."

A cordial welcome for all.
