HOME

A regular meeting of the Pythian Sisters will be held next Monday evening.

Misses Cora Peabody and Norma Schlaack spent a day at Ann Arbor recently.

The Willing Workers' society of the U. P. church will meet Tuesday afternoon, November 9, at the home of Mrs. Adam Reid.

Miss Helen Shaw passed the week's end at Lansing and took in the big foot ball game and was the happy guest of Miss Dorothy Klein while there.

Mrs. A. D. Brooks and daughter, Miss Ferolin, of Ann Arbor, were back home over Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. West, of 119 Brown street.

The Pythian Sisters will hold a bazaar in Castle Hall in the afternoon of November 11. A hot supper will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock. Price, 25c and 15c.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pidd and Mrs. F. G. Doherty and children have returned to their home in Decker, after spending a week with Mrs. Wm. Campbell and family.

The county convention of the Oakland County W. C. T. U. will be held in Birmingham November 11 and 12, beginning in the morning of November 11 at the Baptist church. Mrs. Calkins, state president, will give the address Thursday evening.—Mrs. Van Auken.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Beckner, Southfield avenue, Friday, November 5, at 2:30 p. m. The business session will be followed by a social and refreshments will be served. A most cordial invitation is extended to all the ladies of the congregation.

Mrs. Rachel Eby and friend, Miss Anna Ducharme, visited with the Mitchelleses Saturday last, after a trip to Pontiac. They came back in the Lyon auto from Pontiac, and made the trip with all the detours and bad roads, 14 miles in eight minutes. Lyon without a blink to show a hint of lyin' can show you his watch and cyclometer.

Mrs. Polly Masters, of Sharon Center, Ohio, is back among her old time friends and having a royal old-fashioned visit. She attended the Eastern Star meet with her old friends and since then has been enjoying herself right along every day since. She still has a good feeling for old Birmingham even if she is all "tore up." She will be here for a few days more and then back to the Buckeye state for her.

Mrs. George A. Peabody, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the welcome guest of Mrs. Ellen Peabody, of Ferndale avenue. Mrs. Peabody was here on a visit some few years ago and notes our fine growth. Understanding the upset conditions of our principal streets she still solemnly avers that if she ever leaves the Empire state it will be only for Birmingham, the pride of old Oakland. She only voices the opinion of every level minded visitor in our pretty little city. Just wait until next summer, with the street work finished, and the great work going on around Birmingham Lake, with its spacious drives and fine homes being built all over the west end, then you will believe the good lady's opinion was very good indeed, but still too conservative.

Are they going to farming? No, indeed! But they now own the best farm on the road out Franklin way. Who does? Dr. P. D. Hilly and Dr Fred G. Crawford. They have just bought Frank W. German's fine farm of 80 acres and paid for it the neat sum of $22,000.00. Can it be possible that these young men can make money on this deal? You watch them. Some people are so pessimistic, that they now aver that the top price is reached on land in this vicinity. Believe us. It has not yet started up. There is more money to be made right now, by those buying now, than the folks make who bought the property 20 years ago. See if we are not correct. This applies to every bit of real estate inside of five miles from Birmingham. All caused by the trolley road and the new concrete highway.

Norman Burnett, of Milwaukee, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer LaJoie and daughter have returned from a few days' visit in Saginaw.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hayes have returned from Imlay City where they visited their son, Dr. Howard Hayes.

See advertisement elsewhere of auction at Stonycraft Farm on Tuesday, November 16. H. G. Kelly is master of ceremonies.

F. R. Chapin, our popular telephone manager, has returned from a two weeks' vacation, during which time he had a royal change of life. He put in his time mostly with a gun and bagged a great number of partridge and quail. He is already for the winter's campaign.

If you don't drop a line to Mr. Luscomb pretty soon and ask him about that barn he has for sale, someone is going to get the start of you and get it so cheap that you will everlastingly hate yourself for not getting it yourself. Now is the time. You will get a bargain if you write or call him by phone at once. Delays are dangerous.

Down in Troy there is great goings on at the home of Frank Tyrrell. Samuel Herbison has the overhauling in charge, and when Samuel starts anything he finishes it and finishes it good and plenty. Additions to the home and a thorough remodelling of all the home. Electric lights will be installed and all modern improvements put in commission.

The south end of the mile and one-third of cement road on Woodward avenue just south of Pontiac has been opened, it having been completed within the specified time. The direct route to Detroit can now be taken, with a slight detour, one block east on Jessie street south, and back to Woodward avenue and the Pontiac Nursery company's property, then along the gravel road on the east of the D. U. R. tracks, through Bloomfield Highlands to the cement road on Woodward avenue.

On Friday evening, October 29, about 120 of the friends of Rev. G. L. Conley gathered at the Baptist church to encourage and cheer him, their pastor, in his work. The reception was most cordial and pleasant. A short entertainment was furnished by local talent. Then a purse of gold was presented to Pastor Conley, Rev. Wakefield making the presentation. Light refreshments were served. Among the addresses a poem written for the occasion by T. C. Williams deserves special mention. It will be published in an early issue of the Eccentric.

One day last week a friend came running into the postoffice and excitedly said to Mitchell, "Say, did you know that two-thirds of the Democratic party was sick?" "No," was the reply. "How long has Ed been sick?" Well, Mitchell went over to see the sick man and found that Ed. Lamb was a very sick man. He was better then, and on the high road to recovery. Sunday he had company, and enjoyed them, but the following day had a relapse, but Dr. C. M. Raynsle started him along the right road to recovery again, and from now on, Bre'r Lamb will observe all rules to a quick return to health.

The D. U. R. has a big gang of men at work on Woodward avenue and all movements show that they are doing all in their power to finish up their part of the work before winter sets in. If this good weather stays with us four weeks longer they will do it, too. They are striving their best. The Andrews Asphalt Co. are here and doing their best to get through. Woodward avenue looks as if we expected an attack from the Teutons any moment and are already to duck into our trenches for safety. There is one thing about it, none of us will have to go through with it again, and we will all give a sigh of relief when it's finished and all the men, mixers, horses and working men are gone.

The board of county road commissioners has issued a call for bids for the construction of 4.163 miles of concrete road on Woodward avenue between Pontiac and Birmingham. The official notice provides that bids shall be in before 10 a. m. Tuesday, November 9, that work shall be commenced immediately upon the awarding of the contract and that the work must be completed by July 1, 1916. In recognition of the intention of the board of supervisors and the road commissioners to fulfill the agreement made with the donors of the $16,000 fund to aid the county in the construction of this concrete road, O. J. Beaudette, treasurer, and E. P. Waldron chairman, of the committee, have guaranteed the payment of $3,400 per mile as fast as the work is finished and accepted by the state highway engineer, stipulating that the entire contract shall be completed by July 1 of next year.

Hallowe'en jokes on Hallowe'en are cheerfully stood by nearly all those imposed upon and it is looked upon as a vent to uprising spirits. Years ago we suppose we did about the average cut-ups that are now in practice. We are sure that we never did anyone injury or loss to property, or did anything that might injure anyone or put their life or limb in any danger, but there are some in our midst that are not so careful. And on Friday night before pranks are expected to be ripe, some boys pulled the steps in front of Miss Mary E. Utter's about three feet away from the house. Fortunately no one was hurt, for a neighbor's girl seeing the condition alarmed Miss Utter and the folks inside. Had any of the party left the house unaware of the act, they surely would have been badly jarred and maybe hurt in the three foot fall that they would have sustained. Fun is fun, but such acts as this is downright meanness and dangerous and should never be practiced.

Picking strawberries in September may be some stunt, but the Eccentric Printer capped the climax by garnering the last of his blackberry and strawberry crop on October 31. Next.

Mrs. Retta Barr is back from the Woman's Federation meeting at Lansing. During her absence she visited several libraries and got lots of ideas for our own.

Deputy Sheriff Mack Hunt arrested two men Saturday afternoon on charges of violating the motor speed laws. Thomas Bush, of Pontiac, is accused of driving at the rate of 40 miles an hour on Woodward avenue in Royal Oak township and G. W. Phillips, of 146 Ferry avenue, Detroit, of driving 45 miles an hour on the same road.

Articles of association have been filed with the county clerk by the Birmingham Milling company. The object of the company is to conduct a general milling business in Birmingham. The capital stock is placed at $5,000 and half that sum has been subscribed. The stockholders are William E. Smith, 100 shares; Thomas D. Roy, 100 shares; and Nancy Hayes Roy, 50 shares. All are of Birmingham.

Stephen S. Tucker, for many years janitor of the Baldwin school, Pontiac, died Monday morning at 7 o'clock at his home, 136 East Huron street, Pontiac, after a lingering illness caused by kidney trouble. He had been in ill-health for some time, but had been confined to his bed for but a short period. Surviving are his widow and three daughters: Miss Lessie and Mrs. Roland Muirhead, of Detroit, and Mrs. John Morrison, of Ann Arbor. Mrs. Mary E. Talbot, of Pontiac, is a sister. Mr. Tucker was 68 years of age and had spent most of his life in Pontiac. He was a harnessmaker by occupation and worked at his trade for many years. Fraternally he was a member of the Foresters and Woodmen. Funeral services were held from the home Wednesday afternoon, Rev. R. M. Traver officiating. Interment in Oak Hill cemetery. Forty years ago Steve Tucker led the first brass band in Birmingham for years. It was a prominent organization. The members of his band as we can remember them were Mark Fitzpatrick, Geo. E. Daines, Frank Allen, George J. Beach, McAllister Randall, T. M. Crosby, and we nearly forgot them, James B. Hunt and Geo. H. Mitchell.
