ALL OVER

Hallowe'en party at Wooster's, in Clawson, last Saturday night.

A magnificent collie dog for handling cattle has Mr. Davey, of Troy.

Mrs. Frank Sayres, of Durand, was a guest at Francis Proole's recently.

Two young ladies from Detroit visited at the home of Mrs. Wm. A. Bristol, of Southfield, although in poor health, is still around the house.

Walter Carpenter, of Council Corners, is drawing stone for the cellar of his house there.

Clarence Peterson and Harry Peel, both from Roscomon, are working for Ed Davis, of Troy.

Freeland Harrison, the son of Robt. Harrison, is working in Detroit and recently visited his uncle, Will Harrison, of Troy.

Will Lakin is building a bridge near Harry Wattle's on the Niles road. The end of the Rochester road as it is often called.

Mrs. Frank Sayres, of Durand, and her sister Blanche, from Edwin Starr's neighborhood, were recent guests at Will Harrison's, in Troy.

Wanting to buy a gentle and true horse in all kinds of work and a good stout harness and wagon, see quickly W. H. Codner before this business is gone and done with.

When two mortals are solely bent together with noble minds in all their actions, then they have met in the circle of pure home, sweet home, the greatest of all joys and comforts on this earth.—Codner.

Will Perkins, of Council Corners, sold lately 10 acres of his land along the Niles road to a Detroit party at $500 per acre. He received $300 to bind the sale and $1,500 more when the deed is given and Mr. Perkins holds a mortgage of $4,000 for the balance with interest.

Figure all you can on the Niles road to hold the railroad and strive to assist the company to build another track clear through, for it means a big jump upon the price of your property and providing the railroad is removed it means a big lowering on the price of your property.

Sherman Williams, an old resident of Royal Oak township, in his 91st year is able to go from his daughter's, Mrs. Frank Leach, in the village of Royal Oak where he lives, to his son's, Jay Williams, one and one-half miles direct west of Birmingham, to visit back and forth at times.

How's This? We offer $100.00 reward for any case of catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCIAL, Toledo, Ohio.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.—Advertisement.

Southfieldburg Garner Miller has a Maxwell auto. Alex. Purdy is gaining as well as could be expected.

Ruth Stephens is spending a couple of weeks with relatives in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Chissas have moved to the Chas. Simmons house.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson spent last week with relatives at Vassar and various other places.

A large crowd was in attendance at the social at the U. P. church. Eleven dollars was cleared.

The Gleasers will hold their annual bazaar on Wednesday, November 10. All are invited to attend.

A number from here attended the Sunday school convocation at Pontiac last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Palmer and daughters, Olive and Orla, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hughes.

The annual bazaar of the Ladies' Missionary Society will be held at the church on December 3. All are invited to attend.

A large crowd attended the entertainment given by the Berg school children at the Town Hall last Saturday evening.

R. D. NO. 1 Geo. Code and family have moved from their old farm to Birmingham.

The Banner League Society will meet at Miss Catherine Stickney's, home November 12. Everybody is present and have a good visit and do business.

Mrs. A. Jamison, of Southfield, has taken Mrs. Ann Duffy to take care of her her life time.

The Southfield Gleasers will hold their annual bazaar and regular meeting at the Town Hall November 10. A good dinner will be served. Come one, come all.

And make a note of this. Proc. Owen was really on the winning side for once.

BIG BEAVER

Mrs. Mary Schram, who recently sold her farm, moved to Detroit last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Richards, of Royal Oak, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse King Sunday.

Mr. Reynolds, of Council Corners, has purchased the late Silas James property here for a home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bowers and daughter and a number of other relatives were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Bowers.

The Scott Smith home here at the Berg Corners was sold last week and is reported a grocery store will be opened by the purchaser.

July Harris came from Mt. Clemens Sunday to spend the day with his mother and sisters, Mrs. C. M. Harris and Misses Rhoda and Robbie Harris.

Mrs. Charles Harris while visiting last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris, received the very distressing news that her residence at Cheesing had burned to the ground.

Charles L. Thompson, who spent the last four years with Mr. and Mrs. James Daly, has been given a nice position with the Studebaker Co. in Detroit with a substantial pay check attached.

The annual election of officers for the Ladies' Aid society for the coming year was held last week Wednesday at the church here. The following ladies were elected: President, Mrs. Emma Halsay, vice president, Mrs. Ferns; treasurer, Mrs. A. A. Gibbs; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Halsay.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season took place Friday night at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Dean, under the form of a Hallowe'en masquerade. Many of the season's pranks were enjoyed until about 10:30 when a delicious uncheon, consisting largely of New England dainties, was served. About 40 people were present and voiced one sentiment that Mr. and Mrs. Dean were splendid entertainers.

Our Big Beaver boys were wide awake and very busy until the usual small hours Sunday morning last and many had various were the decorations which adorned the business places and many of the homes here. Only those who owned dogs were forgotten.

Halleys, vice president, Mrs. Ferns; chief was close at hand. The strength and ambition of our boys are largely in evidence since our last Hallowe'en.

Cured Boy of Croup. Nothing frightens a mother more than the loud hoarse cough of croup. Labored breathing, strangling, choking and gasping for breath demand instant action. Mrs. T. Neurer, Eau Claire, Wisconsin, says: "Foley's Honey and Syrup cured my boy of croup and other coughs and colds. Sold everywhere.—Adv."

TROY Clarence Russell is still quite ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Belle Jennings is now assistant postmistress.

The W. F. M. society met Thursday with Mrs. G. S. Elliott.

Wm. Lakin, Jr., and sister Julia were callers in Troy Sunday.

Miss R. Niles was visiting in Birmingham and Pontiac this week.

The farm of the late Silas B. Wattle's has been rented to Fred Gropp.

Mrs. Alle Brooks was a guest of her niece, Mrs. Ida Norton, October 30.

John Lovell has been confined to his bed last week with rheumatism.

Harry B. Wattle's is having a garage built. C. Sullivan is doing the cement work.

Mrs. Frank Leonard and infant son Sunday at Highland Park with her parents.

Silas Wattle's and wife will move to Highland Park this month after his sale of farm effects, etc.

Mrs. Fanny Strickland was a guest of Mrs. Maude Smith October 29 and attended the supper and sale.

School was closed Thursday and Friday and the teacher, Miss Hazel Boise, attended the institute at Saginaw.

The Epworth League business meeting and social hour was held at the Cutting home with the Misses Agnes and Maria Parker.

The Leaguers tied off a quilt after the business meeting Wednesday evening. It and other articles will be for a needy family near Troy.

Miss Maria Parker took up the dahlias she had planted by the store, November 1. Bushels and bushels of blossoms has she gathered from them.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Phillips saw the play, "My Lost Sister," at the Lyceum theatre Saturday night and remained over Sunday with relatives in Detroit.

The bloom that is felt in many a home and heart in this vicinity over the manner in which the Stoltz family, of Troy, met their death at a user Sunday, October 24, is too horrible to relate. Sympathy is extended to Herman Engle and the sole survivor of the Stoltz family, a daughter.

This paper's slipper and sale of useful and fancy articles given by the Troy Ladies' Aid was a success. The large dining room had five tables, eight at a table. Black cats and yellow decorations were in evidence. Articles on sale were in the class room. Vocal and instrumental music and cheery conversations were enjoyed by those present. Proceeds $20, which will apply to the painting and repairing of the church.

Made Over Again. Mrs. Jennie Miner, Davidsen, Indiana, writes: "I can truthfully say Foley's Cathartic Tablets are the best I ever took. They are so mild in action, yet so regular. They banish constipation, induce a pleasant, steady headache. Sold everywhere.—Adv."
