HOME

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Hunt, a son.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Snook, November 11, a son.

Mrs. A. Childs, of Lansing, was a recent guest of of Mrs. Sarah Aldrich.

Don't forget the "Story Lady" at the Public Library, Saturday, November 20, at 3 p. m.

Mrs. C. J. Aldrich, of Cleveland, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Albert Blixburg, of Daines street.

Mrs. Caleb Jackson, of Southfield, expects to leave soon for La Mayo Cubs, to spend the winter with her daughter, Miss Lula Jackson.

The ladies of the U. P. church will hold a bazaar and food sale in the Birmingham Hardware store Friday and Saturday, November 19 and 20.

Last evening "Did" Hutton, Birmingham's favorite tenor, sang several selections of popular songs at our Temple theatre to a thoroughly pleased audience.

If you pay a dollar for the Eccentric and your date is not set ahead one year on the next issue, then you should yell right out in meetin'. Don't wait years, for then we can't remember back that far.

Mrs. Jennie Ferguson, of the Town Line, passed several days very pleasantly recently at the home of Mrs. Larcy Ward Hendricks, near Clifford, Mich. It's hard to say who of all enjoyed the visit must.

"The Great Operas" is a beautiful set of books that has attracted much attention at the Public Library this year. We dare not say how much they cost. They were given to the library and are well worth anyone's looking at.

The marriage of Miss Ethel M. Eveland, of Pontiac, and H. Leslie Gray, of Birmingham, took place at the Presbyterian manse in Pontiac, Thursday evening last, Rev. J. R. J. Milligan performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Gray will be at home in the Earle Terrace, Maple avenue, after December 10.

The young people from Mary Palmer church will give a "Mock Trial," full of fun, in the League room of the Methodist church tonight. They are to repay them by filling their Thanksgiving baskets for the poor. Everyone is urged to come and to bring some one or more things useful for a Thanksgiving dinner. Commences at 7:30.

Every man in Birmingham, business man, laborer, professional man, capitalist, or mechanic, not already associated with a church, is wanted by the men of the "Men's Bible Class" to meet with them Sunday at noon, in the parlor of the Methodist church. The discussions are open and free. No one is called out to answer questions. The Bible is the hand-book studied.

None of the five pastors of the Birmingham churches will preach in his own pulpit next Sunday morning. An exchange will take place which will bring a new voice to every pulpit. No announcement will be made beforehand as to which man will speak in a given church, nor will any of the preachers themselves know until just before the hour of service to which church he is assigned for the morning.

The annual county convention of the W. C. T. U. was held in the First Baptist church of this place, Thursday and Friday last. Many noted speakers of the state and county were present and gave interesting addresses to large audiences. At the last session held Friday afternoon, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Myrta E. Lockwood, re-elected, of Holly; vice president, Mrs. Charles Shattuck; secretary, Mrs. Mabel E. Gardner, of Royal Oak; treasurer, Mrs. O. S. Griswold, of South Lyon. Resolutions of thanks for the hospitality of the Birmingham people who entertained the delegates and members of the W. C. T. U. during the two-day session at Birmingham were extended by the president, Mrs. Lockwood.

Harry Lowe has moved into his new home on Purdy street.

Mrs. J. Wood, of Fowlerville, is the guest of her daughter, Miss Irma Wood.

Mrs. Nellie Wriggleworth, of Linden, is the guest of Mrs. Walter Nichols, of Pierce street.

Regular meeting of Birmingham Chapter No. 220, O. E. S., Wednesday evening, November 24.

All grocery stores, meat markets and drug stores will close at 10 o'clock, eastern time, Thanksgiving day.

Mr. Carghill Young is visible in our midst. We are glad to have him back again in the little old town—Birmingham.

Did you know that there is a state law that prohibits marking or mutilating any book, pamphlet or magazine belonging to any public library? Well there is.

B. F. Cobb, of Clifford county, is in this vicinity at work at his profession, tuning pianos. He is a very busy man and has many patrons in this part of the world.

The Eccentric force will be thankful next week and in order to duly observe the occasion, local items and changes of advertisements must be handed in one day earlier than usual.

Have your overcoat made from your selection of woolens to suit your purpose. The kind of collar you want, the length you want and the fit you need. See Chas. Peck.—Adv.

John S. Bahm will on sell on the Morris Murray Farm, one and one half miles west of Royal Oak, Tuesday next, November 23, a nice lot of stock and tools. M. H. Blunt, auctioneer.

The ladies of the United Presbyterian church will have a bazaar Friday afternoon and Saturday, November 19 and 20, also a food sale Saturday p. m. at the Birmingham Hardware store.

Horses, cattle and farm stock is the menu of a sale M. H. Blunt will conduct for Lawrence E. Schnell tomorrow, Saturday, November 20, on the Ten-mile Road, two miles east of Royal Oak.

The Birmingham W. C. T. U. wish to thank the teachers and scholars, churches and societies and all who in anyway helped to make the county convention the success it was. We are thankful. Mrs. Van Auken, Local President.

Henry F. Nank has bought out Allie T. Lowe's interest in the H. G. Spencer & Co's. general store. Mr. Nank will get right in the game from now on, and will be pleased to meet all his old friends and the new ones cannot come in too fast.

The Eccentric Printer has definitely closed the strawberry season with one ripe berry grown in the open and picked November 15, and this was followed by a blanket of snow the day following. The claim of Mr. Starr is thus made good—berries till snow flies.

In behalf of the Oakland County W. C. T. U. and our local Union, we wish to express our thanks to the trustees and also to the ladies of the Baptist church for the kindness shown us during the convention held in the church. Meals fine and on time. Mrs. Van Auken.

The Andrews Asphalt Co. are doing everything in their power to finish their paving contract before leaving. They have a large gang of busy men and work rapidly. It is hoped by the optomistic that the entire work, including the D. U. R. work, will be perfectly finished before winter sets in in earnest.

Edward D. Treadlecock and Frank L. Converse have started suit against Mr. and Mrs. William Perkins, of Troy, for $25 which it is alleged Perkins owes them as part payment for stock purchased from them. Perkins claims the stock is not what it was represented to be. The case will be heard before Judge Campbell Saturday.

The Woman's Literary Club will meet with Mrs. R. J. Taylor, Southfield avenue, Tuesday, November 23. The World's Work department has charge of the program with Mrs. Gertrude Brown leader. Mrs. J. N. Lewis, president of the King's Daughters of Michigan, will give an address. Members may bring a friend.

We always believed Fred Mallender and his strawberry stories, but Wednesday he just proved up good and plenty. He brought us a fine nice box brim full of large, red, ripe, luscious strawberries picked from his vines November 15. Good enough for the president, to say nothing of "ye editairs" who think apples quite a treat. That Fred Mallender is a regular Burbank in the berry line.

Mrs. Lucy Ward Hendricks, way up north, now, this is the way the tale comes to us, has a Plymouth Rock biddy whose eggs are the pride of the county, being absolutely perfect in color, size and symmetry. One day Hugh put 14 turtle eggs under this popular biddy and when Mrs. L. W. H. made her discovery, the setters rang for hours and the grey-barred beauty was disgraced forever.

On Saturday last, Mr. Klingensmith, on the Lone Pine Road, purchased from Mr. J. W. Patchett the remaining 50 acres of his farm, with the buildings for a price reported at around $12,000 and at the same time bought from Otto Kurth, on the westerly side of the Cranbrook Road, 11 acres with buildings at a price said to be between $11,000 and $15,000. And yet, there are pessimist persons hereabouts who have been and still are shouting that the top prices for Birmingham property have been reached. Well, they have been singing that song for lo, these many years, and will no doubt persist in looking at the hole and ignoring the doughnut.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lowe spent Sunday at Stony Creek.

Mrs. Stephen Baldwin, of Newark, N. J., is the guest of relatives here.

Noah Lee, of Chicago, was a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. A. W. Campbell.

Tunis Miner has purchased 80 acres of land in Southfield township from Ward Parks.

Mrs. Camelia Chipchase, of Warren, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Austin Parks.

Don't forget the Eastern Star bazaar December 1. Come and buy your Christmas gifts.

William Storey has sold his share in the cement block business here to his partner, Bert Tuxworth.

Mrs. Wm. Bruce has returned from Pittsburgh, where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Leet.

The Philathea class of the Baptist church gave a shower Thursday evening, at the home of Miss Ruth Conley, for Miss Vella Buck, who is to be married next week.

A set of books on "Concrete" work, donated by the Portland Cement Co., may be found at the public library. They tell how to make anything from a house to a bridge or silo.

Owing to unexpected delay in repairs to the church, the United Presbyterian congregation cannot participate in the exchange of pastors next Sunday morning. Wilson Reid, pastor.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kurth, of Bloomfield Hills, was the scene, Wednesday afternoon, November 10, of a wedding when their daughter, Anna Marie, was united in marriage to Ralph Briscoe. The bridal party assisted of the Misses Emma and, Minna Kurth, sisters of the bride, Harry Briscoe and Henry Milldebrandt. At three o'clock to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the party took their places under a wedding bell, and the marriage service was read by Rev. F. Koleh, of Grace Lutheran church, Detroit. The ceremony was witnessed by the immediate relatives and friends. After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Briscoe will be at home to their friends at 11 Leonard street, Detroit.

It is a pity that we couldn't have had Mr. Chas. Cowan, who was a Birmingham farmer for nearly a year, stay with us. He went to Pontiac and this is what the Pontiac paper says of our former citizen: "The Magic Wax Shoe Polish Co. of Pontiac is one of seven in the United States engaged in its line, and has a large field. The organization for selling has only recently been perfected and has been getting considerable business. The officers of the concern are: Charles Cowan, president and treasurer; H. R. Penhale, vice president and treasurer; W. G. Figg, factory manager. Mr. Figg has been engaged in this line of work in England, where he learned his trade. A new feature of the enterprise here is the packing of wax in cartons, a practice not generally followed. Contracts have been recently closed with a wholesale jobber in Chicago who has 40 men who will push the products of the local plant on the road. No selling organization has been used until 10 days ago, the entire business being obtained by letter campaigns."

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default having been made in the payment of the principal and interest due on a certain mortgage made and executed by John Huemiller and Lena Huemiller, his wife, as mortgagors, of the city of Pontiac, Oakland county, Michigan, to Henry Harnack, of the same place, as mortgagee, which said mortgage was so made and executed on the 7th day of May, 1912, and recorded in Liber 194 of Mortgages, on page 131, in the office of the Register of Deeds for Oakland county, Michigan; and whereas the whole amount now claimed to be due and unpaid on said mortgage for principal, interest and taxes, at the date hereof is the sum of Six Hundred Twenty-three and ten one-hundredths dollars ($23.10) and an attorney fee of fifteen dollars, as provided by law and in said mortgage, and no suit at law or in equity or other proceeding having been instituted to recover the same, now, therefore, notice is hereby given that on Saturday, the 20th day of November, 1915, at one o'clock in the afternoon of said day, the lands described in said mortgage will be sold to satisfy the amount due thereon and costs and expenses of foreclosure, at the east or main entrance to the court house in the city of Pontiac, Oakland county, Michigan, at public auction to the highest bidder. The said lands and premises so to be sold are described in said mortgage as follows: "All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the city of Pontiac, Oakland county, Michigan, described as 'Part of lot number 235 of the Perry Farm Addition, commencing on the north line of said lot 230 feet east of the northwest corner thereof; thence east on said north line 40 feet; thence south parallel with the east and west lines of said lot 150 feet to the east and west center line of said lot; thence west on said center line 40 feet; thence north to the place of beginning." Dated August 14, 1915.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default having been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage executed by Walter G. Marsh, Dec. 10, 1913, wife being M. Marsh, of Pontiac, Mich., to Seth A. Smith, of Pontiac, Mich., and R. Soper, of the same place, which said mortgage was recorded in the office of Register of Deeds of Oakland County, Michigan, in Liber 191 of Mortgages, on Pages 238 on the 10th day of December, A. D., 1914 at nine o'clock in the forenoon of said day. Said assignment was recorded on the 21st day of August, 1915, in the office of Register of Deeds, Oakland County, Michigan, in Liber 203, on Page 246. Said mortgage is now held and owned by said Daniel L. Davis, and whereas, by the terms of said mortgage if the principal or interest is not paid within thirty (30) days after maturity, the whole sum of principal and interest becomes due and payable, and the said thirty days and more having elapsed, and the interest due not having been paid, the whole sum is now due and payable by the terms of said mortgage. And Whereas, the whole amount claimed to be due and unpaid on said mortgage at the date of this notice is the sum of $143 of principal and interest, and a further sum of $80 as attorney's fee stipulated for in said mortgage and provided in the statutes of the State of Michigan, and no suit or proceeding having been instituted at law or equity to recover said debt now remaining secured by said mortgage has become operative, now therefore notice is hereby given by virtue of said power of sale and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the premises therein described at Public Auction to the highest bidder, at the front door of the Court House on Saginaw street, in the City of Pontiac, in said Oakland County, on the 1st day of December, A. D. 1915, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, which said premises are described in said mortgage as follows, to-wit: All that certain piece or parcel of land situated in the first ward, City of Pontiac, County of Oakland, State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit: Commencing 130 feet west of the southwest corner of Gaukler's land on the north side of Hibbard Court, running thence on north line of Hibbard Court 10 Clinton river; thence northeasterly on the line of the river to a place opposite the starting point, thence south parallel with Bagley street to place of beginning.

Dated August 23rd, 1915.
