Mr. and Mrs. Curtis White spent Sunday in Detroit.

Round oak dining room table as good as new for sale cheap. Mrs. T. W. Miner.—Adv.

Mrs. A. Lewis, of Ypsilanti, has been a guest of Birmingham friends for a few days.

The gravel road is opened south of Pontiac on the east side of the D. U. R. tracks to Bloomfield Highland.

The powers that be say the village tax rate for 1915 was less than one per cent—a long way from three per cent.

Mr. and Mrs. Rush Haskins moved this week from the Rosso house on Willitts street to their farm at Walnut Lake.

Mrs. I. B. Hale, of Merrill street, visited friends in Ann Arbor Monday and went from there to Battle Creek to attend the Grand Chapter of the O. E. S.

Samuel Bortle, of this village, has filed suit for divorce in circuit court against Mrs. Mary J. Bortle, charging extreme cruelty. Blakeslee & Blakeslee, of Pontiac are his attorneys.

The "ice man" was busy Saturday night—ice forming one-sixteenth of an inch thick on tubs of water. The pumpkin, corn, flowers and "sich" were put out of business for the season.

The Ladies' Church Society of the First Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. Snow, 302 East Maple avenue, Wednesday, October 20, at 3 o'clock. A good attendance is requested.

Now is the time of year when you feel like pushing the clock ahead and forgetting it, in order to get a little more daylight (by the clock) before you retire. But in the morning you must pay the penalty for your folly.

Habit is hard to overcome, but it can be done with practice and persistence. Instead of telling strangers what a poor town and onery neighbors you have, try dilating for a time on the many fine points of both and then notice how soon this will be a swell old world to live in. Begin today.

Since the new pavement was finished to Detroit nearly 200 real estate sales have been made of village lots and lots in sub-divisions near to and adjoining the village. We know it would come, but we didn't expect it so soon. And ninety per cent at least were sold to Detroit and Highland Park people who are confident enough of the future of Birmingham to put their good money in it.

John Wanamaker, the big Philadelphia merchant, says: Advertising is not an enterprise for a "quitter." If there is one enterprise on earth a quitter should leave alone, it is advertising. To make a success of advertising one must be prepared to stick like a barnacle to a boat's bottom. He should know before he begins that he must spend money—lots of it. Somebody must tell him that he cannot hope to obtain results commensurate with his expenditures early in the game. Advertising does not jerk; it pulls. It begins very gently at first, but the pull is steady. It increases day by day and year by year until it exerts an irresistible power.

"Jim" Montgomery has returned to Birmingham after three years absence, during which time he has seen much of the great, glorious, golden west. He is a fine looking young gentleman and we nearly had to be introduced to him to recognize the lad. He looks as if he had been used well and has only good words for the western people. This makes us think of other Birmingham boys 'way out west. Earl Mudge and Clyde Babcock send us a card in red showing the Siamese Twins in the Garden of the Gods, Colorado, and write: "Hello, George. We have got as far as Boise. Very dry and warm. We saw Allan Starr and Chas. Streeter at Chicago, also Geo. Duff at Denver. We are stopping at the Mitchell Hotel at Boise. Some mountains. Earl A. Mudge-Babcock."

A little showery Wednesday morning.

Alfred Deer, of Hazel street, is seriously ill.

Don't forget the Harvest Supper October 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor motored to Jackson Sunday.

Elmer Monroe spent Sunday with his family in Ann Arbor.

M. Levinson and family motored to Ann Arbor Sunday last.

The D. U. R. is busy filling in and grading its Pontiac barn site.

Donald Plumstead and Edward Smith spent Sunday in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Louis Erwin and daughter have returned from a week's visit with Detroit relatives.

William Hathaway has purchased Mrs. Decatur Keyser's property on Townsend street.

Mr. and Mrs. Freer and Mr. and Mrs. Kausch, of Detroit, were Sunday visitors of Mrs. White, of Hamilton avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Sisson and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bauer, of Detroit, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. McConnel, of Hamilton avenue, Sunday.

Miss Sadie Preston, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stewart, of Maple avenue east, the past two weeks, has returned to her home in San Francisco.

We still insist that the contrast will be so much the greater, we will enjoy the new condition of things just so much more than if we hadn't had such a heluva time.

The Ladies' Society of the First Presbyterian church will give a Harvest supper in the church, Thursday evening, October 28. Look for details in next week's paper.

The Firemen's supper was a grand success last Tuesday evening. Everybody in town went and all praised the quality, the quantity and the excellent service of this big feast.

E. A. Freer, auctioneer, will sell for Fred Brand all the farm stock, tools, etc., in use on the Vinsetta Farm, next Thursday, October 21. Sale begins at noon. Elmer Cowan is clerk.

The Ladies of the Birmingham U. P. church will hold a bazaar and food sale Friday and Saturday, November 19 and 20, in the Birmingham Hardware store corner Maple and Woodward avenues.

The annual October session of Oakland county board of supervisors opened in Pontiac Tuesday and will continue for two weeks. Possibly the most important matter to be considered is the $1,000,000 bond issue for good roads.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. James' church will be held at the residence of Mrs. R. M. Berry, Bloomfield Hills, on Wednesday, October 20, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. William Wells, of Detroit, will be the speaker.

Birmingham is paved—with good intentions. That's the onliest pavement we have at present. Let's see; didn't Shakespeare or Bacon or some of those old fellows tell us about another place, presumably so hot that any other kind of pavement would melt?

Nobody is very rich in Birmingham and nobody is very poor. We are all just sitting tight and trying not to rock the boat. Meantime the wise ones are casually buying property for investment and improvement before the prices go up like a cat's back.

The construction company which is building the new concrete road south of Pontiac started the latter part of last week to lay concrete. When this piece of road is completed there will only be a short space of unpaved highway between Pontiac and Detroit. This will be completed, it is planned, before July, 1916.

We feel sure that we can say without fear of contradiction that the handsomest, brightest, sweetest and dearest baby girl on earth today is Miss Marian Lucy Cobb, born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cobb, of Tuscola county, and named after Marian Golden and Lucy Ward (that used to be). No child named thereby but will have a brilliant future.

Old People's Day will be observed in the M. E. church Sunday, October 17. The morning service is to be particularly for those of three score years and ten, or older. The sermon will be prepared with the aged in view. Old hymns will be sung. Automobiles will call for any aged or physically infirm ones whose names are given to the pastor as willing to come. The young are also earnestly invited. Service at 10:30 o'clock.

Just see what fame, good judgment and common sense has brought Ed. A. O'Neal. He is chosen for a traverse jury-man in the U. S. Federal Court, which begins business November 4. There are 33 cases to be disposed of. Seven car seal violations; 5 narcotics, 4 immigration; 4 white slave cases and the balance P. O. violators and counterfeiters.

Postmaster Mitchell visited Buffalo and Niagara Falls last Sunday and Monday and had the pleasure of being ordered to "move on" while crossing one of the lower railroad bridges. As the Canadian "sojer boy" had a gun that looked 12 feet long with a butcher knife stuck on the end that measured three feet long, four inches wide and half an inch thick ground to a razor edge, it is needless to say he moved.

Dr. Raynale was sure he had a case for the Michigan asylum one day last week, so he jugged by the noise and commotion over at his neighbor Bigelow's house, and rushing over to get a case, he found Major Mothersill and Sergeant Buzzell of the old 5th Michigan Cavalry jutting down the rebellion for the steenth time. Mothersill is from Saskatchewan and Buzzell from Muskegon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanna are visiting relatives in Caro this week.

Mrs. J. Rundel, who has been seriously ill, is improving rapidly. Mrs. May, a nurse of Van Couver, is with her.

Stephen B. Cannon, of Washington, Mich., celebrated 83 years young on September 30, 1915. The Ladies' Aid of the Union Church Society gave him a grand and successful reunion. He was an old veteran and duly honored. Twenty-two veterans were present and their ages totalled 1,752. Jerome Foot, of Birmingham, was there and his years number 79. Good boy.

Next Tuesday evening, October 19, at Castle Hall of Birmingham Lodge, No. 149, K. of P., the third rank will be worked, followed by refreshments. Every member is requested to be present. Also we would like every member to make a note that every Tuesday night there is a regular meeting, and this winter there will be "something doing" every week. W. C. Aldrich, K. R. S.

Philosophical.

"You used to say you depended on the wisdom of the plain people." "Yes." "But now and then the plain people play a trick on you and neglect to send you to congress." "That doesn't destroy my faith in their wisdom. A little nonsense now and then is relished by the wisest men."—Washington Star.
