The printer has just as good grounds for asking the business men of a town to leave their job work at home as the business man has to ask the community to patronize him instead of the mail order houses. In fact the home paper does more for a town than any other enterprise located therein. Let the business men join hands with the home papers and both their interests will be greatly benefited.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wendell gave a charming dinner party Friday at their attractive home, "Larkspur," Birmingham Heights. The dinner was given in celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Maddocks, of Seattle, Washington. Mrs. Wendell's uncle and aunt, who are spending two weeks with them. Mr. and Mrs. Maddocks are 82 and 79 years respectively and this is the second trip that they made across the continent in two years to visit Mrs. Visscher, the mother of Mrs. Wendell.

James Gardner Shelley, inspector of motor trucks for the Packard Motor Co., has returned to Detroit after a car spent in Petrourad, where he was engaged in grooming the American-made motor vehicles for their participation in the activities of the European war. While never approaching the fighting line, the Detroit man, through his service at the government's motor transport base, had an exceptional opportunity to study the performance of trucks built in this country in carrying on the war. Mr. Gardner Shelley is a grandson of Mrs. Eda F. Peabody, of Willits street, and all the relatives rejoice at "Gard's" return to the U. S. A.

W. H. Whaley spent Sunday in Milan.

The regular monthly meeting of the Mission Circle of the Baptist church will be held at the home of Mrs. John Allen, Harmon avenue, Thursday, October 28, 1915. Mrs. Cora Todd, leader. Everybody welcome.

At the morning session of the Baptist church the members voted to reject the resignation of their pastor, Rev. G. L. Conley. A host of friends join with the members in rejoicing that Rev. Conley will remain in our midst.

In our account of Mr. Ackerman's death last week, we should have mentioned that for a week previous he had had the very best medical care of Dr. J. L. Campbell, and the day before his death he had not worked at the house moving as stated, in fact, felt poorly all day. We make this correction because some might think from its reading that he had no medical care, which he did.

Well, why don't you? Why is it that the printer's coat is always old and worn; why is it that his pants are frayed and in the rear are torn; why is it people never pay for papers they have had; why is it, darn it, tell me why, this situation sad, should come to those who labor hard to boost the old home town, but never seem to get a thing but nature's illest frown? They labor hard from early morn till night time comes apace, and never grumble at their lot, but smiling keep their face; so that is why I'd like to know what makes you act so scrappy, why don't you pay him what you owe, and make the poor cuss happy.

The first meeting of the Junior Y. M. C. A. was held at St. James' church Tuesday evening, October 19. Mr. Verburg, of Pontiac, was present as organizer with Raymond Peck and Allen Brown as leaders. Twenty-one boys, ranging from 12 to 15 years of age, were present though a large number is expected in regular attendance when the meetings get into full swing. One-half hour will be given to the study of a book which will be followed by physical training and wholesome social times among the boys. All parents should encourage their boys to belong. The Junior organization is an extension of the work begun by Mr. Verburg last year among the older boys. The next meeting will be held at St. James' church Tuesday evening, October 26.

The Detroit Times sends us an elegant brochure and a very interesting story telling of its past and successful sixteen years of active city life. One thing all Michigan can hand to Jim Schermerhorn, and that is this. If there were no Detroit Times, there would be no one cent paper in Detroit. We all would be paying two cents each for all of them. News and Journal. The Times lives up to the Beatitudes. It is clean, forceful and independent. The paper is now safely settled in their new building on Bagley avenue and it is a revelation and a revolution in print shops. All open to the public, the entire plant from counting room to stereotyping department; everybody and everything visible. They certainly did something when this establishment was outlined. We sure do congratulate the Times on a new building and an up-to-date plant. A new invention called the Metropolitan Tubular Press has twice the production of presses of other makes the same size and runs off 50,000 sixteen page papers per hour, all run by electricity. And as all times the Times rigidly excludes all advertisements concerning liquor, cigarettes and questionable medical and financial advertising.
